Nannie and the Preacher Abigail Barone,2003-11-01   Mission Adventures in Many Lands J. Lawrence Driskill,1992 Japan China and Africa are the settings for some of these mission adventures   The Churches of Christ Richard T. Hughes,2001-05-30 This volume tells the story of the Churches of Christ one of three major denominations that emerged in the United States from a religious movement led by Alexander Campbell and Barton W Stone in the early 19th century Beginning as an effort to provide a basis on which all Christians in America could unite the leaders of the movement relied on the faith and practice of the primitive church Ironically this unity movement eventually divided precisely along the lines of its original agenda as the Churches of Christ rallied around the restorationist banner while the Disciples of Christ gathered around the ecumenical cause Yet having begun as a countercultural sect the Churches of Christ emerged in the 20th century as a culture affirming denomination This brief history together with biographical sketches of major leaders provides a complete overview of the denomination in America The book begins with a concise yet detailed history of the denomination s beginnings in the early 19th century Tracing the influence of such leaders as Stone and Campbell the authors chronicle the triumphs and conflicts of the denomination through the 19th century and its reemergence and renewal in the 20th century The biographical dictionary of leaders in the Churches of Christ rounds out the second half of the book and a chronology of important events in the history of the denomination offers a quick reference guide A detailed bibliographic essay concludes the book and points readers to further readings about the Churches of Christ   Wallace's Year-book of Trotting and Pacing in ... John Hankins Wallace,1910   Just Get a Ham Carrie Coker Marrs,2005-09   African American Preaching Gerald Lamont Thomas,2004 Four centuries of African American preaching has provided hope healing and heaven for people from every walk of life Many notable men and women of African American lineage have contributed through the art of preaching to the biblical emancipation and spiritual liberation of their parishioners In African American Preaching The Contribution of Dr Gardner C Taylor Gerald Lamont Thomas offers a historical overview of African American preaching and its effect on the cultural legacy of black people noting the various styles and genius of pulpit orators The book s focus is on the life ministry and preaching methodology of one of this era s most prolific voices Dr Gardner C Taylor and should be read by everyone who takes the task of preaching seriously   Memories of the Heart Yvonne Woolfolk Britton,2014-06-23 The purpose of this publication is to pass on to future generations reflections of the past How times can change and yet remain the same How you can survive regardless of hard times Also the desire to inspire those that come after me is important A wise person once said that gratitude is the memory of the heart My memories enrich my life as the days and years go by I recall treasured memories that continue to enrich my soul I choose to review my memory bank with gratitude Recalling the kindness of others brings a smile to my face and lifts my spirits I appreciate the people who have shared this life with me My memories of good times and good people reveal the light of God that shines unceasingly on us all As I look back with gratitude for the loved ones and opportunities that have brought me great joy and fulfillment I also enjoy the fullness of this present moment Right now I am making memories for the years to come I hope to leave the world a better place because of my living in it to love and be loved to do good and show respect to act justly and fairly to care well for the earth in my small patch of the planet The Disciple ,1886 Annual Report and Minutes ,1885 Disciple of Christ ,1886 A Black Women's History of the United States Daina Ramey Berry,Kali Nicole Gross,2020-02-04 The award winning Revisioning American History series continues with this groundbreaking new history of Black women in the United States Ibram X Kendi the perfect companion to An Indigenous People s History of the United States and An African American and Latinx History of the United States An empowering and intersectional history that centers the stories of African American women across 400 years showing how they are and have always been instrumental in shaping our country In centering Black women s stories two award winning historians seek both to empower African American women and to show their allies that Black women s unique ability to make their own communities while combatting centuries of oppression is an essential component in our continued resistance to systemic racism and sexism Daina Ramey Berry and Kali Nicole Gross offer an examination and celebration of Black womanhood beginning with the first African women who arrived in what became the United States to African American women of today A Black Women s History of the United States reaches far beyond a single narrative to showcase Black women s lives in all their fraught complexities Berry and Gross prioritize many voices enslaved women freedwomen religious leaders artists queer women activists and women who lived outside the law The result is a starting point for exploring Black women s history and a testament to the beauty richness rhythm tragedy heartbreak rage and enduring love that abounds in the spirit of Black women in communities throughout the nation The Passion to Persist Patsy Askew,2010-04-07 It is said that in this life we have three life paths The first two are spent finding out who we are If you are lucky to enter the third life path you will find fulfillment of the first two Overcoming life s mishaps comes only through a belief in God and a fervent determination to stay on course no matter what To persist is to stand firmly in your faith and when all else fails continue to stand always Down by the Riverside Larry Murphy,Larry George Murphy,2000-11 An introductory overview of the development of African American religion and theology Down by the Riverside provides an expansive introduction to the development of African American religion and theology Spanning the time of slavery up to the present the volume moves beyond Protestant Christianity to address a broad diversity of African American religion from Conjure Orisa and Black Judaism to Islam African American Catholicism and humanism This accessible historical overview begins with African religious heritages and traces the transition to various forms of Christianity as well as the maintenance of African and Islamic traditions in antebellum America Preeminent contributors include Charles Long Gayraud Wilmore Albert Raboteau Manning Marable M Shawn Copeland Vincent Harding Mary Sawyer Toinette Eugene Anthony Pinn and C Eric Lincoln and Lawrence Mamiya They consider the varieties of religious expression emerging from migration from the rural
