

Lost Love

Tell me young man
Why are you so numb?
You don't care if I die
Yet you tell me I'm dumb

My heart is shouting at your ear
You're so deaf that you can't hear
Now I'm paralyzed with fear
'Coz all things are so unclear

Why did you leave me for her?
Though she can't love you truly
Please come back my long lost love
And I'll cherish you dearly

Tonight if you're not back
I'll just cut my wrist and die
My heart will be as hard as rock
And I'll keep these feelings in a lie

life of a sailor a musician and a sculptor learning to compose their lives as a shared symphony or a celestial navigator and a terrestrial healer bridging cosmic distances each story highlights the transformative power of empathy compromise and unwavering support They face not only external adversities but also the delicate balance of individual aspirations within a partnership Yet through vulnerability open communication and the quiet strength of their shared commitment they discover that true love isn't about erasing differences but about embracing them allowing two distinct rhythms to combine into a single powerful and enduring beat This collection is a beautiful testament to the idea that love like a complex composition achieves its greatest beauty when two hearts beat as one

Inside My Mind Ron Hester,2012-03-22 Too many of us take too much for granted For example if we saw an old lady crossing the street many of us would look at her and say Well that's just an old lady or wouldn't think anything of her at all We don't stop to realize that the little old lady is someone's mother that she belongs to someone's family and that she means a lot to somebody We take too much for granted We let the little things that mean so much go by every day and once they are gone time never gives them back Concentrate on these things because they can bring so much to your life Take the time to thank your heavenly Father make family time husband time wife time children time listening time talking time caring time sharing time crying time peaceful time special time and last but not least giving time

The ^Almperial Trace Nancy Condee,2009-04-08 The collapse of the USSR seemed to spell the end of the empire yet it by no means marked the end of Russia's enduring imperial preoccupations extending over four and a half centuries since the reign of Ivan IV Is there such a thing as an imperial trace in Russia's contemporary culture Condee argues that we cannot make sense of contemporary Russian culture without accounting for its imperial legacy and mapping out the terms of such an analysis She turns to the instance of contemporary cinema to focus this line of inquiry Within film and implicitly other cultural fields as well do we limit our accounting to narrative evidence Chechen wars at the periphery historical costume dramas of court life or could an imperial trace be sought in other more embedded ways in the manner and structure or representation the conditions of productions the recurrent preoccupations of its leading filmmakers the ways in which collective belonging is figured or disfigured This book organizes these questions around the work of Russia's internationally ranked auteurs of the late Soviet and post Soviet period Kira Muratova Vadim Abdrashitov Nikita Mikhalkov Aleksei German and Aleksandr Sokurov
