Nature Destiny Of Man Volume 1:

The Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold Niebuhr, 1996-01-01 Thought to be Niebuhr's most significant work as well as one of the few great 20th century works of theology by an American writer considers human nature from a Christian perspective The Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold Niebuhr, 1945 A Journey Through Christian Theology William P. Anderson, A non threatening entrance into texts from the Apostolic Fathers to Mary Daly Human Nature and the Discipline of Economics Patricia Donohue-White, 2002-01-01 Foundations of Economic Personalism is a series of three book length monographs each closely examining a significant dimension of the Center for Economic Personalism's unique synthesis of Christian personalism and free economic market theory In the aftermath of the momentous geo political and economic changes of the late 1980s a small group of Christian social ethicists began to converse with free market economists over the morality of market activity This interdisciplinary exchange eventually led to the founding of a new academic subdiscipline under the rubric of economic personalism These scholars attempt to integrate economic theory history and methodology with Christian personalism's stress upon human dignity humane social structures and social justice This second volume in the series surveys the anthropological foundations to the disciplines of economics and moral theology The first part of the book presents an overview of the German French and Polish branches of personalist thought Particular attention is given to theological anthropology especially as it is developed by such thinkers as Emmanuel Mounier Max Scheler Gabriel Marcel Karol Wojtyla and Emil Brunner Part two surveys models of human nature that have been espoused by various schools of free market thought including mainstream neoclassical economics In conclusion the authors demonstrate how an expanded understanding of human nature can augment the ability of economic science to model and predict human behavior

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized

Kinship Across Borders Kristin E. Heyer, 2012-10-02 The failure of current immigration policies in the United States has resulted in dire consequences a significant increase in border deaths a proliferation of smuggling networks prolonged family separation inhumane raids a patchwork of local ordinances criminalizing activities of immigrants and those who harbor them and the creation of an underclass none of which are appropriate or just outcomes for those holding Christian commitments Kinship Across Borders analyzes contemporary US immigration in the context of fundamental Christian beliefs about the human person sin family life and global solidarity Kristin Heyer expertly demonstrates how current US immigration policies reflect harmful neoliberal economic priorities and why immigration cannot be reduced to security or legal issues alone. Rather she explains that immigration involves a broad array of economic issues, trade policies, concerns of cultural tolerance and criminal justice, and at root an understanding of the human person. In Kinship Across Borders Heyer has developed a Christian immigration ethic grounded in scriptural, anthropological and social teachings and rooted in the experiences of undocumented migrants that calls society to promote concrete practices and policies reflecting justice and solidarity.

Christianity and Power Politics Today E. Patterson, 2008-03-03 This volume aims to reconstruct and debate a contemporary Christian realist framework while also applying such a perspective to the issues of contemporary politics such as the Bush Doctrine, the laws of war, democracy and democratization, U.S. participation in international institutions and apocalyptic terrorism.

Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala, 2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions? What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers? This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature. The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler, 1904-1987, an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian. The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education. The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s. Series: Studies in Religion and the Environment / Studien zur Religion und Umwelt, Vol. 12. Subject: Religious Studies / Environmental Studies / Ecotheology. Joseph Sittler.

Virtue and Irony in American Democracy Daniel A. Morris, 2015-07-01 What virtues are necessary for democracy to succeed? This book turns to John Dewey and Reinhold Niebuhr, two of America's most influential theorists of democracy, to answer this question. Dewey and Niebuhr both implied, although for very different reasons, that humility and mutuality are important virtues for the success of people rule. Not only do these virtues allow people to participate well in their own governance; they also equip us to meet challenges to democracy generated by free market economic policy and practices. Ironically, though, Dewey and Niebuhr quarreled with each other for twenty years and missed the opportunity to achieve political consensus. In their discourse with each other, they failed to become one out of many a task that is distilled in the democratic rallying cry e pluribus unum. This failure itself reflects a deficiency in democratic virtue. Thus, exploring the Dewey-Niebuhr debate with attention to their discursive failures reveals the importance of a third virtue: democratic tolerance. If democracy is to succeed, we must cultivate a deeper hospitality toward difference than Dewey and Niebuhr were able to extend to each other.

In Our Image Noreen L. Herzfeld, 2002 In Our Image brilliantly illuminates who we are as humans by demonstrating the surprisingly deep parallels between our motivations to replicate ourselves through computer technology and our emerging understanding of ourselves as relational beings created in God's image. This book is required reading for anyone, Christian or non-Christian, intrigued by the possibility of artificial intelligence.

Women and Pride Luping Huang, 2018-09-30 Reinhold Niebuhr is largely regarded as the leading twentieth-century theologian of sin. However, many feminist theologians criticize Niebuhr's view of pride as the primary sin arguing that it fits only with men's experience In this detailed study Dr Luping Huang engages with Niebuhr and his feminist critics to provide a response to the feminist critique of Niebuhr's theology of sin Dr Huang provides a thorough analysis and examination of both the Niebuhrian and feminist understandings of sin highlighting the strengths and limitations of both arguments While some aspects of the feminists opposition to Niebuhr's doctrine of sin are valid there are weaknesses and limitations within its own framework Through her research and interaction with women's testimonies Huang's argument bridges these two competing views of women and sin resulting in a more accurate understanding and application of the theology of sin particularly in reference to women

Stone, 2019-04-01 The Civil Rights Movement The Cuban Missile Crisis The assassination of a president and a senator both from the same family Praise turns into protest hope into disenchantment as democracy's new day goes up in flames The 1960s was an era born in hope and ends in deep conflict During this era Reinhold Niebuhr once dubbed America's theologian retires from Union Seminary in New York Though little has been published about him in this decade much of Niebuhr's life and work are as much shaped and transformed by this era as his work shapes and transforms the discourse in theology ethics and the politics of the age Ronald H Stone a former student turned colleague of Niebuhr brilliantly introduces readers to the Niebuhr of the 1960 s In his analysis of Niebuhr he shows a theologian whose work sometimes turns less theological and becomes more secular in his writing with a view toward speaking to a less religious more secular world around him Stone s delightful book introduces readers to never before seen letters between the author and Reinhold and Ursula Niebuhr Stone points the way for theologians ethicists politicians and those otherwise seeking justice and peace into the conflicted world today

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool,2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice
