Possible Worlds Theory and Contemporary Narratology Alice Bell, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2019 The notion of possible worlds has played a decisive role in postclassical narratology by awakening interest in the nature of fictionality and in emphasizing the notion of world as a source of aesthetic experience in narrative texts As a theory concerned with the opposition between the actual world that we belong to and possible worlds created by the imagination possible worlds theory has made significant contributions to narratology Possible Worlds Theory and Contemporary Narratology updates the field of possible worlds theory and postclassical narratology by developing this theoretical framework further and applying it to a range of contemporary literary narratives This volume systematically outlines the theoretical underpinnings of the possible worlds approach provides updated methods for analyzing fictional narrative and profiles those methods via the analysis of a range of different texts including contemporary fiction digital fiction video games graphic novels historical narratives and dramatic texts Through the variety of its contributions including those by three originators of the subject area Lubomír Doležal Thomas Pavel and Marie-Laure Ryan Possible Worlds Theory and Contemporary Narratology demonstrates the vitality and versatility of one of the most vibrant strands of contemporary narrative theory

Pronouns in Literature Alison Gibbons, Andrea Macrae, 2018-01-04 This edited collection brings together an international interdisciplinary group of scholars who together offer cutting edge insights into the complex roles functions and effects of pronouns in literary texts The book engages with a range of text types including poetry drama and prose from different periods and regions in English and in translation Beginning with analyses of the first person pronoun it moves onto studies of the subject dynamics of first and second person before considering plural modes of narration and how pronoun use can help to disperse narrative perspective The volume then debates the functional constraints of pronouns in fictional contexts and finally reflects upon the theoretical advancements presented in the collection This innovative volume will appeal to students and scholars of linguistics stylistics and cognitive poetics narratology theoretical and applied linguistics psychology and literary criticism

The Temporal Mechanics of the Fourth Gospel Douglas Estes, 2008-01-01 By redefining narrative temporality in light of modern physics this book advances a unique and innovative approach to the deep seated temporalities within the Gospel of John and challenges the implicit assumptions of textual brokenness that run throughout Johannine scholarship

Other Followers of Jesus Joel Williams, 1994-06-01 The Gospel of Mark includes a series of similar episodes in which he presents minor characters and their response to Jesus These individuals are neither disciples nor opponents of Jesus but rather people who are drawn in a broad sense from the crowd Mark presents these characters either as suppliants or as those who exemplify a proper response to Jesus and his way The purpose of this narrative study is to explore the effect of Mark's presentation of minor characters on the reader It traces Mark's treatment of these individuals through the narrative and shows how Mark's presentation of minor characters moves the reader toward an acceptance of the demands of following Jesus

Sweet Reason Susan Wells, 1996-07-15 In Sweet Reason Susan Wells presents a rhetorical model for understanding the diverse discourses of modernity Wells describes modernity as a system of texts which we are only now learning to read In order to comprehend how these texts organize our world she argues we must grasp how reason and desire interact to create meaning To this end Wells offers a rhetoric based on an understanding of meaning as intersubjectivity created through the work of language Wells elaborates this rhetoric of intersubjectivity by drawing on both Jürgen Habermas's concept of communicative rationality and on Jacques Lacan's theory of desire affirming the significance of reason and desire for rhetorical studies From scientific articles to classroom altercations contemporary government hearings to Maigne's Essays Wells organizes several using rhetoric as an art and she shows how rhetoric operates in practice Susan Wells is associate professor of English at Temple University

A Dictionary of Modern Critical Terms Roger Fowler, 1987 The book differs from other dictionaries of criticism in concentrating less on time honoured rhetorical terms and more on conceptually flexible powerful and contemporary critical terms Each entry consists not simply of a dictionary definition but an essay exploring the history and full significance of the term and its possibilities in contemporary critical discourse
