Herrstrom, 2017-09-26 This book is an interdisciplinary synthesis and interpretation about the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from Paleolithic to Roman times Humanistic in spirit and in its handling of facts it marshals a substantial body of scholarship to develop an explication of light as a central even dramatic reality of human existence and experience in diverse cultural settings David S Herrstrom underscores our intimacy with light not only its constant presence in our life but its insinuating character Focusing on our encounters with light and ways of making sense of these this book is concerned with the personal and cultural impact of light exploring our resistance to and acceptance of light Its approach is unique The book s true subject is the individual s relationship with light rather than the investigation of light s essential nature It tells the story of light seducing individuals down through the ages Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions to it as reflected in art Paleolithic through Roman architecture Egyptian Grecian Roman mythology and religion Paleolithic Egyptian and literature e g Akhenaten Plato Aeschylus Lucretius John the Evangelist

Plotinus and Augustine This book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light s character No individual experience of light is truer than any other none improves on any previous experience of light s tidal pull on us And the wondrous variety of these encounters has yielded a richly layered tapestry of human experience By its broad scope and interdisciplinary approach this pioneering book is without precedent The Two Worlds ,1926 Our Hidden Landscapes Lucianne Lavin,Elaine Thomas,2023-10-31 Challenging traditional and long standing understandings this volume provides an important new lens for interpreting stone structures that had previously been attributed to settler colonialism Instead the contributors to this volume argue that these locations are sacred Indigenous sites This volume introduces readers to eastern North America s Indigenous ceremonial stone landscapes CSLs sacred sites whose principal identifying characteristics are built stone structures that cluster within specific physical landscapes Our Hidden Landscapes presents these often unrecognized sites as significant cultural landscapes in need of protection and preservation In this book Native American authors provide perspectives on the cultural meaning and significance of CSLs and their characteristics while professional archaeologists and anthropologists provide a variety of approaches for better understanding protecting and preserving them The chapters present overwhelming evidence in the form of oral tradition historic documentation ethnographies and archaeological research that these important sites created and used by Indigenous peoples are deserving of protection This work enables archaeologists historians conservationists foresters and members of the general public to recognize these important ritual sites Contributors Nohham Rolf Cachat Schilling Robert DeFosses James Gage Mary Gage Doug Harris Julia A King Lucianne Lavin Johannes Jannie H N Loubser Frederick W Martin Norman Muller Charity Moore Norton Paul A Robinson Laurie W Rush Scott M Strickland Elaine Thomas Kathleen Patricia Thrane Matthew Victor Weiss *The Protoplast.
