

Love Poem

I hope this does not make you blush
But you're my pin up and my crush
You send my blood cells
(in their legions) Flooding to my nether regions

Love Poems For Cards And Letters:

Love Poems for Cards and Letters Ara John Movsesian, 2008-02 Love Poems for Cards Letters contains over 175 short but powerful poems perfect for use in romantic greeting cards texts and love letters Feminism and John Keats : A Study of his Poems and Letters Dr. Pritish Biswas ,2025-03-06 The United States Catalog ,1900 The Letters of Robert Burns Robert Burns,1927 Aspects of Romantic Love Dr. George Vareekal,2022-03-28 Aspects of Romantic Love Perceptions on Love and Marriage is a modest attempt to express my perceptions of romantic love and related themes To love and to be loved are exciting aspects of a person s emotional life The pivotal theme of the book is love romance marriage and those alliances which hamper a harmonious conjugal and family life Romantic love is a fascinating passion and an ecstatic experience The very word romance captures our imagination and fills our hearts with exciting feelings The book is not a scientific treatise on love It only encapsulates romantic love with all its appealing themes My effort is to describe the splendid experience called love exclusively through my impressions The book is a product of the year 2020 marred by the Covid 19 pandemic and the terrible human exodus during the lockdown of 2020 The unexpected global and national scenario gave ample time and opportunity for reading writing and reflection Writing on a subject like romantic love helped overcome the lethargy and the feeling of devastation during the lockdown It has been an exciting creative activity and a marvellous sensation of diversion The Letters of D. H. Lawrence D. H. Lawrence,2002-09-05 Volume I gives the first 580 letters covering the period September 1901 to May 1913 Privacy and Print Cecile M. Jagodzinski,1999 Proposes that the emergence of the concept of privacy as a personal right and the core of individuality is connected in a complex way with the easy availability of printed books and the spread of the ability to read that emerged during the period Looks at representations of reading and readers especially women in devotional books conversion narratives personal letters drama and the novel Also explores how privacy became gendered in the early modern period Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton,2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown Letters and Journals of Lord Byron George Gordon Byron Baron Byron,1830 Letters As Archive Theo Rourke,AI,2025-05-05 Letters As Archive explores the untapped potential of personal correspondence as invaluable historical documents Challenging traditional historical methodologies the book champions letters as archives that capture individual experiences and reflect broader social and cultural norms Did you know personal letters can offer insights into migration patterns or reveal attitudes during times of war providing firsthand accounts often missing from official records By examining these primary sources the book advocates for a more inclusive understanding of the past amplifying voices often excluded from mainstream historical narratives The book unfolds systematically first establishing a theoretical framework for analyzing letters as historical archives Subsequent chapters delve into specific themes and case studies such as the role of letters in shaping family history or documenting social upheaval This approach offers practical guidance on archival methods and textual analysis emphasizing ethical considerations Ultimately Letters As Archive encourages a decentralized approach to historical inquiry urging scholars to consider personal correspondence as a vital source of historical knowledge

The Life and Letters of William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod". Volume 2: 1895-1899 William F. Halloran, 2020-04-14 What an achievement It is a major work The letters taken together with the excellent introductory sections so balanced and judicious and informative what emerges is an amazing picture of William Sharp the man and the writer which explores just how fascinating a figure he is Clearly a major reassessment is due and this book could make it happen Andrew Hook Emeritus Bradley Professor of English and American Literature Glasgow University William Sharp 1855 1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time Sharp was a Scottish poet novelist biographer and editor who in 1893 began to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod This was far more than just a pseudonym he corresponded as Macleod enlisting his sister to provide the handwriting and address and for more than a decade Fiona Macleod duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as William Butler Yeats and in America E C Stedman Sharp wrote I feel another self within me now more than ever it is as if I were possessed by a spirit who must speak out This three volume collection brings together Sharp s own correspondence a fascinating trove in its own right by a Victorian man of letters who was on intimate terms with writers including Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and George Meredith and the Fiona Macleod letters which bring to life Sharp s intriguing second self With an introduction and detailed notes by William F Halloran this richly rewarding collection offers a wonderful insight into the literary landscape of the time while also investigating a strange and underappreciated phenomenon of late nineteenth century English literature It is essential for scholars of the period and it is an illuminating read for anyone interested in authorship and identity

Letters of Samuel Taylor Coleridge Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1895

Textual Subjectivity A. C. Spearing, 2005-10-27 This book investigates how subjectivity is encoded in the texts of a wide variety of medieval narratives and lyrics not how they express the subjectivity of individuals but how subjectivity escaping the bounds of individuality is incorporated in the linguistic fabric of their texts Most of the poems discussed are in English and the book includes analyses of Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde Man of Law's Tale and Complaint Unto Pity the works of the Pearl poet Havelok the Dane the lyric sequence attributed to Charles of Orleans the earliest such sequence in English and many anonymous poems It also devotes sections to Ovid's Heroides and to poems by the troubadour Bernart de Ventadorn For the first time it brings to bear on medieval narratives and lyrics a body of theory which denies the supposed necessity for literary texts to have narrators or speakers and in doing so reveals the implausibilities into which a dogmatic assumption of this necessity has led much of the last century's criticism
