Charleston Kitchen Matt Lee, Ted Lee, 2013-02-26 Let James Beard Award winning authors and hometown heroes Matt Lee and Ted Lee be your culinary ambassadors to Charleston South Carolina one of America's most storied and buzzed about food destinations Growing up in the heart of the historic downtown in a warbler

yellow house on Charleston's famed Rainbow Row brothers Matt and Ted knew how to cast for shrimp before they were in middle school and could catch and pick crabs soon after. They learned to recognize the fruit trees that grew around town and knew to watch for the day in late March when the loquats on the tree on Chalmers Street ripened. Their new cookbook brings the vibrant food culture of this great Southern city to life giving readers insider access to the best recipes and stories Charleston has to offer. No cookbook on the region would be complete without the city's most iconic dishes done right including She Crab Soup, Hoppin' John and Huguenot Torte but the Lee brothers also aim to reacquaint home cooks with treasures lost to time like chewy crunchy salty sweet Groundnut Cakes and Syllabub with Rosemary Glazed Figs. In addition they masterfully bring the flavors of today's Charleston to the fore inviting readers to sip a bright Kumquat Gin Cocktail nibble chilled Pickled Shrimp with Fennel and dig into a plate of Smothered Pork Chops perhaps with a side of Grilled Chainey Briar foraged from sandy beach paths. The brothers left no stone unturned in their quest for Charleston's best interviewing home cooks chefs farmers fishermen caterers and funeral directors to create an accurate portrait of the city's food traditions. Their research led to gems such as Flounder in Parchment with Shaved Vegetables an homage to the dish that became Edna Lewis's signature during her tenure at Middleton Place Restaurant and Cheese Spread à la Henry's a peppery dip from the beloved brasserie of the mid twentieth century. Readers are introduced to the people past and present who have left their mark on the food culture of the Holy City and inspired the brothers to become the cookbook authors they are today. Through 100 recipes 75 full color photographs and numerous personal stories The Lee Bros Charleston Kitchen gives readers the most intimate portrayal yet of the cuisine of this exciting Southern city one that will resonate with food lovers wherever they live. And for visitors to Charleston indispensable walking and driving tours related to recipes in the book bring this food town to life like never before.

Two Hundred Years of Charleston Cooking Lettie Gay, 2021-06-08. A 1930s collection of more than 300 recipes from South Carolina housewives and the African American cooks they employed. First published in 1930 as 200 Years of Charleston Cooking this collection of more than three hundred recipes was gathered by Blanche S. Rhett from housewives and their African American cooks in Charleston South Carolina. From enduring favorites like she crab soup and Hopping John to forgotten delicacies like cooter turtle stew the recipes Rhett collected were full of family secrets but often lacked precise measurements. With an eye to precision that characterized home economics in the 1930s Rhett engaged Lettie Gay director of the Home Institute at the New York Herald Tribune to interpret test and organize the recipes in this book. Two Hundred Years of Charleston Cooking is replete with southern charm and detailed instructions on preparing the likes of shrimp with hominy cheese straws and sweet potato pie not to mention more than one hundred pages of delightful cakes and candies.
