Narrative Modes In Punjabi Novel:

Narrative Modes in Punjabi Novel Niranjana Tasnim, 2002 Legacies of the Homeland Paramjeet Singh, 2018-04-07

This book is not intended to provide a list of the 100 best books ever written and published by Punjabi authors. Given the sheer range of books written by Punjabi authors and the unpredictability of individual taste, any such definitive list is quite impossible. Secondly, the choice has been restricted to books that were written by them either in Punjabi, Hindi or Urdu but have been translated into English. Thus, personal choice, restricted by availability, has dictated this selection. The choice of books includes autobiographies, novels, short stories, poems and plays. Research books, religious books and books written originally in English have not been included. From the Introduction, I am amazed at the scholarship, the passion and the love with which Paramjeet Singh has written this book. It will be a reference volume for all times. Nirupama Dutt, Poet, Journalist, Translator. Mr. Singh's effort is commendable as he is making available some of the rarest of gems of Punjabi literature to the non-Punjabi readers. I congratulate Mr. Singh on putting together this selection and hope that non-Punjabi readers of this book would find new horizons of cultural experience opening up before them. Of course, for Punjabi readers, it may be yet another opportunity to experience a sense of genuine pride in their rich legacy of language, literature and culture. Prof. Rana Nayar.

Postcolonial Literary Studies Robert P. Marzec, 2011-09-15. Internationally recognized for its superior scholarship, Modern Fiction Studies was one of the first journals to publish articles on postcolonial studies. Since postcolonialism's inception, scholars have defined, clarified and enriched its conceptions and theoretical development in the pages of MFS. This anthology collects the best and most important articles on postcolonial literary studies published in MFS in the past thirty years. Postcolonial Literary Studies brings together groundbreaking scholarship focusing on significant works of fiction by such writers as Chinua Achebe, J. M. Coetzee, Jamaica Kincaid, V. S. Naipaul, Arundhati Roy, Salman Rushdie, Bapsi Sidhwa, Ngugi wa Thiong'o and more. The essays feature ideas that helped shape the discipline from its earliest stages to the present and represent some of the finest examples of literary, theoretical, historical and cultural criticism. With its focus on literary figures and texts rather than solely on theory, this volume fills a significant gap in the fields of postcolonialism, global studies and literary criticism in general. This rich collection of essays by the field's leading scholars will prove indispensable to instructors and students across a broad spectrum of humanistic studies. It not only highlights the development and transformation of postcolonial literary study but also, by mapping out new directions of study, considers its continual significance and expansion. Indian National Bibliography, 2003-07 Book Review Index, 2003 Explorations in

Mothering in South Asian Diasporic Fiction Sarah Knor, 2022-12-30 Examining a range of South Asian Anglophone diasporic fiction and poetry this monograph opens a new dialogue between diaspora studies and gender studies It shows how discourses of diaspora benefit from re examining their own critical relation to concepts of the maternal and the motherland Rather than considering maternity as a fixed or naturally given category it challenges essentialist conceptions and explores mothering as a performative practice which actively produces discursive meaning This innovative approach also involves an investigation of central metaphors in nationalist and diasporic rhetorics bringing critical attention to the strategies they employ and the unique aesthetic forms they produce Indian Literature ,2002 Making Sense of Contemporary British Muslim Novels Claire Chambers, 2019-04-23 This book is the sequel to Britain Through Muslim Eyes and examines contemporary novelistic representations of and by Muslims in Britain It builds on studies of the five senses and sensuous geographies of postcolonial Britain and charts the development since 1988 of a fascinating and important body of fiction by Muslim identified authors It is a selective literary history exploring case study novelistic representations of and by Muslims in Britain to allow in depth critical analysis through the lens of sensory criticism It argues that for authors of Muslim heritage in Britain writing the senses is often a double edged act of protest Some of the key authors excoriate a suppression or cover up of non heteronormativity and women s rights that sometimes occurs in Muslim communities Yet their protest is especially directed at secular culture s ocularcentrism and at successive British governments efforts to surveil control and suppress Muslim bodies Khoja darapaṇa ,2007 Critical Discourse in Punjabi Rana Nayar, Alpna Saini, Tania Bansal, 2023-10-19
