The Rice Queen Diaries Daniel Gawthrop, 2010-07 In this moving autobiography Daniel Gawthrop writes about the politics and pleasures of being a self identified rice queen a gay man who is attracted to Asians Navigating through the urban jungles of Western cities like Vancouver and London as well as the humid streets of Bangkok and Saigon Daniel explores the multicultural minefields of sexuality and culture as he articulates the manners and contradictions of his desires The politics of race and the unspoken rules of gay Asian culture in both Western and Eastern settings underscore Daniel's personal journey in which he recalls his teen years spent idolizing Bruce Lee and his fixation on an Asian schoolmate whose hazing becomes a sexual spectacle for him As he enters adulthood his desires become manifest as he explores the subcultures of Long Yang Clubs where gay Asians and their admirers can meet before departing for Asia where his encounters often become transactions and he learns the hard way that sexual desire has a human and emotional cost. Evoking the themes of Edward Said's Orientalism, The Rice Queen Diaries is as much a personal statement about culture and otherness as it is about gay desire. Traversing three continents, these diaries are a personal reckoning, a bold coming to terms with the nuances of sexuality that has relevance for all of us. Explorer's Guide Victoria & Vancouver Island: A Great Destination (Explorer's Great Destinations) Eric Lucas, 2011-06-06. Consistently rated the best guides to the regions covered. Readable, tasteful, appealingly designed. Strong on dining, lodging, and history. National Geographic Traveler. More than a million people visit Vancouver Island by air and sea each year, three quarters of them from outside Canada. Besides detailed coverage of Victoria, Eric Lucas gives wide-ranging context to the island's culture, cuisine, and arts. There's also a wealth of practical information to help you plan your stay in this land of natural wonders. Kilts on the Coast Jan Peterson, 2012. When the Hudson's Bay Company decided to establish its new Pacific coast headquarters at Fort Victoria on Vancouver Island in 1843, the island was a pristine paradise or an isolated wilderness, depending on one's point of view. That had sustained its First Nations inhabitants for millennia. It was one of the last places to be discovered and settled by Europeans in North America. It was Scots who came to the island to manage the Company's business in Fort Victoria, engaging in the fur trade and establishing coal mining ventures around what is now Nanaimo, where black diamonds were found in abundance. From founding father James Douglas and other high-placed Company men to the humble miners from Orkney and Ayrshire who were brought over on harsh voyages around Cape Horn to work Nanaimo's mines, the Scottish influence on the young Colony of Vancouver Island was indelible. Nanaimo author and historian Jan Peterson focuses on events and people who sparked settlement and growth in BC's first Crown Colony over six critical years, 1848 to 1854, and delves deep into the roots of the island's Scottish presence, tracing the lives of such pioneers as Dr. William Tolmie, Robert Dunsmuir, and their descendants. The Haunting of Vancouver Island Shanon Sinn, 2017-10-10. A compelling investigation into supernatural events and local lore on Vancouver Island. Vancouver Island is known worldwide for its arresting natural beauty, but those who live here know that it is also imbued with a palpable supernatural energy. Researcher Shanon Sinn found his curiosity piqued by stories of mysterious sightings on the island: ghosts, sasquatches, sea serpents. But he was disappointed in the sensational and sometimes disrespectful way they were being retold or revised. Acting on his desire to transform these stories from unsubstantiated gossip to thoroughly researched accounts, Sinn uncovered fascinating details, identified historical inconsistencies, and now retells these encounters as accurately as possible. Investigating 25 spellbinding tales that wind their way from the south end of the island to the north, Sinn explored hauntings in cities, in the forest, and on isolated logging roads. In addition to visiting castles, inns, and cemeteries, he followed the trail of spirits glimpsed on mountaintops, beaches, and water, and visited Heriot Bay Inn on Quadra Island and the Schooner Restaurant in Tofino to personally scrutinize reports of hauntings. Featuring First Nations stories from each of the three Indigenous groups who call Vancouver Island home, the

Coast Salish the Nuuchalkwilt and the Kwakwaka'wakw the book includes an interview with Hereditary Chief James Swan of Ahousaht

Letter Writing and Language Change Anita Auer, Daniel Schreier, Richard J. Watts, 2015-07-16 Letter Writing and Language Change outlines the historical sociolinguistic value of letter analysis both in theory and practice The chapters in this volume make use of insights from all three Waves of Variation Studies and many of them either implicitly or explicitly look at specific aspects of the language of the letter writers in an effort to discover how those writers position themselves and how they attempt consciously or unconsciously to construct social identities The letters are largely from people in the lower strata of social structure either to addressees of the same social status or of a higher status In this sense the question of the use of standard and or nonstandard varieties of English is in the forefront of the contributors interest Ultimately the studies challenge the assumption that there is only one legitimate and homogenous form of English or of any other language

The World's Weirdest Sports Paul Connolly, 2011-06-15 Bog snorkelling dwile flonking wife carrying these might sound like the newest entries in a dictionary of euphemisms but they are in fact sports Strange sports yes but actual sports nonetheless And there are dozens more as you'll discover in this fantastic witty and oddly compelling round up of the world's strangest events held in the glorious name of competition How about Chess Boxing It features 11 alternating rounds of chess and boxing and you can win by either a knockout or a checkmate Or what about the Afghani sport of Buzkashi This translates as goat grabbing and is like a surreal version of rugby on horseback with a 55kg goat carcass instead of a ball and up to 100 competitors who are allowed to whip other riders to get the carcass off them and into their own scoring circle Then there is the very Australian annual Goanna Pulling Championships held every June The competitors are actually consenting adults who put large leather collars around their necks hitch the collars to a chain that runs between the two of them lie down on their stomachs facing each other with chests lifted off the ground and attempt to
