Diary and Memoirs of an Incarcerated Granny Angela Lister,2022-02-07

The Diary and Memoirs of an Incarcerated Granny is a frank lockdown diary full of anecdotes musings reminiscences and irreverent commentary Author Angela Lister has looked at an unprecedented year through the prism of lockdown to produce a remarkable book that is both a diary and an autobiography She eloquently contrasts her incarceration at home during lockdown with memories of spending five years living in the Dordogne with her late husband James She combines charm warmth and a mischievous sense of humour in this candid and entertaining read The author s witty and vibrant pen covers subjects such as downsizing family friendships dogs called Poppy and Violet food politics and Zoom The Diary and Memoirs of an Incarcerated Granny is a cathartic romp through the seasons of a unique year In Angela s own words it s necessary to ensure that positive thoughts abound Educating for Redemptive Community Denise Janssen,2015-10-01 Jesus made claims about redemptive community throughout his ministry when he called people to extravagant grace Even in the midst of the oppression of his day Jesus preached and taught that redemptive community was possible if his followers would simply stop hoarding hiding and excluding What a prophetic word for today in the midst of modern day oppression and fears of scarcity In this edited volume in honor of religious education scholars Jack Seymour and Margaret Ann Crain eight of their PhD advisees each scholars in their own right join Seymour and Crain to lay out their vision of redemptive community Rooted in their own scholarship each contributor proposes ways in which Jesus vision of redemptive community can become reality in churches and congregations and in our larger world In addition to essays by Jack Seymour and Margaret Ann Crain scholars contributing to this volume include Dori Grinenko Baker Reginald Blount Evelyn L Parker Mai Anh Le Tran Leah Gunning Francis Carmichael Crutchfield Debora B A Junker and Denise Janssen The foreword by Mary Elizabeth Moore and afterword by Seymour and Crain set the volume in the larger context of the church and academy Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1929 Sex and Manners Cas Wouters,2004-09-01 This is a highly original and in many ways brilliant text It is a model of how historical process sociological research ought to be conducted and written up The author s subtle blending of theory and data is outstanding Eric Dunning Professor of Sociology University of Leicester Wouters has written a book both broad in scope and deep in analytic reach Exploring changes in courtship norms over the last century in English Dutch German and American books of manners he discovers changes which confirm the theory of informalization Relations between the sexes are he shows us less regulated from outside and more from inside This change calls paradoxically for both an emancipation of emotion and an ever sharper cultural eye on ways of managing emotion The book carries Elias s classic The Civilizing Process one giant step further An important contribution and a fascinating read Arlie Russell Hochschild University of California This dazzling book examines changes in American Dutch English and German manners regarding the changing relationships between men and women From the disappearance of rules for chaperonage and the rise of new codes for courting dates public dances and the work place it shows how women have become their own chaperone by gaining the rights to pay for themselves to have a job and be a sexual subject This original and thought provoking book provides empirical evidence showing how younger generations removed their courting from under parental wings and how the balance of power between the sexes shifted in women s favour monitors changes in codes regarding sexuality by focusing on the balance between the desire for sexual gratification and the longing for enduring intimacy documents the balance of controls over sexual impulses and emotions shifting from external social controls to internal ones compares nationally different trends particularly between the USA and Europe focusing on the American dating system and its resulting double standards argues that the initial greater freedom of American women has turned into a deficit Cas Wouters teaches Sociology at Utrecht University The Queens of Society Mrs. A.
