Nabankur A Seedlings Tale:

Nabankur Sulekha Sanyal, 2001 Translated For The First Time From The Bengali This Astonishingly Radical Novel Is About Chhobi A Gutsy Misfit Girl From A Rural Landowning Family Who Refuses To See Her Future As Just Another Submissive Household Drudge Mid-century women's writing Melissa Dinsman, Megan Faragher, Ravenel Richardson, 2024-07-09 The traditional narrative of the mid century 1930s 60s is that of a wave of expansion and constriction with the swelling of economic and political freedoms for women in the 1930s the cresting of women in the public sphere during the Second World War and the resulting break as employment and political opportunities for women dwindled in the 1950s when men returned home from the front But as the burgeoning field of interwar and mid century women s writing has demonstrated this narrative is in desperate need of re examination Mid century women s writing Disrupting the public private divide aims to revivify studies of female writers journalists broadcasters and public intellectuals living or working in Britain or under British rule during the mid century while also complicating extant narratives about the divisions between domesticity and politics Rethinking Place through Literary Form Rupsa Banerjee, Nathaniel Cadle, 2022-05-30 Rethinking Place Through Literary Form regards the relationship between place and linguistic form as challenging real and perceived configurations of place and renegotiating geopolitically determined categories of the centre and periphery The volume argues that the rise of scattered communities displaced physically and psychologically by urban and alienated geographies necessitates linguistic negotiations of one s locatedness in place as the chief means of uncovering and re building identity By looking at narrative re imaginings of forgotten and interrupted intimacies between habitation and place from diverse parts of the world the twelve chapters address the growing need to expand and alter approaches to literary representations of modernity and modes of self location Insurgent Imaginations Auritro Majumder, 2020-10-22 This book illustrates how internationalist writers marginalized the West and placed the non Western regions in a new center Literature and Gender Supriya Chaudhuri, Sajni Mukherji, 2002 This book brings together a rich collection of new work on the cultural interface of literature and gender ranging from essays on medieval and Renaissance Europe to nineteenth century political movements and representations in modern Indian film The contributors are some of the most distinguished scholars of our time working in Europe and in India What Kind of Future Can We Make? : Education, Youth and HIV/AIDS. Agenda (Organization), 2002 Newsline , 2007 Inventing Subjects Himani Bannerji, 2002 A collection of essays written from a Marxist Feminist perspective Inventing Subjects is a significant contribution to the field of historical sociology The essays speak of the different ways in which social subjects and their agencies have been constructed and represented in the context of the development of colonial hegemony and socio cultural formations in India Four of the essays focus on constructive proposals for social subjectivities and agencies of Bengali middle class women by both the indigenous and the colonial elite The other two essays consider the invention or construction of India as an ideological category for

ruling which seeks to impose on it a colonially ascribed identity The essays capture the fluidity and complexity of subject construction and read moral regulations and culture in terms of a hegemonic process They range from middle class Bengali women s attempts at self fashioning to the colonial ideological reflexes within which their projects are articulated They disclose and query the tensions inherent in the processes of indigenous socio cultural constructions and identity formations as well as the reductionism involved in the creation of colonial others
