Love Is A Drum Fiction Notes:

Love is a Drum Wallace Collins, 2000-01-20 THE EXIT INTERVIEW is a story about the competitiveness between two business oriented buddies whose friendship became marred by jealousy and envy ended in tragic circumstances or at best melodramatically In LOVE IS A DRUM Pops is a senior citizen who shares the spotlight with Malcolm a young romantic who projects himself years ahead of his time to emphasize with the old man THE EMPTY STAGE is a story that indulges in the often beguiling concept of reality It speaks to a reality that Billy a television cameraman and Walter a character actor both finds it difficult to identify actuality BLOOD AND WINE is a story that shows the need for our compassion in understanding the vagrant and try to ease if not remedy his eerie and dismal world of existence struggle of the Ojibwe people to survive colonization and contemporary reservation life Kurup traces in Erdrich's oeuvre the theme of colonization both historical and cultural and its lasting effects starting with the various novels of the Love Medicine epic the National Book Award winning The Round House The Birchbark House series of children's literature the memoirs The Blue Jays Dance and Books and Island in Ojibwe Country and selected poetry Kurup elucidates Erdrich's historical context thematic concerns and literary strategies through close readings offering an introductory approach to Erdrich and revealing several entry points for further investigation Kurup asserts that Erdrich's writing has emerged not out of a postcolonial identity but from the ongoing condition of colonization faced by Native Americans in the United States which is manifested in the very real and contemporary struggle for sovereignty and basic civil rights Exploring the ways in which Erdrich moves effortlessly from trickster humor to searing pathos and from the personal to the political Kurup takes up the complex issues of cultural identity assimilation and community in Erdrich's writing Kurup shows that Erdrich offers readers poignant and complex portraits of Native American lives in vibrant three dimensional and poetic prose while simultaneously bearing witness to the abiding strength and grace of the Ojibwe people and their presence and participation in the history of the United States The Publisher, 1911 The Bookman, 1898 Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900

Daniel R. Schwarz, 2018-04-30 An exploration of the modern European novel from a renowned English literature scholar Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 is an engaging in depth examination of the evolution of the modern European novel Written in Daniel R Schwarz's precise and highly readable style this critical study offers compelling discussions on a wide range of major works since 1900 and examines recurring themes within the context of significant historical events including both World Wars and the Holocaust The author cites important developments in the evolution of the modern novel and explores how these paradigmatic works of fiction reflect intellectual and cultural history including developments in painting and cinema Schwarz focuses on narrative complexity thematic subtlety and formal originality as well as how novels render historical events and cultural developments Discussing major works by Proust Camus Mann Kafka Grass di Lampedusa Bassani Kertesz Pamuk Kundera Saramago Muller and Ferrante Schwarz explores how these often experimental masterworks pay homage to their major predecessors discussed in Schwarz's ground breaking Reading the European Novel to 1900 even while proposing radical departures from realism in their approach to time and space their testing the limits of language and their innovative ways of rendering the human psyche Written for teachers and students by a highly acclaimed scholar and including valuable study questions Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 offers a guide for a deeper understanding of how these original modern masters respond to both the past and present Partition and Indian English Fiction N. S. Gundur, 2008 The 1947 partition of Indian subcontinent was a political problem and a human problem as well Historical narratives document the political side of it whereas fictional ones narrate human experience of the ordeal While humanizing history the fictional narratives try to recreate totality of the holocaust Based on this line of argument the present book critically examines the Indian English Novels on Partition By relating the political history of the great divide to the novelistic representation the present study places the partition novels in the genre of political fiction Further more it offers critical insights into Partition Narratives by exploring the thematic concerns and techniques of the novels under study The critical acumen combined with historical interpretation and aesthetic evaluation makes it a reference book not only for the students of literature but also for the interested in Indian history
