Love and Mary Ann Catherine Cookson,2003 Matt and Mary Ann Robert D. Davis,2012-05 Sunset at Noon.
Reminiscences of Mary Ann Love. [With a Portrait.] Joseph John BEECROFT,1875 True Love Sarah E. Farro,2021-05-21
True Love A Story of English Domestic Life 1891 is the first and only novel by Sarah E Farro Inspired by the works of Dickens and Thackeray this novel models itself on the stories of romance and everyday life popular in Victorian England When True Love A Story of English Domestic Life appeared in print Farro became the first black woman to publish a novel in the United States Despite this distinction her name and reputation would largely have faded into history if not for the effort of recent scholarship which seeks to restore her status as a pioneering African American woman while contextualizing her work within the study of Victorian literature Mrs Brewster is an unhappy woman A carpenter s daughter she spent years in poverty before receiving a sizable inheritance from a distant relative granting her and her two daughters a minimum of stability for the first time in their lives Despite this she endures an abusive joyless marriage to a merchant tailor and longs for a way to escape middle class life When her daughter Janey becomes engaged to a wealthy aristocrat Mrs Brewster grows hopeful of the opportunity to tie herself to her fate Not far from the Brewster home Charles Taylor lives in an ornately decorated mansion Having inherited a large sum from his capitalist father he leads a boring luxurious existence For Taylor marriage is a matter of romance a bond between a man and a woman with no economic significance whatsoever For Mrs Brewster her daughter is worth her weight in gold With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Sarah E Farro s True Love A Story of English Domestic Life is a classic of African American literature reimagined for modern readers The CNDA way : A revolutionary approach to relationships and self-love Colette Portelance,2015-03-31T00:00:00-04:00 According to the CNDA creative non directive approach developed by Colette Portelance individuals aiming to offer assistance or support to others in their personal or professional lives must first learn to know understand and accept themselves Only then will those in the helping role be able to feel and show true acceptance trust and love towards those they are helping enabling them to fulfil their creative potential and find greater happiness and harmony in their lives Signs and Seasons of Love F.M. Bonevento,2014-07-10 The Signs and Seasons of Love is a collection of verses inspired by a love that has flourished for more than half a century The story begins when the author F M Bonevento is six and he meets Mary Ann who is seven Over the years they continue as friends sharing common interests until one summer day in 1961 they discover that they have fallen in love Their romance and long marriage is a treasure of shared joys The idea of the collection of verses started years ago as a unique gift for Mary Ann and it grew into this book full of verses that will touch your heart and bring you a glimpse of the joy of romance Verse unlike narrative prose uses images painted with words to express the feelings that dwell deep within the human heart From the endearing poem The Perfect Kiss to the passion of Fire the emotions are personal and heartfelt The Signs and Seasons of Love Verses to paint images of love Verses in a world that has so little time for the sweetest images of the heart Lines giving but the faintest hint of the love she gives so abundantly Phrases and couplets crafted to touch her heart as her love so often touches mine How meager the offerings still they spring from the depths of my heart Oh how I wish I had the art to truly tell what lives within me

George Eliot in Love Brenda Maddox, 2010-09-28 George Eliot is one of the most celebrated novelists in history Her books including Middlemarch Daniel Deronda and Adam Bede are as appreciated now as they were in the nineteenth century Yet her nonconformist and captivating personal life a compelling story in itself is not well known Ridiculed as an ugly duckling Eliot violated strict social codes by living with a married man for most of her adult life Soon after he died she married a much younger man who attempted suicide during their honeymoon The obstacles Eliot overcame in her life informed her work and have made her legacy an enduring one Brenda Maddox brings her lively style to bear on the intersection of Eliot's life and novels She delves into the human side of this larger than life figure revealing the pleasure and pain behind the intellectual's public face The result is a deeply personal biography that sheds new light on a woman who lived life on her own terms and altered the literary landscape in the process

I sat in the floor of our home Indian style. My hand over my face sobbing, I could hear my children as they played around me but their voices sounded distant. I sat waiting. What was I waiting for? What had happened to me? I felt completely abandoned. I wanted my parents, my brothers and sisters. I wanted my husband to hold me. I had lost it. But what had I lost? My life came crashing down around me and I could do nothing but sit and cry. I remember the ambulance coming for me. I ran and hid like a child. I was finally giving up. I had fought too long and endured too much. I remember asking my sister to take the boys into the other room so they would not see them take me away. I looked up at the men in white. I wished they were angels there to take me to heaven. But heaven would be in my future now. I would have to face and accept my past. The greatest part is I would not have to do it alone. I was never alone.
