Catalogue of (printed) music. Music. Accessions, pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books, 1884 Hindi Film Songs and the Cinema Anna Morcom, 2017-07-05 Since their beginnings in the 1930s Hindi films and film songs have dominated Indian public culture in India and have also made their presence felt strongly in many global contexts Hindi film songs have been described on the one hand as highly standardized and on the other as highly eclectic Anna Morcom addresses many of the paradoxes eccentricities and myths of not just Hindi film songs but also of Hindi cinema by analysing film songs in cinematic context While the presence of songs in Hindi films is commonly dismissed as purely commercial this book demonstrates that in terms of the production process musical style and commercial life it is most powerfully the parent film that shapes and defines the film songs and their success rather than the other way round While they constitute India's still foremost genre of popular music film songs are also situational dramatic sequences inherently multi media in style and conception This book is uniquely grounded in detailed musical and visual analysis of Hindi film songs song sequences and films as well as a wealth of ethnographic material from the Hindi film and music industries Its findings lead to highly novel ways of viewing Hindi film songs their key role in Hindi cinema and how this affects their wider life in India and across the globe It will be indispensable to scholars seeking to understand both Hindi film songs and Hindi cinema It also forms a major contribution to popular music popular culture film music studies and ethnomusicology tackling pertinent issues of cultural production multi media and the cross cultural use of music in Hindi cinema The book caters for both music specialists as well as a wider audience

Love's Song Brent A. Peters, 2009-04 In Darien's world music is king Since the age of sixteen he's filled a spiral notebook full of songs inspired by his own experiences and he now owns and plays at a thriving nightclub called Strings Lately though his mind has been consumed with thoughts of his ex girlfriend Candice if he could only get her out of his head he might be able to find peace When he meets Melody a talented writer for a local up and coming magazine Darien falls instantly and completely in love He now gets to fulfill his dream of creating songs from his heart And Darien touches the heart of Melody so skillfully that the two become inseparable But even the most perfect relationships can crack and despite all his best intentions Darien feels Melody begin to slip through his fingers Through the pain and confusion of his relationship with Melody Darien continues to write his songs seeking to understand the barrage of feelings hammering against his heart Is Melody indeed the love he has been writing about his entire life or does someone else wait in the wings Only time will tell but Darien knows that whatever lays ahead his music will illuminate the path he takes A beautiful love story entwined with the magic of music Love's Song reveals one man's commitment to discovering the song and the woman of his heart
