Napoleon's Letters

REPRODUCED AND REVISED BY HENRY SEYMOUR CANBY

THESE letters which Mr. Thompson has selected for publication are the most interesting and the most important of the correspondence that have been preserved. They are the letters which Napoleon wrote to his family and to his friends, and they are the letters which he wrote to his enemies.

In his long and interesting letter to his family, Napoleon writes of his life and of his work, and he tells of his hopes and of his fears. He tells of his love for his family and of his love for his country, and he tells of his love for his enemies.
