and public affairs There is a direct connection between his theoretical innovations and the angle of his public interventions on the urgent global issues of the day This book brings together some of his most important writings especially those that offer new ways of understanding Islam Iran Islamist ideology global art and the condition of global modernity The book shows the underlying conceptual themes that unify Dabashi s wide ranging and brilliantly insightful corpus Dabashi combines deep knowledge of the subject matter about which he writes and highly refined sociological hermeneutical and cultural interpretive skills moving far beyond the limiting distorted and intellectually stifling character of reigning absolutist conventions He places existing authoritative frameworks under close scrutiny in order to produce novel and penetrating insights These essays reflect historical and geographical worlds that are best viewed when Hamid Dabashi s work is read as a whole which this one volume work makes possible for the first time The Railroad Telegrapher ,1910 The Cognitive Psychology of Proper Names Serge Bredart,Tim Brennen,Tim Valentine,2002-01-04 It s on the tip of my tongue but I can t remember her name Lots of people have difficulty remembering people s names even though they can easily recall other information about the person As memory and retrieval processes are central to cognitive psychology and neuropsychology the study of proper names makes a fascinating and practical focus of study Using an information processing approach Valentine Brennen and Bredart consider evidence from speech production face recognition and word recognition to develop a new functional model of the production and recognition of people s names This book will be valuable to all those studying cognitive psychology cognitive neuropsychology and linguistics It makes a suitable text for higher level undergraduates and postgraduates and those engaged in research The Watch That Ends the Night Allan Wolf,2024-10-15 A lyrical monumental work of fact and imagination Kirkus Reviews starred review Arrogance and innocence hubris and hope twenty four haunting voices of the Titanic tragedy as well as the iceberg itself are evoked in a stunning tour de force Slipping in telegraphs undertaker s reports and other records poet Allan Wolf offers a breathtaking intimate glimpse at the lives behind the tragedy told with clear eyed compassion and astounding emotional power American Magazine ,1918 My Name Is Jack Johnson, But I'm Not The Singer Jill Johnson,2018-11-12 A typical family husband wife and two children were thrust into a life of uncertainty when their youngest son Jack was diagnosed with autism Together the family navigated a new reality they could not perceive while guiding Jack through a world his mind struggled to comprehend Their hardest trial however came when Jack was diagnosed with brain cancer as a teen MY NAME IS JACK JOHNSON BUT I M NOT THE SINGER is the story of a family s love perseverance and determination in the face of unpredictable difficulties Through Jill Johnson s journal writings and memories we get an insightful view into autism childhood cancer and the strength of a unique young man Often touching sometimes funny and occasionally heartbreaking this memoir is Jack s walk through a life well lived not because of adversity but in spite of it The Independent ,1918 Migrant Feelings, Migrant Knowledge Robert Irwin,2022-11-08 The digital storytelling project Humanizing Deportation invites migrants to present their own stories in the world's largest and most diverse archive of its kind. Since 2017 more than 300 community storytellers have created their own audiovisual testimonial narratives sharing their personal experiences of migration and repatriation. With Migrant Feelings Migrant Knowledge the project's coordinator Robert Irwin and other team members introduce the project's innovative participatory methodology drawing out key issues regarding the human consequences of contemporary migration control regimes as well as insights from migrants whose world-making endeavors may challenge what we think we know about migration. In recent decades migrants in North America have been treated with unprecedented harshness. Migrant Feelings Migrant Knowledge outlines this recent history revealing stories both of grave injustice and of seemingly unsurmountable obstacles overcome. As Irwin writes, "The greatest source of expertise on the human consequences of contemporary migration control are the migrants who have experienced them and their voices in this searing collection jump off the page and into our hearts and minds."
