Love Anarchy:

Italian Film in the Light of Neorealism Millicent Marcus, 2020-03-31 The movement known as neorealism lasted seven years generated only twenty one films failed at the box office and fell short of its didactic and aesthetic aspirations Yet it exerted such a profound influence on Italian cinema that all the best postwar directors had to come to terms with it whether in seeming imitation the early Olmi in commercial exploitation the middle Comencini or in ostensible rejection the recent Taviani Despite the reactionary pressures of the marketplace and the highly personalized visions of Fellini Antonioni And Visconti Italian cinema has maintained its moral commitment to use the medium in socially responsible ways if not to change the world as the first neorealists hoped then at least to move filmgoers to face the pressing economic political and human problems in their midst From Rossellini's Open City 1945 to the Taviani brothers Night of the Shooting Stars 1982 The author does close readings of seventeen films that tell the story of neorealism's evolving influence on Italian postwar cinematic expression Other films discussed are De Sica's Bicycle Thief and Umberto D De Santis's Bitter Rice Comencini's Bread Love and Fantasy Fellini's La strada Visconti's Senso Antonioni's Red Desert Olmi's Il Posto Germi's Seduced and Abandoned Pasolini's Teorema Petri's Investigation of a Citizen above Suspicion Bertolucci's The Conformist Rosi's Christ Stopped at Eboli and Wertmüller's Love and Anarchy Scola's We All Loved Each Other So Much provides the occasion for the author's own retrospective consideration of how Italian cinema has fulfilled or disappointed the promise of neorealism

The Cinema of Italy Giorgio Bertellini, 2004 Giorgio Bertellini examines the historical and aesthetic connections of some of Italy's most important films with both Italian and Western film culture

The result is a brave bold and vulnerable exploration of what sexual freedom can mean Bad Sex is Nona's own journey to sexual satisfaction and romantic happiness which not only lays bare the triumphs and flaws of contemporary feminism but also shines a light on universal questions of desire Emma Howard Zinn, 2012-08 A play in two acts about Emma Goldman American Anarchist In this play historian and playwright Howard Zinn dramatizes the life of Emma Goldman the anarchist feminist and free spirited thinker who was exiled from the United States because of her outspoken views including her opposition to WWI With his wit and ability to illuminate history from below Zinn reveals the life of this remarkable woman

E. Newman, 1912 Counterculture Alex Zamalin, 2025-02-04 A political and intellectual history of American counterculture and the historical figures who redefined mainstream understandings of freedom culture art and politics from The Beat Generation to Basquiat This entertaining intellectual history fulfills the growing appetite for marginalized narratives Counterculture brilliantly interrogates the diversity of counterculture and the interwoven relationship between each individual legacy From Anarchism to the Harlem Renaissance Alex Zamalin unveils the humanity behind these romanticized figures and popularized movements to capture revolutionary freedom in action American counterculture defined as a movement whose values are outside and oppositional to mainstream norms and whose practices fundamentally reject what is socially respectable ultimately transformed the 20th century With key players Emma Goldman Billie Holiday Allen Ginsberg Amiri Baraka Jean Michel Basquiat And key movements Anarchism Black Bohemia The Harlem Renaissance The Beat Generation The Black Arts Movement Hip Hop Counterculture reaches new depths tackling a wide range of historical social and political topics and expanding contemporary understandings of American cultural tradition At a time when counterculture was on the outskirts of American society Alex Zamalin explores the reason why Aurobindo Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2024-03-30 This book elaborates the politico ideological viewpoints of Aurobindo as displayed when he reigned as one of the major nationalist leaders defining Indian nationalism Bidyut Chakrabarty examines Aurobindo's politico ideological ideas during the period 1893 1910 when he was an active participant in the New Nationalist or Democratic Nationalist campaign which started with the bifurcation of the Indian National Congress between the Moderates and Extremists also known as the Revolutionary Nationalists in its 1907 annual session held at Surat Chapters cover Aurobindo's distinctive ideas of nationalism which he evolved in collaboration with his colleagues especially Lal Bal Pal Lala Lajpat Rai Bal Gangadhar Tilak and Bipin Chandra Pal and how he redefined the practice of nationalism The book also demonstrates that unlike his predecessors the Moderates Aurobindo set out many strategies including boycott and passive resistance to execute the distinctive plan he designed to attain his politico ideological goal Other topics include the relatively less discussed aspect of Aurobindo's socio political ideas namely his unique model of education as an antidote to many of the crippling socio cultural prejudices and the importance of Bhagavad Gita in shaping Aurobindo's politico ideological priorities

The Works of the English Poets, from Chaucer to Cowper: J. Beaumont, G. and P. Fletcher, F. Beaumont, Browne, Davenant, Habington, Suckling, Cartwright, Crashaw, Sherburne, Brome, C. Cotton Alexander Chalmers, 1810 Un-American Womanhood Kim E. Nielsen, 2001 This book studies the Red Scare of the 1920s through the lens of gender The author describes the methods antifeminists used to subdue feminism and other movements they viewed as radical The book also considers the seeming contradictions of outspoken antifeminists who broke with traditional gender norms to assume forceful and public roles in their efforts to denounce feminism Making Marriage Modern Christina Simmons, 2009-04-10 The nineteenth century middle class ideal of the married woman was of a chaste and diligent wife focused on being a loving mother with few needs or rights of her own The modern woman by contrast was partner to a new model of marriage one in which she and her husband formed a relationship based on greater sexual and psychological equality In Making Marriage Modern Christina Simmons narrates the development of this new companionate marriage ideal which took hold in the early twentieth century and prevailed in American society by the 1940s The first challenges to public reticence to discuss sexual relations between husbands and wives came from social hygiene reformers who advocated for a scientific but conservative sex education to combat prostitution and venereal disease A more radical group of feminists anarchists and bohemians opposed the Victorian model of marriage and even the institution of marriage Birth control advocates such as Emma Goldman and Margaret Sanger openly championed women's rights to acquire and use effective contraception The companionate marriage emerged from these efforts This marital ideal was characterized by greater emotional and sexuality intimacy for both men and women use of birth control to create smaller families and destigmatization of divorce in cases of failed unions Simmons examines what she calls the flapper marriage in which free spirited young wives enjoyed the early years of marriage postponing children and domesticity She looks at the feminist marriage in which women imagined greater equality between the sexes in domestic and paid work and sex And she explores the African American partnership marriage which often included wives employment and drew more heavily on the involvement of the community and extended family Finally she traces how these modern ideals of marriage were promoted in sexual advice literature and marriage manuals of the period Though male dominance persisted in companionate marriages Christina Simmons shows how they called for greater independence and satisfaction for women and a new female heterosexuality By raising women's expectations of marriage the companionate ideal also contained within it the seeds of second wave feminists demands for transforming the institution into one of true equality between the sexes Marriage Discourses Jowan A. Mohammed, Frank

Jacob,2021-11-22 Marriage was historically not only a romantic ideal but a tool of exploitation of women in many regards Women were often considered commodities and marriage was far away from the romantic stereotypes people relate to it today While marriages served as diplomatic tools or means of political legitimization in the past the discourses about marital relationships changed and women expressed their demands more openly Discourses about marriage in history and literature naturally became more and more heated especially during the long 19th century when marriages were contested by social reformers or political radicals male and female alike The present volume provides a discussion of the role of marriage and the discourses about in different chronological and geographical contexts and shows which arguments played an important role for the demand for more equality in marital relationships It focuses on marriage discourses may they have been legal or rather socio political ones In addition the disputes about marriage in literary works of the 19th and 20th centuries are presented to complement the historical debates
