

The background of the entire page is a photograph of a serene landscape. In the foreground, there is a dense thicket of green reeds and grasses. Beyond this, a calm body of water, likely a lake or a wide river, stretches across the middle ground. The water's surface is still, reflecting the sky and the surrounding greenery. On the left side, a large, dark green tree stands prominently. In the distance, the shoreline is lined with more trees under a sky filled with soft, white clouds. Three blue jays are superimposed on the image: one is perched on a branch of the tree on the left, another is on a branch in the center, and a third is in flight over the water on the right.
