The Nawal El Saadawi Reader Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 1997
The Essential Nawal El Saadawi Nawal El Saadawi, 2013-07-04 The writings of Nawal El Saadawi are essential to anyone wishing to understand the contemporary Arab world Her dissident voice has stayed as consistent in its critique of neo imperialist international politics as it has in its denunciation of women's oppression both in her native Egypt and in the wider world Saadawi is a figure of international significance and her work has a central place in Arabic history and culture of the last half century Featuring work never before translated into English The Essential Nawal El Saadawi gathers together a wide range of Saadawi's writing From novellas and short stories to essays on politics culture religion and sex from extensive interviews to her work as a dramatist from poetry to autobiography this book is essential for anyone wishing to gain a sense of the breadth of Saadawi's work

A Critical Study of the Works of Nawal El Saadawi, Egyptian Writer and Activist Diana Royer, 2001 As a companion for reading her fiction and nonfiction this volume contextualizes her work by taking into consideration the complexities of Egyptian society today in particular Islamic fundamentalism and women's status It also introduces the current scholarly debate on ancient women's status Chapters on individual novels look both at technique oral literary traditions woman's narrative imagery and topic female circumcision gender roles prostitution honor killing Novels examined are Two Women in One The Circling Song Woman at Point Zero God Dies By the Nile

God Loves Diversity and Justice Susanne Scholz, 2013-05-16 Both personal and scholarly in tone this book encourages readers to think theologically ethically and politically about the statement that declares God loves diversity and justice The multi religious multi ethnic multi disciplinary and multi gendered identities of the eleven contributors and two respondents deepen the conversation It considers questions such as Do we affirm or challenge this theological statement Do we concentrate on God in our response or do we interrogate what diversity and justice mean in light of God's love for diversity and justice Alternatively do we prefer to ponder the verb to love and consider what it might mean for society if people really believed in a divinity loving diversity and justice Of course there are no easy and simple answers whether we consult the Sikh scriptures the Bible the Qur'an the movies the Declaration of Human Rights or the transgender movement but the effort is worthwhile The result is a serious historical literary cultural and religious discourse that fends against intellectually rigid thought and simplistic belief systems across the religious spectrum In our world in which so much military unrest and violence economic inequities and religious strife prevail such a conversation nurtures theological ethical and political possibilities of inclusion and justice

Women's Activism in the Islamic Republic of Iran Samira Ghoreishi, 2021-03-21 Through an intersectional feminist re reading of the Habermasian theoretical framework this book analyses how women's activism has developed and operated in the Islamic Republic of Iran Chapters look at three key areas of women s activism in Iran how women deliberately engaged with media activism despite the government s controlling and repressive policies women s involvement in civil society organisations institutions and communities and cooperation through multilevel activism and women s activism in the political sphere and its connection with media and civil society activism despite the theocratic system Drawing upon interviews analyses of journal and newspaper articles and documentary non documentary films as well as personal experiences observations and communications the book examines to what extent Iranian women s rights groups and activists have collaborated not only with each other but with other social groups and activists to help facilitate the formation of a pluralist civil society capable of engaging in deliberative processes of democratic reform This book will be of interest to scholars in Gender Studies and Middle Eastern Studies particularly those who study women s and other social movements in Iran

Feminism, Literature and Rape Narratives Sorcha Gunne,Zoe Brigley Thompson,2012-08-06 The essays in this volume discuss narrative strategies employed by international writers when dealing with rape and sexual violence whether in fiction poetry memoir or drama In developing these new feminist readings of rape narratives the contributors aim to incorporate arguments about trauma and resistance in order to establish new dimensions of healing This book makes a vital contribution to the fields of literary studies and feminism since while other volumes have focused on retroactive portrayals of rape in literature to date none has focused entirely on the subversive work that is being done to retheorize sexual violence Split into four sections the volume considers sexual violence from a number of different angles Subverting the Story considers how the characters of the victim and rapist might be subverted in narratives of sexual violence In Metaphors for Resistance the essays explore how writers approach the subject of rape obliquely using metaphors to represent their suffering and pain The controversy of not speaking about sexual violence is the focus of The Protest of Silence while The Question of the Visual considers the problems of making sexual violence visible in the poetic image in film and on stage These four sections cover an impressive range of world writing which includes curriculum staples like Toni Morrison Sarah Kane Sandra Cisneros Yvonne Vera and Sharon Olds

Rising Anthills Elisabeth Bekers,2010-08-05 Female genital excision or the ritual of cutting the external genitals of girls and women is undoubtedly one of the most heavily and widely debated cultural traditions of our time By looking at how writers of African descent have presented the practice in their literary work Elisabeth Bekers shows how the debate on female genital excision evolved over the last four decades of the twentieth century in response to changing attitudes about ethnicity nationalism colonialism feminism and human rights Rising Anthills the title refers to a Dogon myth analyzes works in English French and Arabic by African and African American writers both women and men from different parts of the African continent and the diaspora Attending closely to the nuances of language and the complexities of the issue Bekers explores lesser known writers side by side with such recognizable names as Ngugi wa Thiong o Flora Nwapa Nawal El Saadawi Ahmadou Kourouma Calixthe Beyala Alice Walker and Gloria

Naylor Following their literary discussions of female genital excision she discerns a gradual evolution from the 1960s when writers mindful of its communal significance carefully wrote around the physical operation through the 1970s and 1980s when they began to speak out against the practice and their societies gender politics to the late 1990s when they situated their denunciations of female genital excision in a much broader international context of women s oppression and the struggle for women s rights

Language and Identity in the Israel-Palestine Conflict Camelia Suleiman,2011-09-30 The conflict between Israel and Palestine is and remains to be one of the most widely and passionately debated issues in the Middle East and in the field of international politics An important part of this conflict is the dimension of self perception of both Israelis and Palestinians caught up in its midst Here Camelia Suleiman using her background in linguistic analysis examines the interplay of language and identity feminism and nationalism and how the concepts of spatial and temporal boundaries affect self perception She does this through interviews with peace activists from a variety of backgrounds Palestinians with Israeli citizenship Jewish Israelis as well as Palestinians from Ramallah officially holders of Jordanian passports By emphasizing the importance of these levels of official identity Suleiman explores how self perception is influenced negotiated and manifested and how place of birth and residence play a major role in this conflict This book therefore holds vital first hand analysis of the conflict and its impact upon both Israelis and Palestinians making it crucial for anyone involved in Middle East Studies Conflict Studies and International Relations

In Search of Understanding Clinton Bennett,2019-10-04 Clinton Bennett reflects on four decades of engagement with Muslims and Christian Muslim relations as a missionary scholar and interfaith activist Set in the context of his personal story chapters discuss a series of critical questions to the Christian Muslim relationship reprising earlier writing Bennett asks can Christians appreciate the prophet Muhammad as a genuine messenger from God or is this theological treason How might Christians respond to the Muslim claim that Jesus was a prophet and is not God incarnate Can Christians with integrity regard the Qur n as a word from God and is there any possibility of rapprochement on the issue of whether Jesus died on the cross Focusing on the United States Bennett also describes church sponsored Christian Muslim initiatives and offers suggestions on how Christians can rethink their ideas about Muslims and cooperate with them in peace and justice advocacy and social and community development Exploring some of the causes of Islamophobia Bennett set out to challenge Christians to keep the commandment not to bear false witness against their Muslim neighbors changing media landscape in the Middle East empowering women This is the first book to address the dynamics of media ecology and women's advancement in the contemporary Middle East The book spans both the region and media forms from Iran's women's press via Maghrebi women filmmakers and Egyptian political films Palestinian TV and Hezbollah's TV station Al Manar It takes as its starting point the diverse experiences and multi layered identities of women and treats media institutions and practices as part of wider power relations in society By analysing media production consumption and texts it reveals where and how gender boundaries have been erected or crossed Culture, Diaspora, and Modernity in Muslim

Writing Rehana Ahmed,Peter Morey,Amina Yaqin,2012-08-21 Fiction by writers of Muslim background forms one of the most diverse vibrant and high profile corpora of work being produced today from the trail blazing writing of Salman Rushdie and Hanif Kureishi which challenged political and racial orthodoxies in the 1980s to that of a new generation including Mohsin Hamid Nadeem Aslam and Kamila Shamsie This collection reflects the variety of those fictions Experts in English South Asian and postcolonial literatures address the nature of Muslim identity its response to political realignments since the 1980s its tensions between religious and secular models of citizenship and its manifestation of these tensions as conflict between generations In considering the perceptions of Muslims contributors also explore the roles of immigration class gender and national identity as well as the impact of 9 11 This volume includes essays on contemporary fiction by writers of Muslim origin and non Muslims writing about Muslims It aims to push beyond the habitual populist framing of Muslims as strangers or interlopers whose ways and beliefs are at odds with those of modernity exposing the hide bound conservative assumptions that underpin such perspectives While returning to themes that are of particular significance to diasporic Muslim cultures such as secularism modernity multiculturalism and citizenship the essays reveal that Muslim writing grapples with the same big questions as serve to exercise all writers and intellectuals at the present time How does one reconcile the impulses of the individual with the requirements of community How can one belong in the modern world What is the role of art in making sense of chaotic contemporary experience Biographical Dictionary of Modern Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt,2000 This desk reference provides biodata biographical sketches and source material for approximately 500 men and women who have played a major role in Egypt s national life Ecologies of Incarceration Mauve Perle Tahat,2024-12-15 Ecologies of Incarceration Carceral Discard Studies in the Anthropocene offers a compelling exploration of the intersections between carceral systems environmental concerns and political ideologies This interdisciplinary work examines how prison literature and narrative witness reveal the complexities of our contemporary world shedding light on the systemic issues that link environmental degradation with carceral practices With a nuanced analysis of how these intertwined systems impact individuals and communities drawing on diverse examples to illustrate the broader implications of these interactions the text offers practical insights for activists and community builders while providing a guide for those seeking to understand and address the challenges of our time through collective action and critical engagement African Masculinities L. Ouzgane,R. Morrell,2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West there is very little analysis of African masculinities This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa the many forms of violence wars genocides familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in depth and comprehensive study of African men as a gendered category Relocating Consciousness Daphne Grace,2007 This book deals directly with issues of consciousness within works of postcolonial and diasporic writers It discusses fiction autobiography and theory to re formulate a writing of consciousness addressing contemporary cultural theory related to a wide range of dynamic writers and ground breaking novels A critical analysis of literature contextualises consciousness understood here as the source of language and human creativity and explores ways in which consciousness is involved in the creative process Tackling the controversial nature of consciousness itself the book argues that consciousness must be understood in its philosophical and social contexts The idea of relocating consciousness calls for a new aesthetics and ethics of living in the diasporic world where we are all to some extent migrant The book explores notions of consciousness as alternative narrative structures to society while expanding contemporary postcolonial theory beyond the limited dimension of power based on violence to a more visionary exploration of experience based on consciousness as unity in diversity Themes explored include sacred experience as empowerment trauma terror and the impact of consciousness cosmopolitanism and globalisation and the literature of human survival Written in a lively and accessible manner the book will appeal to all readers who enjoy being on the cutting edge of contemporary world literature
