Luftwaffe Its Rise Fall:

Military Innovation in the Interwar Period Williamson R. Murray, Allan R. Millett, 1998-08-13 In 1914 the armies and navies that faced each other were alike right down to the strengths of their companies and battalions and the designs of their battleships and cruisers Differences were of degree rather than essence During the interwar period however the armed forces grew increasingly asymmetrical developing different approaches to the same problems This study of major military innovations in the 1920s and 1930s explores differences in exploitation by the seven major military powers The comparative essays investigate how and why innovation occurred or did not occur and explain much of the strategic and operative performance of the Axis and Allies in World War II The essays focus on several instances of how military services developed new technology and weapons and incorporated them into their doctrine organization and styles of operations Air power and warfare United States Air Force Academy. Library, 1978 Special Bibliographic Series US Army Military History Research Collection, 1978 Case studies in the achievement of air superiority, Rise and Fall of the German Air Force (1933 to 1945), Air Ministry, 2018-12-02 Written by British intelligence officers in 1948 RISE AND FALL OF THE GERMAN AIR FORCE offers a unique insider's view of Germany's extraordinary military machine Drawing upon records and documents captured from the Luftwaffe archives and elsewhere it describes the Air Force's principal campaigns achievements and operational problems as well as the political tensions that ultimately became its undoing It also explores the powerful personalities behind the service especially the relationship between Hitler and Goering and the impact on the Luftwaffe of the German Supreme Command Illustrated with original photographs and maps this fascinating contemporary account shows how and why a military phenomenon was brought to defeat Pre War policy and preparations 1919 1939 The German Air Force on the offensive 1939 1942 The Turn of the Tide 1943 1944 Decline and Fall of the German Air Force 1944 1945 Born of the spirit of the German airmen in the First World War inspired by faith in our Führer and Commander in Chief thus stands the German Air Force today ready to carry out every command of the Führer with lightning speed and undreamed of might Hermann Goering 1939 Journal of the United States Artillery, 1943 Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy.
