Generation Multiplex Timothy Shary,2014-03-07 Generation Multiplex 2002 was the first comprehensive study of the representation of teenagers in American cinema since David Considine s Cinema of Adolescence in 1985 This updated and expanded edition reaffirms the idea that films about youth constitute a legitimate genre worthy of study on its own terms Identifying four distinct subgenres school delinquency horror and romance Timothy Shary explores hundreds of representative films while offering in depth discussion of movies that constitute key moments in the genre including Fast Times at Ridgemont High A Nightmare on Elm Street The Breakfast Club Say Anything Boyz n the Hood Scream American Pie Napoleon Dynamite Superbad The Twilight Saga and The Hunger Games Analyzing developments in teen films since 2002 Shary covers such topics as the increasing availability of movies on demand which has given teens greater access to both popular and lesser seen films the recent dominance of supernatural and fantasy films as a category within the genre and how the ongoing commodification of teen images in media affects real life issues such as school bullying athletic development sexual identity and teenage pregnancy

Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry,Venise T. Berry,2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema The Sex Lives of Siamese Twins Irvine Welsh,2015-02-03 When Lucy Brennan a Miami Beach personal fitness trainer disarms an apparently crazed gunman the police and the breaking news cameras are not far behind Within hours Lucy becomes a hero The solitary eye witness the depressed and overweight Lena Sorenson thrilled by Lucy s heroism and decisiveness becomes obsessed with the trainer and enrolls as a client at her Bodysculpt gym It quickly becomes clear that Lena is more interested in Lucy s body than her own and a budding fatal attraction takes hold However it s when Lucy imprisons Lena and can t stop thinking about the sex lives of Siamese twins that the real problems start In Lucy and Lena Irvine Welsh has created two of his most memorable female protagonists and one of the most bizarre sadomasochistic folie deux in contemporary fiction The Sex Lives of Siamese Twins taps into two great obsessions of our time how we look and where we live and tells a story so subversive and dark it blacks out the Florida sun Evil Greed Nicole Y. Smith,2010 New York Magazine ,1996-08-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Lost Book of Mormon Avi Steinberg,2015-11-24 Is The Book of Mormon a Great American Novel Avi Steinberg thinks so In this quirky travelogue part fan nonfiction part personal quest he follows the trail laid out in Joseph Smith s book From Jerusalem to the ruined Mayan cities of Central America to upstate New York and finally to Jackson County Missouri the spot Smith identified as the site of the Garden of Eden Steinberg traces The Book s unexpected path and grapples with Joseph Smith s demons and his own Literate and funny personal and provocative the genre bending The Lost Book of Mormon boldly explores our deeply human impulse to write books and affirms the abiding power of story Soul Exposed Sekenia Williams,2004-04 For this generation of Moms there is no cookie cutter mold for how motherhood should be or more importantly how it should appear to be These days whether we moms have a career or stay at home with our kids whether we are single married divorced or widowed we are forging a new path in motherhood Perhaps most importantly this generation of moms is releasing the need to be perfect all the time and is embracing the notion that we can have balance in our life most days This new breed of moms understands that this frees up the time and energy necessary to pursue growth in ourselves outside motherhood Furthermore we are learning to shake off guilt and celebrate the imperfections in our daily lives This empowers us to redefine ourselves to use our gifts and talents to create a purposeful vision for our lives outside motherhood Finally we are becoming champions of our own lives awakening the champreneurs within ourselves We are grateful for the sacrifices our mothers grandmothers and great grandmothers made to get us to this point We are merely standing on their shoulders Without them we are nothing our gratitude to them is everything But rather than looking behind us for affirmation today s mothers lean on support and empower each other No guilt allowed Mommy Magic gives these moms an encouraging pat on the back a good laugh and affirmation that being real is important It gives moms permission to admit that motherhood is not perfect it is in fact a journey Mommy Magic is meant to be a humorous and inspirational guide to living in chaos an empowering and easy read to squeeze in while waiting in the carpool line Most of all Mommy Magic is meant as a vehicle for mothers to share talk and laugh over the fact that nobody is perfect all the time Leonard Maltin's 2014 Movie Guide Leonard Maltin,2013-09-03

Melvin Donalson,2010-01-01 An in depth look at the pioneering work and lasting influence of black Hollywood directors from Gordon Parks to Spike Lee and beyond Hollywood film directors are some of the world s most powerful storytellers shaping the fantasies and aspirations of people around the globe Since the 1960s African Americans have increasingly joined their ranks bringing fresh insights to the characters we watch and profoundly changing the way stories are told Today black directors are making films in all popular genres while inventing new ones to speak directly from and to the black experience This book offers a comprehensive look at the work of black directors in Hollywood from pioneers such as Gordon Parks Melvin Van Peebles and Ossie Davis to current talents including Spike Lee John Singleton Kasi Lemmons and Carl Franklin Discussing sixty seven individuals and over 135 films Melvin Donalson thoroughly explores how black directors storytelling skills and film techniques have widened both the thematic focus and visual style of American cinema Assessing the meanings and messages in their films Donalson convincingly demonstrates that black directors are balancing Hollywood s demand for box office success with artistic achievement and responsibility to ethnic cultural and gender issues The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry,Venise T. Berry,2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson s victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history Best.
