Stephen Walker

Natures Assistant:

Nature's Assistant to the restoration of health; to which is added a short treatise on the Venereal Disease, ... also an essay on gleans, seminal weaknesses and the ... habit of self pollution. ... Seventh edition James HODSON (Swedenborgian Minister.), 1795 Helen Chadwick Stephen Walker, 2013-09-20 Highly respected by her peers and hugely influential on the subsequent generation of artists the British artist Helen Chadwick produced a wideranging body of work in a variety of media which shifted from early institutional and architectural critique to operatic installations and to photographic projects and sculptures Stephen Walker looks behind this apparent variety identifying a consistent range of interests ranging from classical Greek through to sub particle physics that accompanied and supported Chadwick's realised work Although she enjoyed significant critical attention in her lifetime this is the first study to explore the rich archive which informed her oeuvre Critical of the impact that limiting political philosophical and scientific constructions have on identity Chadwick's work can offer insights into the relationship between body and space self and world art and science artifice and nature theory and practice the creative self and the creative process Dismantling and reassembling her ideas this book combines a close reading of Chadwick's notebooks and research with broader speculation regarding their ongoing relevance for artistic and architectural work today The Mysteries of Montreal Peter Ward, 2011-11-01 During a long practice of over thirty years I have seen many things enacted here in this city of Montreal which if told with the skill of a Dumas or a Collins might not only astonish but startle the sedate residents of this Church going community With these words Charlotte Fuhrer introduces her memoirs Fuhrer a midwife in Montreal during the second half of the 19th century wrote her recollections in the form of highly scandalous moral tales The stories offer vignettes of the course of love faithful and illicit in late 19th century urban Canada Fuhrer's stories are headed with such titillating titles as A Just Retribution the story of a prominent businessman's mistress who after giving birth to her lover's child went from bad to worse and finally took to smoking opium as a means to relieve her gnawing conscience ending her days prematurely Fuhrer was at the service of the high and mighty and desperate and from her vantage point in the delivery room she offers remarkable insight into the most intimate life of Montreal Originally published in 1881 The Mysteries of Montreal is fully reprinted with an introduction by Peter Ward Ward illuminates the life of Fuhrer and of midwives in Victorian Canada He traces the role of the midwife through the ages and placing Mrs Fuhrer in the context of her times discusses birth practices in a Canadian setting As well he examines the memoirs as a form of Canadian literature assessing their reflections on 19th century society As a result the book operates on more than one level It is not only a midwife's recollections but also an assemblage of gossip moral tales stories of courtship and birth practices and even mild pornography Students of Canadian social history will be interested in the memoirs for their information on 19th century morals and values The book will also appeal to students of medical history women's studies and Canadian literary criticism The California Homoeopath, 1884 Dialectical Disputations Lorenzo Valla, 2012-08-13

Lorenzo Valla 1407-1457 ranks among the greatest scholars and thinkers of the Renaissance. He secured lasting fame for his brilliant critical skills, most famously in his exposure of the Donation of Constantine, the forged document upon which the papacy based claims to political power. Lesser known in the English speaking world is Valla's work in the philosophy of language, the basis of his reputation as the greatest philosopher of the humanist movement. Dialectical Disputations, translated here for the first time into any modern language, is his principal contribution to the philosophy of language and logic. With this savage attack on the scholastic tradition of Aristotelian logic, Valla aimed to supersede it with a new logic based on the actual historical usage of classical Latin and on a commonsense approach to semantics and argument. Valla provides a logic that could be used by lawyers, preachers, statesmen, and others who needed to succeed in public debate, one that was stylistically correct and rhetorically elegant and thus could dispense with the technical language of the scholastics, a tribe of Peripatetics, perverters of natural meanings. Valla's reformed dialectic became a milestone in the development of humanist logic and contains startling anticipations of modern theories of semantics and language. Volume 1 contains Book I in which Valla refutes Aristotle's logical works on the categories, transcendentals, and predicables, with excursions into natural and moral philosophy and theology. Healing Mind, Body And Soul Alan Bryson, 2000-03-01 Healing Sterling A New Method of Treating Consumptions, Wherein All the Decays Incident to Human Bodies, are Mechanically Accounted for Nicholas Robinson, 1727 The Literary Digest, 1910 On Other Grounds Brigitte Weltman-Aron, 2001-01-01 Examines eighteenth century French and English landscape gardens as representations of nationalist expression Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewett Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1910 The Canadian Horticulturist, 1898 Annual Report Indiana State Board of Health, 1917 Contains also Proceedings of conferences of health officers and lists of physicians American Star Jackie Collins, 1998-02 Jackie Collins American Star is a love story for the nineties.
