Nature And Historical Experience:

Nature and Historical Experience John Herman Randall (Jr.), 1962 Nature and Historical Experience John Herman Randall, 1962 Nature and Historical Experience John Herman Randall, 1958 Aristotle on the Nature of Truth Christopher P. Long, 2010-11-22 This book reconsiders the traditional correspondence theory of truth which takes truth to be a matter of correctly representing objects Drawing Heideggerian phenomenology into dialogue with American pragmatic naturalism Christopher P Long undertakes a rigorous reading of Aristotle that articulates the meaning of truth as a co operative activity between human beings and the natural world that is rooted in our endeavours to do justice to the nature of things By following a path of Aristotle s thinking that leads from our rudimentary encounters with things in perceiving through human communication to thinking this book traces an itinerary that uncovers the nature of truth as ecological justice and it finds the nature of justice in our attempts to articulate the truth of things Wittgenstein and the Nature of Violence R. Krishnaswamy, 2020-05-31 How do we explain violence What is so significant of modern forms of violence that it has produced such large scale destruction in its wake This volume builds on the political philosophy of Wittgenstein his notions of peace and violence to explore how violence in any form is contained in culturally or ideologically formed institutions Drawing on Wittgenstein s work on language it explores the link between language and violence everydayness and culture It examines everyday instances of micro violence that we sometimes forget to recall This book puts forth the claim that any theory of violence will have to touch on the myriad both micro and macro political social and cultural interactions that make up the human condition The author further comments on the unseen ways violence has been instrumentalized in modern history s many stages to create a spectacle of power to reinforce authority The volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies political philosophy linguistics and modern history The Uses of the Past from Heidegger to Rorty Robert Piercey, 2009-03-05 This book asks how it is possible to do philosophy by studying the thinkers of the past The answer is developed through readings of Martin Heidegger Richard Rorty Paul Ricoeur Alasdair MacIntyre and other historically minded philosophers The result is a powerful and original account of how philosophers use the past

The Concept of Time and Historical Experience Mihai Popa, 2023-09-26 This book is focused on the question does the event from which we extract historical experience acquire this status at the moment it occurs or later as it is remembered through the generations Historical experience is not a concept that facilitates the ascent of the historian to the fact it is closely related to the fact This does not make it easier to handle because the fact itself is retractable it hides its social cultural essence and meaning in time The present of the historian narrator restores as in an incessant change of perspective the diachrony of the fact looking for the present of the past fact The experience suddenly becomes a relationship between two temporal actualities that seek their own cultural identity From this perspective history moves with us The weight of the conceptualization of a past reality is given by the comprehensive weight impossibility of the fact experience The work is about the philosophy of history It is addressed to students historians and researchers in the field of the theory of history

The Tangled Bank Michael S Hogue, 2010-07-29 In response to the confluence of moral uncertainty with the increase of human power to alter nature and through critical integration of the philosophical naturalism of Hans Jonas and the critical religious naturalism of James M Gustafson The Tangled Bank argues for an ecotheological ethics of responsible participation By making the case that the moral pressures of our time call for a vision that is as deeply naturalistic as it is deeply theological a critical perspective is advanced that is attuned to human embeddedness within nature as well as to human distinctiveness In support of this a moral anthropological method is deployed as a creative new way to integrate the comparative critical and constructive tasks of theological ethics The insights of Hans Jonas and James M Gustafson interpreted comparatively for the first time are critically drawn together to suggest new directions for scholarship and teaching in theology and religion and science studies

Theorizing Archaeological Museum Studies Monika Stobiecka, 2023-06-01 Theorizing Archaeological Museum Studies works towards reconnecting archaeological practice the theoretical richness of archaeology and museum studies The book therefore embraces both the practical aspects of archaeology and empirical studies in museums in order to rethink what happens when an artefact changes into an exhibit This study is positioned at the intersection of both history and archaeological theory and of the history of art and museum studies The central focus of this book explores the relationship between museums and their dominant paradigms on the one hand and new approaches and theories in archaeology on the other It thus also illustrates the co dependencies relations and tensions that characterize the relationship between academia and museums This book demonstrates how in becoming exhibits artefacts have and continue to become reflections of the discipline s prevailing paradigms while manifesting the dominant aims and methods of knowledge production pertaining at a given time and place as well as the desired social interpretations and modes of presenting the past Theorizing Archaeological Museum Studies offers important insights for academics and students archaeology heritage studies museum studies as well as for practitioners museum employees heritage practitioners The book is also intended for scholars from across the humanities interested in museum studies heritage studies curatorial studies cultural studies cultural geography material culture history of archaeology archaeological theory and the anthropology of things

The Nature of Trauma in American Novels Michelle Balaev,2012-06-11 This book examines literary trauma theory from its foundations to its implementations and new possibilities A n analysis that reconsiders the meaning and value of traumatic experience by demonstrating the diversity of its forms in contemporary Amerian novels in an effort to deepen the discussion of trauma beyond that of the disease driven paradigm in literary criticism today The author s model views trauma and the process of remembering within a framework that emphasizes the multiplicity of responses to an extreme experience and the importance of contextual factors in detemining the significance of the event In order to demonstrate this new approach she focuses her discussion on late modern canonical and emergent American novels that deal with trauma In analyzing the narrative methods authors employ to portray suffering she found two major patterns the use of landscape imagery to convey the effects of trauma and remembering and the use of place as a site that shapes the protagonist s experience and perception of the world

History, Ethics, and the Recognition of the Other Anton Froeyman, 2015-09-25 This book introduces a new way of looking at the writing of history Rather than as the production of knowledge or the telling of stories it sees writing history as an ethical existential and emotional engagement with the people from the past The conceptual and philosophical basis for this view is provided by the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas In the first part the view is presented and contrasted with other competing views such as those of Hans Georg Gadamer and Michel Foucault In the second part the view is argued for most importantly by an in depth discussion of one specific tradition of history writing microhistory and a series of close readings of several classical works from the history of historiography The third part finally explores some of the methodological consequences of this view and applies it to a non academic way of dealing with the past namely historical performance practice in music The book features a foreword by Frank Ankersmit

Times of History, Times of Nature Anders Ekström, Staffan Bergwik, 2022-02-11 As climate change becomes an increasingly important part of public discourse the relationship between time in nature and history is changing Nature can no longer be considered a slow and immobile background to human history and the future can no longer be viewed as open and detached from the past Times of History Times of Nature engages with this historical shift in temporal sensibilities through a combination of detailed case studies and synthesizing efforts Focusing on the history of knowledge media theory and environmental humanities this volume explores the rich and nuanced notions of time and temporality that have emerged in response to climate change

Beckett and Nature Charles Clements, Eleanor Green, James Martell, 2025-07-10 New analyses on the insightful ways in which Beckett's work actively engages with contested notions of Nature and the natural developing a radical version of modernism's main questions and insights Beckett and Nature takes its cue from contemporary developments in Beckett scholarship focused on ecocriticism posthumanism and the Anthropocene going beyond them into a questioning of the very concepts of Nature and the natural It examines one of the most unthought ontological dimensions of literature and life that symbolic space deemed natural or part of Nature appears necessary and undeniable and therefore impossible to be deconstructed In doing so the authors show that in fact this space takes on many shapes recognizing three natural dimensions criticized by Beckett bodies worlds and literatures Featuring a wide range of both Beckett s work and Beckett scholars including Jean Michel Rabat and Stanley E Gontarski Beckett and Nature offers contextualized readings of the understandings of nature and the natural throughout his decade spanning uvre The volume shows that part of the radicality of Beckett s writing is that through a variety of evolving techniques and strategies it questions what appears in our cultures as the most unquestionable and opens up possibilities for thinking not only what is human literature and philosophy but also gender identity and any attempt at definitions of ourselves or the world at large Methodological Challenges in Nature-Culture and Environmental History Research Jocelyn Thorpe, Stephanie Rutherford, L. Anders

Sandberg, 2016-11-10 This book examines the challenges and possibilities of conducting cultural environmental history research today Disciplinary commitments certainly influence the questions scholars ask and the ways they seek out answers but some methodological challenges go beyond the boundaries of any one discipline The book examines how to account for the fact that humans are not the only actors in history yet dominate archival records how to attend to the non visual senses when traditional sources offer only a two dimensional non sensory version of the past how to decolonize research in and beyond the archives and how effectively to use sources and means of communication made available in the digital age This book will be a valuable resource for those interested in environmental history and politics sustainable development and historical geography Theoretical Anthropology David Bidney, Theoretical Anthropology is a major contribution to the historical and critical study of the assumptions underlying the development of modern cultural anthropology In the new introduction Martin Bidney discusses the present state of anthropology and contrasts it with the scene surveyed in Theoretical Anthropology He discusses the relevance of David Bidney s work to our present concerns Also included in this work is the second edition s introductory essay by David Bidney written fifteen years after the first edition of Theoretical Anthropology Here the author examines his original aims in writing this book Theoretical Anthropology has helped to create among anthropologists the present climate of theoretical self awareness and broad humanistic concerns It has become a standard reference work for anthropologists as well as sociologists The Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold

Niebuhr, 2021-11-02 The Nature and Destiny of Man issues a vigorous challenge to Western civilization to understand its roots in the faith of the Bible particularly in the Hebraic tradition Niebuhr here lays out his influential understanding of the two poles of human existence finitude and freedom Individual human thriving requires that we fully understand and honor both of these aspects of our nature yet human history demonstrates our penchant for placing one over the other This book is arguably Reinhold Niebuhr s most important work It offers a sustained articulation of Niebuhr s theological ethics and is considered a landmark in twentieth century thought Wordsworth and the Poetics of Air Thomas H. Ford, 2018-07-05

Presents an ecocritical study of poetic atmosphere a concept first developed through Romanticism particularly in the poetry of William Wordsworth
