Love Letters and the Romantic Novel during the Napoleonic Wars Sharon Worley,2017-01-06 Love letters during the Napoleonic wars were largely framed by concepts of love which were promoted through novels and philosophy The standard texts so to speak which were written by major authors who inherited this Enlightenment bearing responded to the emerging concepts of love found in novels and philosophical essays Love among this Napoleonic coterie is unique because it demonstrates the reciprocal relationship between the love letter and the romantic novel Germaine de Sta l Juliette R camier Chateaubriand Benjamin Constant Lady Emma Hamilton Napoleon Bonaparte and his brother Lucien Bonaparte were the authors and recipients of some of the most passionate love letters of this period They were also avid readers of the newly emerging genre of the romantic novel and many of them were also authors of such works where they projected their personal romances onto the characterization of their fictional heroes and heroines In addition these authors had lived through the recent French Revolution and the Terror Imprisoned during the Revolution or branded as emigr s upon their return to Paris their mature adult lives were spent in the shadows of the Napoleonic wars in which they shifted political loyalties as the specter of Napoleon s powers grew from First Consul to Emperor of Europe The looming threat of war ignited the depths of their passions and inspired their intellectual analysis of love happiness and suicide Their evolving concept of love was a romantic all consuming passion which gripped the lovers in fatal embraces This book s analysis of their love letters and romantic novels reveals the emerging political landscape of the period through extended metaphors of love and patriotism

Let everything that hath breath praise ye the Lord Love Letters to a Neo-Nazi Richard Field, 2012-12-09 In April 2011 militant hate groups affiliated with Hungary's Neo-Nazi Jobbik party attempted to ethnically cleanse the northern Hungarian town of Gyergyospata of its Roma inhabitants. They were thwarted by the Good Friday evacuation of 267 Roma women and children by the Hungarian Red Cross and the ensuing international uproar which left the center-right Fidesz government little choice but to ban the very uniformed criminals it had allowed to terrorize Roma communities for over a year. Seeking to deflect criticism from itself, the Fidesz government accused American businessman, philanthropist and Red Cross volunteer Richard Field of staging a mock evacuation for the purpose of harming Hungary's image abroad. This is Field's story told through articles he wrote for The Budapest Times, open letters to public officials, letters to editors and speeches.
