Water Look Away Bob Hicok, 2023-08-22 Bob Hicok's Water Look Away is an experimental conversation with the highest and lowest facets of humanity. Once a man who sometimes wanted to kill himself loved a woman who sometimes wanted to live. In Bob Hicok's Water Look Away we witness a brilliant poet enter a dark space and attempt to write himself out again. Told in experimental forms from a range of perspectives: a wife who commits suicide, a husband left behind, this raw collection reads like a novella and wrestles with loss as it complicates the grief process. Working backwards from acceptance to explore depression and anger, heartbreak and remorse, often with great tenderness, Water Look Away offers pages of insight that will make you reach for a pen. Here poetry embalms a marriage, an experimental affair, a series of miscarriages, a red bed painted on a wall. When the retelling of their first meeting morphs from recounting to dreampage, Hicok asks: how long can we trust memory when those we love are no longer there to remember with us? These are not passive poems; period placement, unconventional spellings and neologisms invite an active reader who is prepared to question meaning and intention. A present collection written in the past tense, these lines make you want to hold your loved ones closer and prove that while this collection is no fairytale, it is still a love story of husband and wife of poetry and language. Within every poem is an undeniable love for words and a vulnerable appeal to individuals who share this affinity for language. I'm always reading. Turning the pages of your face. Dog-eared the way you smiled. Azez Medicine Fay Thompson, 2013-03 When Fay Thompson tapped into the star wisdom of Azez, little did she know her life would be transformed with healing messages of love and divine guidance as given to her by a group called The Beings of the Light. Azez Medicine describes Fay's very personal journey from emotional pain and self-criticism to one of emotional well-being and self-acceptance.
