Love And Politics In Outer Space:

Love and Politics in Outer Space Harvey Stein, 1986 Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing Jennifer Leetsch, 2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds Outer Space in Society, Politics and Law Christian Brünner, Alexander Soucek, 2012-08-30

Spaceflight is a rational undertaking yet full of emotions It is a dream of mankind and a multi billion industry likewise It is subject to a distinct branch of law and moreover part of modern pop culture In short spaceflight is fascinating Outer Space in society politics and law is an inter disciplinary approach to the understanding of modern space law Technical cultural and historical aspects lay the foundation for a sound comprehension why space law norms have been established and what they mean in practice The reader will realize the impact space and spaceflight have on society from Stonehenge to climate change A new approach to presenting space law comprehensive and illustrative We live in a society absolutely dependent on science and technology and yet have cleverly arranged things so that almost no one understands science and technology That s a clear prescription for disaster Carl Sagan Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book s three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it

Sexual Politics and the Romantic Author Sonia

Hofkosh,1998-06-18 Exploring a range of early nineteenth century cultural materials from canonical poetry and critical prose to women s magazines and gift book engravings Sexual Politics and the Romantic Author offers new perspectives on the role of gender in Romanticism s defining paradigms of authorship The Romantic author s claim to individual agency is complicated by its articulation in a market system perceived to be impelled in large part by fantasies of female desire by what women read and write what they buy and sell how they look and where they look for pleasure These studies in the contested public spaces of literary labour elaborate the fundamental if invisible function of the woman as embodiment of authorial ambivalence in writing by Austen Byron Coleridge William Hazlitt Sarah Hazlitt Leigh Hunt Keats Mary Shelley William Wordsworth and others

Literature, Mapping, and the Politics of Space in Early Modern Britain Andrew Gordon, Bernhard Klein,2001-08-16 In this timely collection an international team of Renaissance scholars analyzes the material practice behind the concept of mapping a particular cognitive mode of gaining control over the world Ranging widely across visual and textual artifacts implicated in the culture of mapping from the literature of Shakespeare Spenser Marlowe and Jonson to representations of body city nation and empire Literature Mapping and the Politics of Space in Early Modern Britain argues for a thorough reevaluation of the impact of cartography on the shaping of social and political identities in early modern Britain

Global Modernities Mike Featherstone, Scott Lash, Roland Robertson,1995-06-05 Global Modernities is a sustained commentary on the international character of the most microcosmic practices It demonstrates how the global increasingly informs the regional so deconstructing ideas like the nation state and national sovereignty The spatialization of social theory hybridization and bio politics are among the critical issues discussed

Ethics and Politics of Space for the Anthropocene Anu Valtonen, Outi Rantala, Paolo D. Farah,2020-10-30

Featuring an international multidisciplinary set of contributors this thought provoking book reimagines established narratives of the Anthropocene to allow differences in regions and contexts to be taken seriously emphasising the importance of localised and situated knowledge It offers critical engagement with the debates around the Anthropocene by challenging the dominant techno rational agenda that often prevails in socio political and academic discussions

The Politics of Love Maxime Foerster,2018-04-03 What would love be if heterosexual couples were no longer assigned gender and sexual norms Maxime Foerster examines the heterosexual trouble between men and women in nineteenth century French Romantic and Decadent literature Key works by authors ranging from George Sand to Charles Baudelaire persistently demonstrate that heterosexuality did not work these authors and many others investigated the struggle that men and women alike waged against patriarchal norms Whereas Romantic fiction dedicated itself to the reinvention of love Decadence promoted sexual and gender deviance In expertly evaluating the discord afflicting fictional heterosexual couples male and female dandies and doctors and their female patients Foerster shows the crucial role that literature played in the fashioning of alternative identities A concluding look at Proust s la recherche du temps perdu traces the legacy of heterosexual trouble in the twentieth century Adriana Cavarero

Elisabetta R. Bertolino, 2017-12-04 Critical legal scholars have made us aware that law is made up not only of rules but also of language But who speaks the language of law And can one lawfully speak in one's voice For the Italian philosopher Adriana Cavarero to answer these questions we must not separate who is speaking from the very act of speaking moreover we must recuperate the material singularity and relationality of the mouth that speaks Drawing on Cavarero's work this book focuses on the potentiality of the voice for resisting law's sovereign structures For Cavarero it is the voice that expresses one's living and unrepeatable singularity in a way that cannot be subsumed by the universalities and standards of law The voice is essentially a material and singular passage of air and vibration that necessarily reveals one's uniqueness in relationality Speaking discloses this uniqueness and so one's vulnerability It therefore leads to possibilities of resistance that here bring a fresh approach to longstanding legal theoretical concerns with singularity ethics and justice Silent Cinema and the Politics of Space

Jennifer M. Bean, Anupama Kapse, Laura Horak, 2014-04-02 In this cross cultural history of narrative cinema and media from the 1910s to the 1930s leading and emergent scholars explore the transnational crossings and exchanges that occurred in early cinema between the two world wars Drawing on film archives from around the world this volume advances the premise that silent cinema freely crossed national borders and linguistic thresholds in ways that became far less possible after the emergence of sound These essays address important questions about the uneven forces geographic economic political psychological textual and experiential that underscore a non linear approach to film history The messiness of film history as demonstrated here opens a new realm of inquiry into unexpected political social and aesthetic crossings of silent cinema Politics of Security

Michael Dillon, 2002-01-31 In this critique of security studies with insights into the thinking of Heidegger Foucault Derrida Levinas and Arendt Michael Dillon contributes to the rethinking of some of the fundamentals of international politics developing what might be called a political philosophy of continental thought Drawing on the work of Martin Heidegger Politics of Security establishes the relationship between Heidegger's radical hermeneutical phenomenology and politics and the fundamental link between politics the tragic and the ethical It breaks new ground by providing an etymology of security tracing the word back to the Greek asphaleia not to trip up or fall down and a unique political reading of Oedipus Rex Michael Dillon traces the roots of desire for security to the metaphysical desire for certitude and points out that our way of seeking that security is embedded in 20th century technology thus resulting in a global crisis Politics of Security will be invaluable to both political theorists and philosophers and to anyone concerned with international relations continental philosophy or the work of Martin Heidegger Politics of the Possible

Kumkum Sangari, 2002 This collection of essays covers a broad range of disciplines to produce a work that rethinks relationships and divisions in gender geography class relations culture and much more to create a true politics of the possible Broadly emphasizing forms ideologies and class relations Sangari's essays crisscross and cohere around several themes the politics of social location and the connection between local metropolitan and colonial geographies as they bear on debates about the nature of knowledge the transnational and regional production of ideologies such as altruism under the aegis of colonialism ways of theorizing women's labour literacy and consent to patriarchal arrangements and dominant ideologies Sangari's analysis of Indian English and the relationships between literature and the non literary change the way we consider the divisions between the metropolitan and the sub continental In her discussion of capitalism and colonialism her egalitarian feminist viewpoint opens up and questions issues of cultural autonomy and hybridity She also critiques the impact of race caste class religion and misogyny on patriarchal ideology and its effect on women The politics of the possible mapped by these essays presents itself in several areas as a more sensitive feminist historiography as the social potential for secular activity in seemingly impossible situations in the historical possibilities that were offered by situations not doomed to inevitable outcomes and as the elements of resistance produced by the contradictions of different structures of oppression

The Politics of Self-Determination Timothy Leary, 2010-06-15 Visionary Harvard psychologist Timothy Leary became the charismatic leader of the 60s counterculture Remembered as a pioneer of research and experimentation with psychedelic substances he was also an author lecturer political dissident and media magnet whose wit and charm captured the world's attention In this collection of essays from Leary's early career he presents his concept of personal responsibility for the effects of one's behavior According to Leary self determining people don't blame their parents their race or their society they accept responsibility for their actions which in turn determines the responses they get from the world These writings had an enormous impact on the humanistic psychology movement and libertarian redefinition of the doctor patient relationship Ronin's new offering gives readers a fascinating glimpse into Leary's ground breaking work in this area Reflections on Architecture, Society and Politics Graham Cairns, 2016-10-04 Reflections on Architecture Society and Politics brings together a series of thirteen interview articles by Graham Cairns in collaboration with some of the most prominent polemic thinkers and critical practitioners from the fields of architecture and the social sciences including Noam Chomsky Peggy Deamer Robert A M Stern Daniel Libeskind and Kenneth Frampton Each chapter explores the relationship between architecture and socio political issues through discussion of architectural theories and projects citing specific issues and themes that have led to and will shape the various aspects of the current and future built environment Ranging from Chomsky's examination of the US Mexico border as the architecture of oppression to Robert A M Stern's defence of projects for the Disney corporation and George W Bush this book places politics at the center of issues within contemporary architecture The Politics of Praise William W. Young Iii, 2017-03-02 While the revelation of God's name is a central theological topic its ethical and political significance are often overlooked In a world filled with violence committed in the name of God how might invoking God's name enable peace community and hope The Politics of Praise argues that the redemptive potential of naming God lies in how this event transforms friendship It breaks new ground by tracing the connections between naming God and friendship in the work of Thomas Aquinas and Jacques Derrida Advancing an innovative reading of Aquinas on the divine names the book explores how Dionysius mysticism shapes Aquinas appropriation of Aristotle s ethics then retraces how Derrida s reading of religion renders possible an alternative conception of friendship These explorations lead to a surprising convergence between Aquinas and Derrida on the conditions of friendship Politics of Nostalgia in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang,2013-01-31 Explores the work of novelists including Naguib Mahfouz Abd al Khaliq al Rikabi Jamal al Ghitani Ben Salem Himmich Ali Mubarak Adonis Mahmoud Darwish and Nizar Qabbani to show how the development of the Arabic novel has created a politics of nostal Towards a Politics of Communion Anna Rowlands,2021-12-02 Anna Rowlands offers a guide to the main time periods key figures documents and themes of thinking developed as Catholic Social Teaching CST A wealth of material has been produced by the Catholic Church during its long history which considers the implications of scripture doctrine and natural law for the way these elements live together in community most particularly in the tradition of social encyclicals dating from 1891 Rowlands takes a fresh approach in weaving overviews of the central principles with the development of thinking on political community and democracy migration and integral ecology and by considering the increasingly critical questions concerning the role of CST in a pluralist and post secular context As such this book offers both an incisive overview of this distinctive body of Catholic political theology and a new and challenging contribution to the debate about the transformative potential of CST in contemporary society Latin Elegy and the Space of Empire Sara H. Lindheim,2021 This book explores the ways in which Latin poets of the late Republic and the Augustan Age participate in a new cultural preoccupation with the dramatically expanding geographical space of empire Feminist Perspectives on Public Law Susan Millns,Noel Whitty,2013-03-04 Feminist scholarship can provide public lawyers with the critical tools and insights to respond to these new challenges This collection begins a dialogue between public law and feminism by offering a range of perspectives on contemporary public law themes and topics
