Myths Of The Middle East Dispelling The Lies:

Monumental Lies Robert Bevan, 2022-10-11 The past is weaponised in culture wars and cynically edited by those who wish to impose their ideology upon the physical spaces around us Holocaust deniers use details of the ruins of the gas chambers Auschwitz to promote their lies No Holes No Holocaust Yet long standing concepts such as authenticity in heritage are undermined and trivialised by gatekeepers such as UNESCO At the same time opposition to this manipulation is being undermined by cultural ideas that prioritise memory and impressions over history and facts In Monumental Lies Robert Bevan argues that monuments architecture and cities are material evidence of history They are the physical trace of past events of previous ways of thinking and of politics economics and values that percolate through to today When our cities are reshaped as fantasies about the past when monuments tell lies about who deserves honour or are destroyed and the struggle for justice forgotten the historical record is being manipulated When decisions are based on misinformed assumptions about how the built environment influences our behaviour or we are told falsely that certain architectural styles are alien to our cities or when space pretends to be public but is private or that physical separation is natural we are being manipulated There is a growing threat to the material evidence of the truth about history We are in serious trouble if we can no longer trust the tangible world around us to tell us the truth Monumental Lies explores the threats to our understanding of the built environment and how it impacts on our lives as well as offers solutions to how to combat the ideological manipulations

Chosen as one of the best Architecture and Design books of 2022 by The Financial Times Engaging the Muslim World Juan Cole, 2025-08-22 With clarity and concision Juan Cole disentangles the key foreign policy issues that America is grappling with today from our dependence on Middle East petroleum to the promotion of Islamophobia by the American right and delivers his informed advice on the best way forward Cole's unique ability to take the true Muslim perspective into account when looking at East West relations make his insights well rounded and prescient as he suggests a course of action on fundamental issues like religion oil war and peace With substantive recommendations for the next administration on how to move forward in key countries such as Iraq Pakistan Afghanistan and Iran Engaging the Muslim World reveals how we can repair the damage of the disastrous foreign policy of the last eight years and forge ahead on a path of peace and prosperity Cole argues Al Qaeda is not a mass movement like fascism or communism but rather a small political cult like the American far right circles that produced Timothy McVeigh The Muslim world is not a new Soviet Bloc but rather is full of close allies or potential allies There can be no such thing as American energy independence we will need Islamic oil to survive as a superpower into the next century Iran is not an implacable enemy of the U S it can and should be fruitfully engaged which is a necessary step for American energy security since Tehran can play the spoiler in the strategic Persian Gulf America's best hope in Iraq is careful deliberate military disengagement rather than either through immediate withdrawal or a century long military presence in other words both the Democrat and Republican presidential candidates are wrong Routledge

Petrocultures Sheena Wilson, Adam Carlson, Imre Szeman, 2017-06-26 Contemporary life is founded on oil a cheap accessible and rich source of energy that has shaped cities and manufacturing economies at the same time that it has increased mobility global trade and environmental devastation Despite oil's essential role full recognition of its social and cultural significance has only become a prominent feature of everyday debate and discussion in the early twenty first century Presenting a multifaceted analysis of the cultural social and political claims and assumptions that guide how we think and talk about oil Petrocultures maps the complex and often contradictory ways in which oil has influenced the public's imagination around the world This collection of essays shows that oil's vast network of social and historical narratives and the processes that enable its extraction are what characterize its importance and that its circulation through this immense web of relations forms worldwide experiences and expectations Contributors essays investigate the discourses surrounding oil in contemporary culture while advancing and configuring new ways to discuss the cultural ecosystem that it has created A window into the social role of oil Petrocultures also contemplates what it would mean if human life were no longer deeply shaped by the consumption of fossil fuels

Mobilizing Human Resources in the Arab World (RLE Economy of Middle East) R. Paul Shaw, 2015-05-15 R Paul Shaw has travelled widely in the Arab world obtaining data and gathering impressions first hand from national and local planners In this book he identifies population and manpower problems that are likely to become more serious and more difficult to solve if they are neglected at this early stage of Arab development He focuses on five broad areas which are directly or indirectly related to mobilizing human resources and his book will be of special interest to all those who are concerned with such issues as population migration employment inequality the emancipation of women construction and agriculture Dr Shaw proposes policy directives which are sensitive to the problems as they are seen by the Arab governments themselves and sets out practical guidelines which can be used by Arab planners and policy makers An important feature of the book with respect to current literature on Arab development is that it moves away from a preoccupation with growth related investments to a concentration on development related population manpower and employment issues By bringing together such comprehensive empirical and bibliographic information it will also be invaluable as a reference source for some twenty Arab countries First published in 1983 Developments in Europe, October 1989 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, 1988

A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON ISLAM'S ORIGINS Gabriel Aryeh, 2024-01-24 A BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON ISLAM After several interactions with Muslims of distinct sects in the Bronx community NYC schools and the workplace through the decades Aryeh observed how some professing Christians were led to believe in the Islamic claim of Muhammad's legitimacy as a prophet Although a few maintained the belief that Jesus remained holy as a prophet they suggested he was a mere man and abandoned their past confessions regarding his divinity Nevertheless the more astounding claim many ex Christians and Muslims made suggested that the Jewish and Christian God found in the Bible identified as the same deity of the Qur'an Hence these claims above initiated the primary reasons for delving deep into the study of Islam and writing this book for the sake of not only reaching many believers who erred from Christianity but the Muslims who believed that Allah identified as the God of the Jews and Christians Indeed the enormous task of disproving Islam as an extension of the Abrahamic faith required many investigations into the questions raised by such astonishing claims This book makes deep inquiries into the historical and theological assertions found in the Islamic faith concerning Allah Muhammad and the religious practices observed today which have survived for little over fourteen centuries Consequentially the unfortunate misconceptions taught about Islam in many church pulpits since the early days of this researcher's youth stemmed from books found in academia and some Christian libraries which promoted a worldwide narrative by selective favorable historical accounts based on political ideologies instead of rigorous theological investigation The Christian perspective on Islam examines the theological origins of the Islamic faith by first investigating the geographical locations alleged as the nascent religion's early beginnings by exploring the historical and societal development of the Arab peoples Second this book probes the legitimacy of Muhammad as a divinely ordered prophet by consulting the Judaic traditions derived from the Jewish Scriptures explaining the qualifications of authentic prophethood Finally the sequential order of inquiry laid out above will highlight the emergence of the theology and residual religious rituals observed today in the Islamic world and therefore conclusively demonstrate that Islam remains unaligned with its Jewish and Christian predecessors On the Fault Line Jeffrey Herbst, 2012-01-26 Societies in all countries are split by major divisions or faultlines caused by differences in race religion ethnicity wealth class or power Like geological faultlines some are plainly evident whereas others are more concealed and can erupt with little warning Violence along faultlines within states from Sudan to Iraq to the Congo is the spark of much contemporary conflict It has cost millions of lives in the past twenty years alone In extreme cases this violence threatens to tear states apart Yet some countries such as Canada South Africa and Northern Ireland have largely succeeded in managing their faultlines On the Faultline is based on a unique year long project by some of the world s leading experts to examine the nature of conflict around these divisions In a world facing acute environmental migration and resource challenges that can only exacerbate differences it is an essential guide to understanding a phenomenon that all countries must grapple with in the 21st century Imagining Afghanistan Nivi Manchanda,2020-07-09 An innovative exploration of how colonial interventions in Afghanistan have been made possible through representations of the country as backward
