Love Me Tonight:

Mamoulian Tom Milne, 2019-07-25 The great Armenian American director Rouben Mamoulian 1897 1987 remains a favourite among film makers his films combining great technical originality with a uniquely poetic visual style Mamoulian s technical innovations are evident from his first film Applause 1923 in which he incorporated two separate soundtracks into one printing thus overcoming the difficulty of sound levels which had frustrated the pioneer directors of talkies and in Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde 1931 in which he used synthetic sound painted directly onto the soundtrack Such inventive solutions to film making challenges were linked to Mamoulian s abiding sense of the magic of the cinema He used colour as a dramatic ingredient in the first three strip Technicolour film Becky Sharp 1935 and his musicals Summer Holiday 1948 and Silk Stockings 1957 were remarkable in their time for the way in which the dance was used to enhance the drama and to illuminate character And for Garbo in Queen Christina 1933 he created the framework for her greatest role Tom Milne s classic study first published in 1969 provides a film by film analysis of Mamoulian s career and challenges widespread critical assumptions about the director s oeuvre In his foreword to this new edition Geoff Andrew recognises Milne s careful and insightful analysis of Mamoulian s expressive and imaginative style and asks whether this unique director ought to be considered as an auteur Andrew also pays tribute to Milne s elegant witty and eclectic critical style and hails him as one the most important and influential British writers on film TOM MILNE 1926 2005 was a leading British film critic contributing to Sight Sound the Monthly Film Bulletin The Observer The Financial Times and The Times during his career During the 1960s he worked at the British Film Institute as Associate Editor of Sight Sound and Editor of The Monthly Film Bulletin His other publications include a monograph on Joseph Losey 1967 a short study on the Danish director Carl Theodor Dreyer 1971 and an anthology of interviews and writings on Jean Luc Godard 1972 that he edited and translated Foreword by GEOFF ANDREW Head of Film Programme at BFI Southbank UK and the author of several books including Nicholas Ray Poet of Nightfall BFI 2004 and in the BFI Film Classics series volumes on Kieslowski s Three Colours Trilogy and Kiarostami s 10

Mamoulian David Lührssen, 2013-01-25 An Armenian national raised in Russia Rouben Mamoulian 1897 1987 studied in the influential Stanislavski studio renowned as the source of the method acting technique Shortly after immigrating to New York in 1926 he created a sensation with an all black production of Porgy 1927 He then went on to direct the debut Broadway productions of three of the most popular shows in the history of American musical theater Porgy and Bess 1935 Oklahoma 1943 and Carousel 1945 Mamoulian began working in film just as the sound revolution was dramatically changing the technical capabilities of the medium and he quickly established himself as an innovator Not only did many of his unusual camera techniques become standard but he also invented a device that eliminated the background noises created by cameras and dollies Seen as a rebel earlier in his career Mamoulian gradually gained respect in Hollywood and the Directors Guild of America awarded him the prestigious D W Griffith Award for Lifetime Achievement in 1983 In this meticulously researched biography David Lührssen paints the influential director as a socially conscious artist who sought to successfully combine art and commercial entertainment Lührssen not only reveals the fascinating personal story of an important yet neglected figure but he also offers a tantalizing glimpse into the extraordinarily vibrant American film and theater industries during the twenties thirties and forties

Defining Cinema Michael Slowik, 2024 Defining Cinema Rouben Mamoulian and Hollywood Film Style 1929-1957 takes a holistic look at Mamoulian's oeuvre by examining both his stage and his screen work and also brings together insights from his correspondence his theories on film and analysis of the films themselves It presents a filmmaker whose work was innovative and exciting who pushed hard on cinema's potential as an artform and who in many ways helped move cinema towards the kind of entertainment that it remains today

Stars, Studios, and the Musical Theatre Screen Adaptation Dominic Broomfield-McHugh, 2023 The final of three volumes Stars Studios and the Musical Theatre Screen Adaptation An Oxford Handbook traces how stardom and technology has affected the evolution of the genre of the stage to screen musical Many chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth with case studies on the screen versions of Broadway favorites Carousel and Brigadoon while others deal with broad issues such as how music rights affected how studios approached screen adaptations Together the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies

After the Silents Michael Slowik, 2014-10-07 Many believe Max Steiner's score for King Kong 1933 was the first important attempt at integrating background music into sound film but a closer look at the industry's early sound era 1926-1934 reveals a more extended and fascinating story Viewing more than two hundred films from the period Michael Slowik launches the first comprehensive study of a long neglected phase in Hollywood's initial development recasting the history of film sound and its relationship to the Golden Age of film music 1935-1950 Slowik follows filmmakers shifting combinations of sound and image recapturing the volatility of this era and the variety of film music strategies that were tested abandoned and kept He explores early film music experiments and accompaniment practices in opera melodrama musicals radio and silent films and discusses the impact of the advent of synchronized dialogue He concludes with a reassessment of King Kong and its groundbreaking approach to film music challenging the film's place and importance in the timeline of sound achievement

Your Own Song To Sing Saverio, 2010-05-25 AUTHOR UP CLOSE I have been a contractor most of my adult life This is actually a second career for me Hopefully you have enjoyed many of my lyrics in this book Some words I spelled wrong on purpose I guess you know that by now I did so the end of the word would have the effect I wanted many lyricists do that If by chance there are others then shame on me and my spell check Grammar never was my best subject I'm married with six children and nine grandchildren Working in any form has been my many hobbies This is my first edition of Your Own Song to Sing I will be doing additional editions probably one a year for the next four or five years Without writing any new material I have enough to fill that many books and yes I m still writing Again I surely hope to see some of you that use my lyrics if not on center stage when the awards come around Meanwhile All Stay Well SAVERIO

The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen

Adaptations Dominic McHugh,2019-06-14 Hollywood s conversion to sound in the 1920s created an early peak in the film musical following the immense success of The Jazz Singer The opportunity to synchronize moving pictures with a soundtrack suited the musical in particular since the heightened experience of song and dance drew attention to the novelty of the technological development Until the near collapse of the genre in the 1960s the film musical enjoyed around thirty years of development as landmarks such as The Wizard of Oz Meet Me in St Louis Singin in the Rain and Gigi showed the exciting possibilities of putting musicals on the silver screen The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen Adaptations traces how the genre of the stage to screen musical has evolved starting with screen adaptations of operettas such as The Desert Song and Rio Rita and looks at how the Hollywood studios in the 1930s exploited the publication of sheet music as part of their income Numerous chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth including not only favorites such as Annie and Kiss Me Kate but also some of the lesser known titles like Li l Abner and Roberta and problematic adaptations such as Carousel and Paint Your Wagon Together the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies

Best Picture Laurence E. MacDonald,2024-02-19 About the Book This book is a fascinating look at the history of the Oscars that dates back to 1927 Every Best Picture winner is profiled in the book Although there have been many books listing the Oscar winners there has never been one like this that looks in depth at every film that has been awarded the Oscar for Best Picture The author evaluates each film and then presents at the end of each article his personal choice for the year s best film In about two third of the films he selects a Best Picture that is different from the Academy Award winner He also includes sections of Memorable Moments that make each film special The book will be of great value to movie fans but it will also be enjoyable to anyone who has ever wondered what the fuss is about when a film is awarded Best Picture About the Author Laurence E MacDonald is a Professor Emeritus from Mott Community College in Flint Michigan where he taught music history literature appreciation film music and private piano study He is also a former church choir director and author of several books including The Invisible Art of Film Music and 100 Greatest Film Scores MacDonald is a performing member and newsletter editor of the St Cecilia Society of Flint He is also former music critic of the Flint Journal and film reviewer of Michael Moore s newspaper the Flint Voice For over twenty years he hosted Music from Movies which ran weekly on Flint s public radio station WFBE MacDonald has six children three of whom are Catholic priests and avid movie fans He has been married to Carolyn McDonough since 2013 Together they have worked to update an old colonial home in Flint s East Village neighborhood and have recently adopted a fun loving beagle named Emmy who also likes old movies Paris and the Musical Olaf Jubin,2021-03-17 Paris and the Musical explores how the famous city has been portrayed on stage and screen investigates why the city has been of such importance to the genre and tracks how it has developed as a trope over the 20th and 21st centuries From global hits An American in Paris Gigi Les Mis rables Moulin Rouge and The Phantom of the Opera to the less widely known Bless the Bride Can Can Irma la Douce and Marguerite the French capital is a central character in an astounding number of Broadway Hollywood and West End musicals This collection of 18 essays combines cultural studies sociology musicology art and adaptation theory and gender studies to examine the envisioning and dramatisation of Paris and its depiction as a place of romance hedonism and libertinism or as the capital of the arts The interdisciplinary nature of this collection renders it as a fascinating resource for a wide range of courses it will be especially valuable for students and scholars of Musical Theatre and those interested in Theatre and Film History more generally 100 Film Musicals Douglas

Pye, Jim Hillier, 2019-07-25 From the coming of sound to the 1960s the musical was central to Hollywood production Exhibiting often in spectacular fashion the remarkable resources of the Hollywood studios musicals came to epitomise the very idea of light entertainment Films like Top Hat and 42nd Street Meet Me in St Louis and On the Town Singin in the Rain and Oklahoma West Side Story and The Sound of Music were hugely popular yet were commonly regarded by cultural commentators as trivial and escapist It was the 1970s before serious study of the Hollywood musical began to change critical attitudes and foster an interest in musical films produced in other cultures Hollywood musicals have become less common but the genre persists and both academic interest in and fond nostalgia for the musical shows no signs of abating 100 Film Musicals provides a stimulating overview of the genre s development its major themes and the critical debates it has provoked While centred on the dominant Hollywood tradition 100 Film Musicals includes films from countries that often tried to emulate the Hollywood style like Britain and Germany as well as from very different cultures like India Egypt and Japan Jim Hillier and Douglas Pye also discuss post 1960s films from many different sources which adapt and reflect on the conventions of the genre including recent examples such as Moulin Rouge and High School Musical demonstrating that the genre is still very much alive Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1946 America's Film Legacy Daniel Eagan, 2010-01-01 Collection of the five hundred films that have been selected to date for preservation by the National Film Preservation Board and are thereby listed in the National Film Registry The Bridgemen's Magazine ,1910
