Rottman, 2013-02-20 The Vietnamese knew the Long Range Patrol Scouts as the men with green faces a reference to the camouflage paint that they used Operating in patrols of four to six men these men were like ghosts scouting far behind enemy lines This book examines the Long Range Patrol Scout's superior stealth movement techniques camouflage and concealment tracking counter tracking observation and other fieldcraft skills It also examines the occasions they participated in small scale direct actions including ambushes and raids Written by a Special Forces Vietnam veteran this book not only depicts the remarkable lives of these scouts when on campaign but also details the training and conditioning that it took to become one of these shadow warriors Journal of Special Operations Medicine, 2003 The Eyes of the Eagle Gary Linderer, 2010-05-12 In the 101st Airborne if you cared enough to send the very best you sent The Howlers Gary Linderer volunteered for the Army then volunteered for Airborne training When he reached Vietnam in 1968 he was assigned to the famous Screaming Eagles the 101st Airborne Division Once there he volunteered for training and duty with F Company 58th Inf the Long Range Patrol company that was the Eyes of the Eagle F Company pulled reconnaissance missions and ambushes and Linderer recounts night insertions into enemy territory patrols against NVA anti-aircraft emplacements and rocket launching facilities the fragging of an unpopular company commander and one of the bravest demonstrations of courage under fire that has ever been described The Eyes of the Eagle is an accurate exciting look at the recon soldier's war There are none better Eyes Behind the Lines: US Army Long-Range Reconnaissance and Surveillance Units James F. Gebhardt, 2005 Eyes Behind the Lines US Army Long Range Reconnaissance and Surveillance Units is the 10th study in the Combat Studies Institute CSI Global War on Terrorism GWOT Occasional Paper series This work is an outgrowth of concerns identified by the authors of On Point The United States Army in Operation IRAQI FREEDOM Specifically these authors called into question the use of long range surveillance LRS assets by commanders during that campaign and suggested an assessment ought to be made about their continuing utility and means of employment This revision contains some important additional information the author received after this book was originally published Major Retired James Gebhardt of CSI researched and wrote this Occasional Paper with that end in view In this study Gebhardt surveys the US Army's historical experience with LRRP and LRS units from the 1960s Cold War and Vietnam War through their resurgence in the 1980s and use in Operations JUST CAUSE and DESERT STORM to the advent of the GWOT The paper s analytical framework examines each era of LRS units in terms of doctrine organization training materiel leadership and personnel In doing so the author makes a strong case for continuing the LRS capability in the Army s force structure The variety of environments and enemies likely to be faced by the military in the GWOT continues to demand the unique human intelligence abilities of trained and organized LRS units As the Army leads the Armed Forces of the United States in combating terrorists where they live the lessons found in this survey remain timely and relevant Eyes Behind the Lines James F. Gebhardt,2005 Guns Up!

Johnnie Clark,2011-02-02 THIS GUT WRENCHING FIRSTHAND ACCOUNT OF THE WAR IS A CLASSIC IN THE ANNALS OF VIETNAM LITERATURE Guns up was the battle cry that sent machine gunners racing forward with their M60s to mow down the enemy hoping that this wasn t the day they would meet their deaths Marine Johnnie Clark heard that the life expectancy of a machine gunner in Vietnam was seven to ten seconds after a firefight began Johnnie was only eighteen when he got there at the height of the bloody Tet Offensive at Hue and he quickly realized the grim statistic held a chilling truth The Marines who fought and bled and died were ordinary men many still teenagers but the selfless bravery they showed day after day in a nightmarish jungle war made them true heroes This new edition of Guns Up filled with photographs and updated information about those harrowing battles also contains the real names of these extraordinary warriors and details of their lives after the war The book s continuing success is a tribute to the raw courage and sacrifice of the United States Marines

Reflections Revisited Reuben H. Siverling,2017-01-09 As described by Reverend J Lowell Harrup pastor of Northland Cathedral Kansas City Missouri This book focuses on army rangers in particular the Fourth Infantry Divisions LRRPs or the rangers of the Seventy Fifth Regiment the official as well as the spiritual successor to the fabled Merrills Marauders the long range deep penetration units of World War II Their stories need to be told not for individual aggrandizement though they certainly earned that but so their history will be more than a political polemic The Vietnam conflict was terrible but our troops carried on the tradition of our military from the beginning of this nation I have come to know many of them including a number of highly decorated heroes of that conflict Among those I put in that category is Reuben Siverling a close friend and Christian brother whose story is in this book These stories are not enhanced they need no enhancement They are in fact the attempt to reduce in words the experiences that were lived in units of time distorted by the surreality of war extreme environments separation from families and constant death and dying all around The complete story of each cannot be told books are not big enough But these are told so that history will stand unrevised Phantom Warriors Gary Linderer,2000

True story of Long Range reconnaissance Patrols in Vietnam Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2000 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 War Paint Bill Goshen,2007-12-18 The men who served with in the 1st Infantry Division with F company 52nd Infantry LRP later redesignated as Company I 75th Infantry Ranger engaged in some of the fiercest bloodiest fighting during the Vietnam War suffering a greater relative aggregate of casualties than any other LRRP LRP

Ranger company Their base was Lai Khe within hailing distance of the Vietcong central headquarters a mile inside Cambodia with its vast stockpiles of weapons and thousands of transient VC and NVA soldiers Recondo qualified Bill Goshen was there and has written the first account of these battle hardened soldiers As the eyes and ears of the Big Red One the 1st Infantry these hunter killer teams of only six men instered deep inside enemy territory had to survive by their wits or suffer the deadly consequences Goshen himself barely escaped with his life in a virtual suicide mission that destroyed half his team His gripping narrative recaptures the raw courage and sacrifice of American soldiers fighting a savage war of survival men of all colors from all walks of life warriors bonded by triumph and tragedy by life and death They served proudly in Vietnam and their stories need to be told

Rangers at War Shelby L. Stanton, 2011-07-06 Shelby Stanton has emerged as the leading military historian on the war in Southeast Asia COL CHARLES B MacDONALD Author of COMPANY COMMANDER and A TIME FOR TRUMPETS One of the toughest and most challenging jobs in Vietnam was to be a U S Army Ranger running Long Range Reconnaissance Patrols The LRRPs took volunteers only and training was designed to weed out all but the best What emerged was an elite outfit of warriors in the finest sense of the word Now Shelby Stanton renowned military authority on the war in Southeast Asia presents the first and only definitive history of the LRRPs and the U S Army Rangers in Vietnam They re all here the Screaming Eagle Patrollers Cochise Raiders Charlie Rangers Cobra Lightning Patrollers and more
