

"To discover the right balance between grace and nature is a daily struggle in the history of the Church and in the heart of each Christian."

In this controversial book, Cardinal Suenens warns against the dangers of an excessive concentration on "self" which he sees as a danger for today's Christian. "A Christian cannot live his faith as a solitary being. He needs to live it with other Christians who quite literally share it with him. And all Christians must share their faith with each other." He warns against the excessive concentration on self emphasized by some humanist writers and by certain forms of psychology. In doing so, he outlines his own understanding of true Christian growth; it is achieved by a harmonious integration of nature with grace. The spiritual life is life with the Holy Spirit and every attempt at introspection and personal growth should be seen in the light of this belief. Only thus can Christian renewal take place.

Cardinal Léon-Joseph Suenens, formerly Archbishop of Brussels-Malines, is the author of many books including A New Pentecost?, Your God?, Open the Frontiers, Charismatic Renewal and Social Action (with Dom Helder Camara), and Renewal and the Powers of Darkness.

Nature And Grace A Vital Unity:

Nature and Grace Léon Joseph Suenens, 1986 Nature and Grace Matthias Joseph Scheeben, 2009-09-01 The passing years which bury so many once famous names under deep layers of forgetfulness are raising Matthias Joseph Scheeben to an eminence reached by very few scholars Time is the judge of all achievements and has pronounced its verdict that Scheeben is the greatest theologian who has written in the German language The reason for his importance is not hard to find Scheeben is the chief theologian of the supernatural economy of the world The intellectual blight known as rationalism had spread widely in the nineteenth century and had made disastrous inroads even in Christian circles Although preliminary battles waged by Catholics who were turning back the unholy invasion Scheeben was the champion who finally and decisively drove the enemy out of theology From the very outset of his theological career Scheeben had cherished the ambition of making the drab naturalistic world glow again in the light and beauty of grace of bringing back to the awareness of men the glorious truth that they are God's children In the first of his major books Nature and Grace he describes the supernatural as a sharing in the nature of God This same theme the splendor of our supernatural life is the leading idea of all his works He thought that a deep appreciation of the mysteries revealed by God was so important that he consecrated the tireless powers of his genius to the task of bringing out their beauty and force and of emphasizing their meaning for the daily life of man He insisted that these mysteries are the richest treasure of our spiritual inheritance and that theology is the inspiration of the fullest life open to use supernatural life with Christ and in Christ Scheeben's masterly theological synthesis is best proposed in The Mysteries of Christianity his most original work but was clearly formulated from the beginning of his literary activity in Nature and Grace the book of his energetic youth The Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the UK Keith Chappell, 2023-10-20

Combining ethnographic research with theological analysis this book explores how the Catholic Charismatic Renewal CCR one of the largest new movements within the global Catholic Church has developed in contemporary Britain and Northern Ireland Drawing on extensive fieldwork this study analyses the beliefs behaviour and worldviews of CCR members and considers how these relate to key theological themes in the movement's unique encounter between Pentecostalism and Catholicism The author explores the extent to which the CCR has been integrated into the mainstream of the Catholic Church and how the movement's members have adapted their theology over time Painting a picture of a diverse community this book enriches understanding of the CCR and contemporary Christianity in Britain

Presence and Thought Hans Urs Von Balthasar, 2012-10-12 Von Balthasar presents one of the few serious studies available on the thought of one of the most important and yet most neglected Fathers of the Church Gregory of Nyssa He was the most profound Greek philosopher of the Christian era a mystic and an incomparable poet whom St Maximus designated as the Universal Doctor and the Second Council of Nicaea declared him Father of Fathers Less prolific than Origen less cultivated than Gregory Nazianzen less practical than Basil Gregory of Nyssa nonetheless outstrips them all in the profundity of his thought for he knew better than anyone how to transpose ideas inwardly from the spiritual heritage of ancient Greece into a Christian mode Christology of the Faith and Order Movement Conrad Simonson, 2023-08-14 Man's Sinfulness and Misery by Nature John England, 1700 Encyclopedia of Theology Karl Rahner, 1975-01-01 An essential and reliable reference work and manual of the Christian faith this book provides both students and interested readers with a basic text presenting the findings of modern scholarly thought and research Ecumenical in spirit and approach no responsible and inquiring Christian can afford to be without it Virtuous Persuasion Michael Niebauer, 2022-07-20 Christians should make disciples as disciples Christians who are engaged in missions regularly face ethical challenges But the approaches and standards of modern missions often further complicate rather than alleviate matters Modern missiology debates what actions constitute mission work how to measure growth and the difference between persuasion and coercion In Virtuous Persuasion Michael Niebauer casts a holistic vision for Christian mission that is rooted in theological ethics and moral philosophy Niebauer proposes a theology of mission grounded in virtue Becoming a skilled missionary is more about following Christ than mastering techniques Christian mission is best understood as specific activities that develop virtue in its practitioners and move them toward their ultimate goal of partaking in the glory of God With Virtuous Persuasion you can rethink the essence of Jesus's Great Commission and how we seek to fulfill it The Theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg Carl E. Braaten, Philip Clayton, 2016-07-30 How deep has Pannenberg's influence been on American theology Which particular ideas or themes from his work have been most pervasive to American thinkers and which have encountered the greatest resistance What implications does his work have beyond explicitly theological contexts e.g. for philosophy ethics environmental concerns political action and the natural sciences What new forms have his ideas taken as they have been adapted to fit the very different context of American theology The authors of the twelve critiques in this volume represent a broad cross section of American thought on religion The essays cover virtually all of the major areas in which Pannenberg has published An introductory survey provides a comprehensive overview of the critical literature on Pannenberg from the early 1960s to 1986 Together the essays represent an accurate barometer of the influence Pannenberg has had in America as well as the sorts of reservations that the English speaking world brings to his work It has now been many years since Pannenberg's first visit to the United States At that time the discussion with Pannenberg focused on the radically historical character of his proposal for theology centering around revelation and resurrection In the meantime Pannenberg's thought has expanded almost encyclopedically into most of the major disciplines studied in a modern university Without doubt the most comprehensive theologian at work today his place in the history of twentieth century theology is well assured Being Deified David Russell Mosley, 2016-12-01 Being Deified examines the importance of deification to Christian theology and the place of human creativity in deification Deification is an explanatory force for the major categories of Christian theology creation fall incarnation theological anthropology as well as the sacraments Deification explains in part the why of creation and the what of humanity God created in order to deify humanity is created to be deified the what of the Fall the desire for divinity outside of God s gifts one of the purposes for the Incarnation to deify and what end the sacraments aid deification Essential to deification is human creativity for humans are created in the image of God the Creator In order to explore this dimension of deification this essay focuses on works of poetry and fantasy in many ways the pinnacle of human creativity since both genres cause the making strange of things familiar language and creation itself in part to make them better known particularly as creations of the Creator

'In the image of the Image': Gregory of Nyssa's Opposition to Slavery Adam

Couchman,2023-07-09 Fairacres Publications 202 St Gregory of Nyssa is the most important author of the fourth century in relation to theological anthropology and was one of the most outspoken of the early Church Fathers on the subject of slavery Gregory s theology is built upon his perception that Jesus Christ was truly human therefore to be human is to be made in the image of Christ We cannot justify slavery if we accept that humans are made in God s image because slaves are no less made in the image of God than those who are free This book examines Gregory s theology how he understood and taught about the relationship of human beings to God and how he applied this theology to the practical issue of slavery

Partakers of the Divine Jacob Holsinger Sherman,2014 An extended essay in contemplative philosophy the meeting of mystical and philosophical theology Partakers of the Divine shows that Christian philosophical and contemplative practices arose together and that throughout much of Christian history philosophy theology and contemplation remained internal to one another Further the relation of philosophy theology and contemplation to one another is of more than antiquarian interest for it provides theologians and philosophers of religion today with a way forward beyond many of the stalemates that have beset discussions about faith and reason

Epworth Review ,1987

Deification in Eastern Orthodox Theology Emil Bartos,2007-01-01 In recent years Eastern Orthodox thought has had an increasing influence on key aspects of contemporary Western Christian thought particularly as regards the doctrine of the Trinity and mystical spirituality However the foundations and fundamental presuppositions of Eastern Christianity s theological system have remained largely unstudied and thus unknown in the West In this important study Emil Bartos examines the doctrine of deification which provides the conceptual basis for the way Staniloae and other Orthodox theologians understand the major doctrines of the Christian faith The idea that God became man that man might become God sounds almost heretical to many Western ears yet this affirmation is repeated countless times in the writings of the Eastern Fathers Beginning with the apophaticism that lies at the heart of Eastern theology Bartos examines each of the key doctrines of anthropology christology soteriology and ecclesiology as they relate to deification in Staniloae's thought Bartos study represents not merely a contribution to contemporary dialogue between Eastern and Western theologians but also a much needed introduction to an aspect of Christian thought down the centuries that is largely neglected in the Christian West The Unchanging Truth of God? Crucial Philosophical Issues for Theology Thomas G. Guarino, 2022-02-18 It has long been a cornerstone of Catholic belief that Christians can be intelligent and creative thinkers inquisitive seekers after truth as well as men and women of ardent faith Catholics are entirely committed then to the claim that human rationality and religious faith are complementary realities since they are equally gifts of God But understanding precisely how faith and reason cohere has not always been a smooth path At times theology has allowed philosophy to become the leading and baleful partner in the faith reason relationship thereby lapsing into rationalism or relativism At other times theology has been tempted by fideism with philosophy now regarded as little more than a pernicious intruder corrupting Christian faith life and thought The essays in this volume display how Catholicism understands the proper confluence between philosophy and theology between human rationality and Christian faith between the natural order and supernatural grace To illustrate these points the book draws on a long line of Christian thinkers Origen Augustine Anselm Aquinas and in our own day Fides et Ratio of John Paul II and the Regensburg Address of Benedict XVI How is theology always a Jewgreek enterprise to borrow a term from Jacques Derrida always a combination of the biblical Hebraic and philosophical Hellenic traditions Why is one particular element of philosophy metaphysics essential for the intelligibility and clarity of Catholic theology Why is this so much the case that John Paul II could state emphatically a philosophy which shuns metaphysics would be radically unsuited to the task of mediation in the understanding of Revelation But theology cannot simply be about dialogue with philosophers of yesteryear Theology must constantly incorporate fresh thinking and remain in lively conversation with an extensive variety of contemporary perspectives This book displays how reciprocity and absorption has been characteristic of theology's past and must represent its future as well Betraying the Gospel Andrew Walker, 1990 Contemporary Irish Ecocentric Poetry and the Writing of Nature Wit Pietrzak, 2025-10-02 Contemporary Irish Ecocentric Poetry and the Writing of Nature explores how poetic language can apprehend non anthropocentric points of view It builds on the recent developments in environmental humanities and seeks to show that four Irish poets Derek Mahon Paula Meehan Moya Cannon and Se n Lysaght offer means of diversifying our perception of nature and our place in it This diversification in turn is intended to help us change our idea of natural environment from seeing it as a passive space which we can either exploit or preserve to a view of nature as an interrelated network of agents in which humans are one actor among numerous others Utilising a broad theoretical and philosophical context to help frame the analyses of verse in up to date conceptual schemes this volume serves as a critical foundation for the future work and research in Irish ecocriticism and on ecopoetics in general making the monograph an ideal read for postgraduates scholars and researchers in these fields History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner,1872
