FBI Special Agent Lynda Culter is investigating an ecoterrorist organization in the Alaskan wilderness when her partner is taken captive and murdered before her very eyes. The only person who can identify the key players, Lynda gets assigned to take part in a joint operation in Istanbul to take the organization down. As a woman in a Muslim country, she'll find it much easier to move around undetected with a fake husband. Unfortunately for her, the man assigned to play the role is none other than US Army weapons specialist Bill Sanders, the man who crushed her heart into a million pieces back in college. With a cargo bay's worth of hurt and baggage between them, these two consummate professionals must play their parts perfectly if they hope to stop those responsible for bombing oil pipelines, killing innocent civilians, and threatening to destabilize the oil markets. But love, long buried, has a way of resurfacing at the most inopportune times, and protecting Lynda has become Bill's primary focus. To Love and Honor Irene Brand, 2011-02-21

Larimore remains the most triumphant kingdom in the land under the rule of King Zachariah, but what goes on within its very walls tells an entirely different tale. Guards harass the people, children go hungry. Meanwhile, the King prepares his only son and heir, Prince Leon, to choose between all of the neighboring kingdoms' daughters to take as a wife so that he may take over the rule of Larimore once the King is gone. Unsatisfied with the way things are being run and with the options for a wife, Prince Leon dreams of making changes to the kingdom for the better of the people. On the other side of the wall, Vera McLain, the eldest daughter of two peasants with no great love for her, sees firsthand what is happening in the streets but does not believe that anyone of royal blood would ever be moved to do anything about it. When the two are caused to meet by their mutual defense of an injustice going on in town, will they be able to save Larimore from itself as well as from an evil looming within its gates? Love and Honor Patricia Hagan, 1989
