Daugherty III,2015-08-01

From the turn of the 20th century until the end of World War II the United States Marine Corps fought a series of small wars starting in the Philippines in 1899 and ending in the islands of the southwest Pacific in 1945 Through this experience the Marines perfected the prosecution of such wars in its famed Small Wars Manual written for Marine Corps schools in the late 1930s The present volume is a chronological examination of the various Marine expeditions in the Pacific West Indies and Central America from 1899 through 1945 and of the lessons learned

National Security Challenges for the 21st Century Williamson Murray,2003 Officers who participated in the Advanced Strategic Art Program ASAP during their year at the U S Army War College wrote these chapters The ASAP is a unique program that offers selected students a rigorous course of instruction in theater strategy Solidly based in theory doctrine and history the program provides these students a rich professional experience that includes staff rides exercises and the best instructional expertise available The program is designed to provide the joint community with the military's best theater strategists The challenges facing the defense establishment in the United States at the beginning of the 21st century are daunting indeed however the thoughtful essays included in this volume including two award winners representing some of the thinking by students at the U S Army War College provide insights into these trials that will prove useful to policymakers both in and out of uniform

Allied and American Naval Operations in the European Theater, World War I Paolo Enrico Coletta,1996 This text offers conclusions drawn from the study of the contributions of sea power to Allied American victory in World War II While naval strategy and tactics are considered great emphasis has been placed upon the American bridge of ships that made logistic support for the Allies possible Details have been garnered from the study of records in the Italian Naval History Office British Naval Defence Library and a host of American British French and Italian archival and manuscript collections in addition to many secondary works and articles The book includes 48 pages of maps and photographs
