The Naked Sun Isaac Asimov, 2011-04-13 The bestselling Robot series continues in this sequel to The Caves of Steel with detective Elijah Baley taking on the dangerous role of double agent when he s sent to Solaria to solve a brutal murder and uncover a weakness in Earth's most powerful neighbor. On the beautiful Outer World planet of Solaria a handful of human colonists lead a hermit-like existence; their every need attended to by their faithful robot servants. To this strange and provocative planet comes Detective Elijah Baley sent from the streets of New York with his positronic partner, the robot R. Daneel Olivaw, to solve an incredible murder that has rocked Solaria to its foundations. The victim had been so reclusive that he appeared to his associates only through holographic projection. Yet someone had gotten close enough to bludgeon him to death while robots looked on. Now Baley and Olivaw are faced with two clear impossibilities: Either the Solarian was killed by one of his robots (unthinkable under the laws of Robotics) or he was killed by the woman who loved him so much that she never came into his presence.

Isaac Asimov's Robot series chronicles the sometimes uneasy partnership between human and humanoid. I, ROBOT. THE CAVES OF STEEL. THE NAKED SUN. THE ROBOTS OF DAWN. Women, the Family, and Freedom Susan G. Bell, Karen M. Offen, 1983. This is the second book in a two-part collection of 264 primary source documents from the Enlightenment to 1950 chronicling the public debate that raged in Europe and America over the role of women in Western society. The present volume looks at the period from 1880 to 1950. The central issues: motherhood, women's legal position in the family, equality of the sexes, the effect on social stability of women's education and labor extended to women, the struggle by men for personal and political liberty. These issues were political, economic, and religious dynamite. They exploded in debates of philosophers, political theorists, scientists, novelists, and religious and political leaders. This collection emphasizes the debate by juxtaposing prevailing and dissenting points of view at given historical moments: e.g., Madame de Staël vs. Rousseau, Eleanor Marx vs. Pope Leo XIII, Strindberg vs. Ibsen, Simone de Beauvoir vs. Margaret Mead. Each section is preceded by a contextual headnote pinpointing the documents' significance. Many of the documents have been translated into English for the first time.
