Explorations in Ancient and Modern Philosophy: Volume 4 Myles Burnyeat, 2022-03-31 Myles Burnyeat 1939 2019 was a major figure in the study of ancient Greek philosophy during the last decades of the twentieth century and the first of this After teaching positions in London and Cambridge where he became Laurence Professor in 1996 he took up a Senior Research Fellowship at All Souls College Oxford from which he retired in 2006 In 2012 he published two volumes collecting essays dating from before the move to Oxford Two new posthumously published volumes bring together essays from his years at All Souls and his retirement The essays in Volume 4 are addressed principally to scholars engaging first with fundamental issues in Platonic and Aristotelian metaphysics and epistemology and in Aristotle's philosophical psychology Then follow studies tackling problems in interpreting the approaches to physics and cosmology taken by Plato and Aristotle and in assessing the evidence for early Greek exercises in optics Philosophy and Humanism Edward Patrick Mahoney, 1976 This volume of essays has been prepared as a tribute to honor a great scholar Paul Oskar Kristeller Its genesis dates back to a meeting of several members of the Columbia university seminar on the Renaissance in the Spring of 1969 They resolved to undertake the preparation of a Festschrift with initial intention of presenting it to Professor Kristeller on the occasion of his retirement as a full time faculty member in the Spring of 1973 From Preface p xxi The Space of Time David van Dusen, 2014-05-09 From Robert Grosseteste to Jean Fran ois Lyotard Augustine's suggestion that time is a dilation of the soul distentio animi has been taken up as a seminal and controversial time concept yet in The Space of Time David van Dusen argues that this dilation has been fundamentally misinterpreted Time in Confessions XI is a dilation of the senses in beasts as in humans And Augustine's time concept in Confessions XI is not Platonic but in schematic terms Epicurean Identifying new influences on the Confessions from Aristoxenus to Lucretius while keeping Augustine's phenomenological interpreters in view The Space of Time is a path breaking work on Confessions X to XII and a ranging contribution to the history of the concept of time The British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books, 1881-1900 British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1946 Porphyry, >On Principles and Matter< Yury Arzhanov, Porphyry, 2021-08-02 The Syriac treatise published in the present volume is in many respects a unique text Though it has been preserved anonymously there remains little doubt that it belongs to Porphyry of Tyre Accordingly it enlarges our knowledge of the views of the most famous disciple of Plotinus The text is an important witness to Platonist discussions on First Principles and on Plato's concept of Prime Matter in the Timaeus It contains extensive quotations from Atticus Severus and Boethius This text thus provides us with new textual witnesses to these philosophers whose legacy remains very poorly attested and little known Additionally the treatise is a rare example of a Platonist work preserved in the Syriac language The Syriac reception of Plato and Platonic teachings has left rather sparse textual traces and the question of what precisely Syriac Christians knew about Plato and his philosophy remains a debated issue The treatise provides evidence for the close acquaintance of Syriac scholars with Platonic cosmology and with philosophical commentaries on Plato's Timaeus Plotinus on the Soul Jennifer Yhap, 2003-04 Of interest to scholars in Plotinian studies this book has yet a larger audience as the author investigates the full range of Plotinian epistemology from the origination of the One that is the Intellect to the last declension of true being that is Nature the lower part of world Soul The style is fluid and appeals to scholars of ancient philosophy as well as more contemporary discussions in the field of metaphysics and epistemology BOOK JACKET Reading Plato through Jung Paul

Bishop, 2023-01-19 This book examines the Jungian imperative that the Third must become the Fourth through the lens of Carl Jung's complex reception of Plato While in psychoanalytic discourse the Third is typically viewed as an agent that brings about healing the author highlights that in the case of Jung an early emphasis on the Third as the transcendent function gave way to an increasing insistence on the importance of the Fourth And yet he asks why must the Third become the Fourth Paul Bishop begins with a survey of work on Jung's relation to Plato before turning to Jung's readings of the Timaeus and Black Books as well as Goethe's Faust II and Nietzsche's Zarathustra He proceeds to unpick Jung's statements on the Third and the Fourth though a compelling analysis of how Jung draws upon religious and alchemical traditions Pythagorean numerology his own dream like experiences and Plato's cosmology This book will appeal to practitioners and to scholars working in the history of ideas psychoanalysis philosophy and psychoanalytic theory

Forms and Concepts Christoph Helmig, 2012-12-19 Forms and Concepts is the first comprehensive study of the central role of concepts and concept acquisition in the Platonic tradition It sets up a stimulating dialogue between Plato's innatist approach and Aristotle's much more empirical response The primary aim is to analyze and assess the strategies with which Platonists responded to Aristotle's and Alexander of Aphrodisias' rival theory The monograph culminates in a careful reconstruction of the elaborate attempt undertaken by the Neoplatonist Proclus 6th century AD to devise a systematic Platonic theory of concept acquisition Plotini opera Plotino, 1964 General catalogue of printed books British museum.
