Teaching with the Wind Michael Dallaire, 2011-11-16 Teaching with the Wind tackles the question Can education for a Canadian civic spirituality bridge the sometimes incommensurable worldviews of faith based schools and secular public schools An affirmative answer is offered based on two foundations First that a national soul can be identified and thus serve as the content of spiritual education in Canada schools Second that a reconstructed approach to the contemplation in action method found in world religions and philosophy can provide an appropriate pedagogy for Canadian spiritual education This book argues that education for civic spirituality is of paramount importance as Canada continues its transition from a Judeo Christian and bicultural nation to a multi faith and multicultural nation within a secular democracy It offers a direction that would enrich religious and secular education systems as well as Canada as a whole

How Survivors of Abuse Relate to God Susan Shooter,2016-04-29 Grappling with theological issues raised by abuse this book argues that the Church should be challenged and ministered to by survivors Paying careful attention to her interviews with Christian women survivors Shooter finds that through painful experiences of transformation they have surprisingly become potential agents of transformation for others Shooter brings the survivors narratives into dialogue with the story of Job and with medieval mystic Marguerite Porete's spirituality of annihilation Culminating in an engagement with contemporary feminist theology concerning power and powerlessness there emerges a set of principles for authentic community spirituality which crosses boundaries with God supports appropriate human boundaries and crucially listens attentively Appealing to Church leaders students practitioners and practical theologians this book offers a creative and ethical theological enquiry as well as some spiritual anchor points for survivors

Jesus's Teachings about Love, Forgiveness, and Relationships in the Christian Bible and A Course in Miracles David A. Scott, MA, LMFT,2023-01-23 Jesus was an enlightened spiritual master who lived and taught in the Middle East over two thousand years ago The Gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John are four of the many gospels that claim to describe his life and contain his teachings More recently the spirit of Jesus dictated A Course in Miracles to Dr Helen Schucman a psychologist in New York City The Course when it was published included three volumes 1 a theoretical Text 2 a Workbook for Students and 3 a Manual for Teachers A Preface and two supplements were received by the same process and added to it later So now we have two ways to study and explore what Jesus taught This book examines his teachings from both sources regarding 1 love and spirit 2 giving getting and receiving 3 spiritually guided forgiveness and 4 our relationship with God and each other You will discover as the author did that the Gospels and the Course are largely in agreement as one would expect if they came from the same teacher This book is also available in Kindle and paperback editions on Amazon and epub and audio editions on Kobo

Regardless Of Person Rev. Andre E. Keeley, 2019-10-03 It has been said that the eleven o'clock hour on Sunday morning is the most segregated hour of the week In churches that tout Christian unity as the one quality essential to accomplishing God's will in the world division still remains the one quality that defines the place of the Church in the world today That division is not limited to the varied members of the worshipping community but in leadership as well Scripture the record of our faith tells the faithful that regardless of person the varied gifts and talents that exist among us are the tools essential for building the beloved kingdom Those tools have been dispersed to the faithful who understand the importance of identifying the kingdom of heaven and pointing the way to it In short as Scripture describes it To make the path straight Using the eight parables of Jesus that begin with the words the kingdom of heaven is like to describe heaven's nature and our place in it is the central focus of the book The faithful of the Church over ages past understood the work to be carried out if God's will is to be done on earth as it is in heaven That work is given to those regardless of person who acknowledge heaven as a place of eternal oneness and divine presence Pointing to that place is the task given to the faithful that all humanity may know the reaches of a loving God The God of creation has given gifts to the faithful to identify divine presence The God of divine guidance has given talents to the faithful to illumine the way to that presence The God of eternal salvation has given blessing to the faithful to help make the way a blessing to all regardless of person

Friends on the Way Thomas F. Michel, 2007 Drawing on a variety of approaches this book explores historical philosophical theological cultural and institutional themes such as Ignatian perspectives on Halakhic spirituality and the role played in Jesuit history by Jews forced to convert to Christianity
