Nautical Quarterly, 1988 Oliver Hazard Perry David C Skaggs, 2013-07-31 Hailed for his decisive victory over a Royal Navy squadron on Lake Erie in September 1813 and best known for his after action report proclamation We have met the enemy and they are ours Oliver Hazard Perry was one the early U S Navy s most famous heroes In this modern scholarly reassessment of the man and his career Professor David Skaggs emphasizes Perry s place in naval history as an embodiment of the code of honor an exemplar of combat courage and a symbol of patriotism to his fellow officers and the American public It is the first biography of Perry to be published in more than a quarter of a century and the first to offer an even handed analysis of his career After completing a thorough examination of primary sources Skaggs traces Perry s development from a midshipman to commodore where he personified the best in seamanship calmness in times of stress and diplomatic skills But this work is not a hagiographic treatment for it offers a candid analysis of Perry s character flaws particularly his short temper and his sometimes ineffective command and control procedures during the battle of Lake Erie Skaggs also explains how Perry s short but dramatic naval career epitomized the emerging naval professionalism of the young republic and he demonstrates how the Hero of Lake Erie fits into the most recent scholarship concerning the role of post revolutionary generation in the development of American national identity Finally Skaggs explores in greater detail than anyone before the controversy over the conduct of his Lake Erie second Jesse Duncan Elliott that raged on for over a quarter century after Perry s death in 1819 The Timberclads in the Civil War Myron J. Smith, Jr., 2008-10-07 In the most detailed history ever of Union warships on the western waters of the Civil War the author recounts the exploits of the timberclad ships Lexington Tyler and Conestoga Converted to warships from commercial steamboats at the beginning of the conflict the three formed the core of the North s Western Flotilla later the Mississippi Squadron The book focuses on the activities of these wooden warriors while providing context for the greater war including accounts of their famous commanders their roles in both large and small battles ship to ship combat and support for the armies of Gen U S Grant and Gen William T Sherman Japanese Defence Syed Javed Maswood, 1990 This book focuses on the defence policy of the Nakasone administration and attempts to provide an explanation for the policy measures which its administration implemented or initiated It suggests that the widening disparity between economic interests and political power forced Japan to review the traditional bases for defence policy making and prompted the search for a balance that would allow the country a more active role in the international sphere The book is organized around the central theme that Nakasone s defence policy can be understood as an attempt to rehabilitate Japan as a normal state and end the state of affairs that had relegated it to a unique and low position The Archaeologist's Manual for Conservation Bradley A. Rodgers, 2007-05-08 This is a Foreword by an archaeologist not a conservator but as Brad Rodgers says Conservation has been steadily pulled from archaeology by the forces of specialization

p 3 and he wants to remedy that situation through this manual. He sees this work as a call to action for the non-professional conservator permitting curators, conservators, and archaeologists to identify artifacts that need professional attention and allow these professionals to stabilize most artifacts in their own laboratories with minimal intervention using simple, non-toxic procedures.

p 5 It is the mission of Brad's manual to bring conservation back into archaeology.

p 6 The degree of success of that goal depends on the degree to which archaeologists pay attention to and put to use what Brad has to say because as he says: The conservationist archaeologist is responsible to make preparation for an artifact's care even before it is excavated and after its storage into the foreseeable future, a tremendous responsibility.

p 10 The manual is a combination of highly technical as well as common-sense methods of conserving wood, iron, and other metals, ceramics, glass, and stone organics and composites. A far better guide to artifact conservation than was available to me when I first faced that archaeological challenge at colonial Brunswick Town, North Carolina, in 1958, a challenge still being faced by archaeologists today. The stage of conservation in 1958 is in dramatic contrast to the procedures Brad describes in this manual; conservation has indeed made great progress. For instance, a common procedure then was to heat the artifacts red-hot in a furnace, a method that made me cringe.

The Legend of Chris-Craft Jeffrey L. Rodengen, 1993. America's most popular nautical gift is back as an all-new third edition. The Legend of Chris-Craft by noted author and historian Jeffrey L. Astoria & Empire James P. Ronda, 1990. The viceroy's vision of the future proved startlingly accurate. Within the next two decades an American president would authorize a federally funded expedition to find just the sort of transcontinental route Florez imagined. Equally important, a New York entrepreneur would propose and put into motion an ambitious plan to make the Northwest an American political and commercial empire. John Astor's Pacific Fur Company, with Astoria as its central post on the Columbia River, was Florez's nightmare come true. Astoria had long represented either a daring overland adventure or simply a failed trading venture. The Astorians surely had their share of adventure. And the Pacific Fur Company never brought its founder the profits he expected. But all those involved in the extensive enterprise knew it meant more.

The USS Carondelet Myron J. Smith, Jr., 2010-04-13. The USS Carondelet had a revolutionary ship design and was the most active of all the Union's Civil War river ironclads. From Fort Henry through the siege of Vicksburg and from the Red River campaign through the Battle of Nashville, the gunboat was prominent in war legend and literature. This history draws on the letters of Ensign Scott Dyer Jordan and Rear Adm Henry Walke's memoirs.

Dibdin 1745 1814 was one of the most popular and influential creative forces in late Georgian Britain producing a diversity of works that defy simple categorisation He was an actor lyricist composer singer songwriter comedian theatre manager journalist artist music tutor speculator and author of novels historical works polemical pamphlets and guides to musical education This collection of essays illuminates the social and cultural conditions that made such a varied career possible offering fresh insights into previously unexplored aspects of late Georgian culture society and politics Tracing the transitions in the cultural economy from an eighteenth century system of miscellany to a nineteenth century regime of specialisation Charles Dibdin and Late Georgian Culture illustrates the variety of Dibdin s cultural output as characteristic of late eighteenth century entertainment while also addressing the challenge mounted by a growing preoccupation with specialisation in the early nineteenth century The chapters written by some of the leading experts in their individual disciplines examine Dibdin s extraordinarily wide ranging career spanning cultural spaces from the theatres at Drury Lane and Covent Garden through Ranelagh Gardens Sadler s Wells and the Royal Circus to singing on board ships and in elegant Regency parlours from broadside ballads and graphic satires to newspaper journalism mezzotint etchings painting and decorative pottery Together they demonstrate connections between forms of cultural production that have often been treated as distinct and provide a model for a more integrated approach to the fabric of late Georgian cultural production The Life and Times of General Andrew Pickens Rod Andrew Jr.,2017-02-23 Andrew Pickens 1739 1817 the hard fighting South Carolina militia commander of the American Revolution was the hero of many victories against British and Loyalist forces In this book Rod Andrew Jr offers an authoritative and comprehensive biography of Pickens the man the general the planter and the diplomat Andrew vividly depicts Pickens as he founds churches acquires slaves joins the Patriot cause and struggles over Indian territorial boundaries on the southern frontier Combining insights from military and social history Andrew argues that while Pickens s actions consistently reaffirmed the authority of white men he was also determined to help found the new republic based on broader principles of morality and justice After the war Pickens sought a peaceful and just relationship between his country and the southern Native American tribes and wrestled internally with the issue of slavery Andrew suggests that Pickens s rise to prominence his stern character and his sense of duty highlight the egalitarian ideals of his generation as well as its moral shortcomings all of which still influence Americans understanding of themselves

The CSS Arkansas Myron J. Smith, Jr.,2014-01-10 While the Monitor and Merrimack are the most famous of the Civil War ironclads the Confederacy had another ship in its flotilla that carried high hopes and a metal hull The makeshift CSS Arkansas completed by Lt Isaac Newton Brown and manned by a mixed crew of volunteers gave the South a surge of confidence when it launched in 1862 For 28 days of summer the ship engaged in five battles with Union warships falling victim in the end only to her own primitive engines The saga of the CSS Arkansas represents the last significant Rebel naval activity in the war s Western theater Cultures in Contact Joan Aruz,Sarah B. Graff,Yelena Rakic,2013 The exhibition

Beyond Babylon Art Trade and Diplomacy in the Second Millennium B C held in 2008 2009 at The Metropolitan Museum of Art demonstrated the cultural enrichment that emerged from the intensive interaction of civilizations from western Asia to Egypt and the Aegean in the Middle and Late Bronze Ages During this critical period in human history powerful kingdoms and large territorial states were formed Rising social elites created a demand for copper and tin as well as for precious gold and silver and exotic materials such as lapis lazuli and ivory to create elite objects fashioned in styles that reflected contacts with foreign lands This quest for metals along with the desire for foreign textiles was the driving force that led to the establishment of merchant colonies and a vast trading network throughout central Anatolia during the early second millennium B C Texts from palaces at sites from Hattusa modern Bogazk y in Hittite Anatolia to Amarna in Egypt attest to the volume and variety of interactions that took place some centuries later creating the impetus for the circulation of precious goods stimulating the exchange of ideas and inspiring artistic creativity Perhaps the most dramatic evidence for these far flung connections emerges out of tragedy the wreckage of the oldest known seagoing ship discovered in a treacherous stretch off the southern coast of Turkey near the promontory known as Uluburun Among its extraordinary cargo of copper glass and exotic raw materials and luxury goods is a gilded bronze statuette of a goddess perhaps the patron deity on board who failed in her mission to protect the ship To explore the themes of the exhibition art trade and diplomacy viewed from an international perspective a two day symposium and related scholarly events allowed colleagues to explore many facets of the multicultural societies that developed in the second millennium B C Their insights which dramatically illustrate the incipient phases of our intensely interactive world are presented largely in symposium order beginning with broad regional overviews and examination of particular archeological contexts and then drawing attention to specific artists and literary evidence for interconnections In this introduction however their contributions are viewed from a somewhat more synthetic perspective one that focuses attention on the ways in which ideas in this volume intersect to enrich the ongoing discourse on the themes elucidated in the exhibition

After Vicksburg Myron J. Smith, Jr., 2021-11-01 This is the first published comprehensive survey of naval action on the Mississippi River and its tributaries for the years 1863 1865 Following introductory reviews of the rivers and of the U S Navy s Mississippi Squadron chronological Federal naval participation in various raids and larger campaigns is highlighted as well as counterinsurgency economical support and control and logistical protection The book includes details on units locations and activities that have been previously underreported or ignored Examples include the birth and function of the Mississippi Squadron s 11th District the role of U S Army gunboats and the war on the Upper Cumberland and Upper Tennessee Rivers The last chapter details the coming of the peace in 1865 and the decommissioning of the U S river navy and the sale of its gunboats

The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988 Combat Operations of the Korean War Paul M. Edwards, 2015-01-28 This reference work provides information on all known military operations carried out under United Nations command as part of the Korean War from June 1950 through 22 July 1954 Following an introductory history of the Korean War and a precise chronology of all Korean War operations entries are arranged by operation name in five sections primarily ground operations primarily air operations primarily sea operations specialized operations and covert and clandestine operations For each operation information includes dates objectives units involved place within the greater strategy of the war and outcome Serials in the British Library ,1988 The Standard Periodical Directory ,2001 Sardinian and Aegean Chronology Miriam S. Balmuth,Robert H. Tykot,1998 Balanced between the Aegean and West Mediterranean worlds Sardinia offers a perfect laboratory for the investigation of interaction between societies from the Palaeolithic to Roman period This work has however been hampered in the past by incompatible chronologies so the 46 papers in this volume originated at an international congress held at Tufts University in 1995 form an important stepping stone for future research Twelve papers in Italian take a stylistic approach using architecture sculpture and for the Chalcolithic The English language papers discuss radiocarbon dating dendrochronology obsidian and other scientific approaches to dating As the title of the book suggests Aegean chronologies benefit as much as the West Mediterranean from the results presented here
