Love Death And The Changing Seasons:

Love, Death, and the Changing of the Seasons Marilyn Hacker, 1995-03-17 This critically acclaimed sonnet sequence is the passionately intense story of a love affair between two women from the electricity of their first acquaintance to the experience of their parting

Forms of Expansion Lynn Keller, 1997-08-04 Expanding the boundaries of both genre and gender contemporary American women are writing long poems in a variety of styles that repossess history reconceive female subjectivity and revitalize poetry itself In the first book devoted to long poems by women Lynn Keller explores this rich and evolving body of work offering revealing discussions of the diverse traditions and feminist concerns addressed by poets ranging from Rita Dove and Sharon Doubiago to Judy Grahn Marilyn Hacker and Susan Howe Arguing that women poets no longer feel intimidated by the traditional associations of long poems with the heroic public realm or with great artistic ambition Keller shows how the long poem's openness to sociological anthropological and historical material makes it an ideal mode for exploring women's roles in history and culture In addition the varied forms of long poems from sprawling free verse epics to regular sonnet sequences to highly disjunctive experimental collages make this hybrid genre easily adaptable to diverse visions of feminism and of contemporary poetics

Lesbian Utopics Annamarie Jagose, 2017-09-29 In Lesbian Utopics Annamarie Jagose surveys the construction of the lesbian and finds her in a cultural space that is both everywhere and of all places nowhere The lesbian in other words is symbolically central yet culturally marginal

Love, Death, and Transience: Byron Renz, 2015-09-29 A collage in art is something like a mosaic It takes picture fragments which have a certain meaning in themselves and juxtaposes them with other picture fragments that convey a somewhat different but related idea When viewed as a collective whole the sub themes in each picture blend together to create a large unified master theme This book might be described as a literary collage The theme in each essay conveys a part of the life of our society and political landscape The essays were written to accompany e mail greetings for my four daughters and several of my friends at the four seasonal turning points of the year experienced similarly at the middle latitudes the two equinoxes and two solstices Now some nine years after starting the practice in 2006 a number of essays have accumulated some short and personal and others longer and impersonal The essays usually make some point about the world that we live in from the way that words convey meaning to phenomena of the mind to political issues of the day The purpose of this book is to stimulate thought and to encourage discussion

whetted for critique Many comedians and humorous poets prove to be astute cultural critics To that end Laugh Lines focuses on poetry that wields humor to espouse sociopolitical critique To show the range of recent American poetry that uses humor to articulate sociopolitical critique Connors highlights the work of poets working in four distinct poetic genres traditional received forms such as the sonnet the epic procedural poetry and prose poetry Marilyn Hacker Harryette Mullen Ed Dorn and Russell Edson provide the main focus of the chapters but each chapter compares those poets to others writing humorous political verse in the same genre including Terrance Hayes and Anne Carson This comparison highlights the pervasiveness of this trend in recent American poetry and reveals the particular ways the poets use conventions of genre to generate and even amplify their humor Connors argues that the interplay between humor and genre creates special opportunities for political critique as poetic forms and styles can invoke the very social constructs that the poets deride Shakespeare's Sonnets and Poems Jonathan F. of representative case studies Marianne Van Remoortel traces the development of the sonnet during intense moments of change and stability continuity and conflict from the early Romantic period to the end of the nineteenth century Paying particular attention to the role of the popular press which served as a venue of innovation and as a site of recruitment for aspiring authors Van Remoortel redefines the scope of the genre including the ways in which its development is intricately related to issues of gender Among her subjects are the Della Cruscans and their primary critic William Gifford the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge and his circle Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Sonnets from the Portuguese George Meredith's Modern Love Dante Gabriel Rossetti's House of Life and Augusta Webster's Mother and Daughter As women became a force to be reckoned with among the reading public and the writing community the term sonnet often operated as a satirical label that was not restricted to poetry adhering to the strict formalities of the genre Van Remoortel's study in its attentiveness to the sonnet's feminization during the late eighteenth century offers important insights into the ways in which changing attitudes about gender and genre shaped critics' interpretations of the reception histories of nineteenth century sonnet sequences
