The Other Side Nan Goldin, 2000 Nan Goldin's seminal second book The Other Side is finally back in print Ever since the early 1970s Goldin has lived with and among drag queens documenting both their glamour and their struggles The Other Side is her very personal declaration of love and gratitude to these drag queens who showed her a way out of the captivity of pre packaged socially prescribed identity As she put it The pictures in this book are not of people suffering gender dysphoria but rather expressing gender euphoria The people in these pictures are truly revolutionary they are the real winners in the battle of the sexes because they have stepped out of the ring In contrast to much of the early 90s drag queen mania The Other Side has brilliantly passed the test of time Goldin's photographs are as beautiful moving and vibrant as ever heralding the utopian promises of a world where gender has stopped being a prison a vision that remains as vital and acute as it was when the book was first published

American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover
