

REMEMBER ME

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.

Winter,2016-04-19 Perhaps the most astonishing set of personal poems ever written Shakespeare s Sonnets have both delighted and puzzled readers down the ages Two Loves I Have is a reading of the sequence that brings the four characters involved to life The fair kind and true young man to whom the majority of poems are addressed the woman as black as hell as dark as night who dominates a part of the narrator s inner landscape against his will the narrator himself who at times is unexpectedly wholly at ease with his mistress but at other times is sunk in a form of self loathing and whom nothing on earth will deter in his devotion to the young man these three play out a drama as fierce as that in any of the author s plays And the author himself at some remove behind the narrator is the shadowy fourth character Did he invent the young man and the Dark Lady Did he adapt an existing situation in his life or indeed record it simply as it was Whatever the historical fact which can never be known the poetic situation is enthralling Without insisting on any particular view Two Loves I Have from sonnet 144 allows the reader a vista of the whole sonnet sequence and a sense of its shifting currents J D Winter carefully elucidates each individual poem thus enabling the reader not only to come to terms with their outward meaning but to appreciate the rhetorical flow and the poet s idiosyncratic use of the sonnet form itself The sonnet sequence has been a comparatively neglected part of the Shakespearean canon The 400th anniversary of Shakespeare s death in 2016 is an appropriate time to shed a new light upon the poems The Book of Praise General Association of Connecticut,1868 An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry Corinna Laughlin,2023-02-01 Countless generous hearted people feel called to bereavement ministry and accompany the bereaved both liturgically and pastorally In An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry Caring for Those Who Mourn all those called to bereavement ministry will receive the theological and spiritual formation to minister to the dying and those who grieve This resource presents a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church s official funeral rites and ensures that all ministers ordained lay professional staff and volunteer ministers are working out of a shared understanding of that vision In pastoral and engaging prose author Corinna Laughlin unfolds the Church s theology of Christian death the paschal mystery the communion of saints and the healing power of the rites This book addresses ministry with the dying and with the bereaved at the time of death and presents the range of pastoral services the parish and its bereavement team can offer both in the early days and throughout the year following a death This foundational and readable resource provides compelling and enriching formation in bereavement ministry An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry Caring for Those Who Mourn may be used by any person seeking formation in bereavement ministry It may also be used in tandem with Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry by Robert Valle a resource for parishes that are developing or refreshing a parish bereavement ministry Whether An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry is used with Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry or independently it will give the reader a compelling and enriching formation in bereavement ministry The Ministry of Praise and Song: a Selection of Gospel Hymns for Private and Public Worship.
