Luminous Trail Through The Wilderness:

A Luminous Trail Through the Wilderness Pat Vivian, 2000-11-01 Descriptive copy pending receipt of title at Poets House

In the Lurch Sahil, 2014-02-14 Tom was raised with a strong moral foundation set in place by his parents. He is like any other pious God-fearing son. But as his world crashes around him, he chooses to veer from the way he was raised and let his instincts take control. He lets power go to his head and, feeling invincible, he acts out in hatred and revenge, trying to prove something to himself. Feeling deeply insecure and hurt, he feels he has no choice but to hurt back. In the Lurch tells how Tom's life changes as he matures. After losing himself, he finds his way back through all the chaos. The burdens on his shoulder make him learn about sacrifice and the purpose of living. But is he a god or a devil in the making? This incisive novel shows the ripple effects of decisions and their consequences. The author advises not to think of it as a story where you are being preached to, rather think of the protagonist and his wrong decisions in life as a means to learn from his mistakes so that you don't make your own. And always know that you can learn from others' mistakes. Sahil is a professional writer in India. He has travelled a great deal throughout his country and has observed how God and the devil are interpreted in different religions. He was inspired to write this book by the wars, the rapes, molestation, death, and insecurity around the world. How fragile we humans are and how careless we are about our own fragile nature.

A Radiant Life Nuala O'Faolain, 2011-03-01 Writings from the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Are You Somebody on topics from Catholicism to feminism to Irish American culture and more. Curious and funny, tender and scathing, Nuala O'Faolain's columns in the Irish Times were never less than trenchant and always passionate. Through the prism of casual everyday encounters, O'Faolain digs into her subjects in ways that transcend topicality. Taken together, her years of commentary form a historical narrative, a chronicle of Ireland's transformation by one of its sharpest observers and canniest critics. Covering a vast array of subjects, A Radiant Life includes more than seventy entries showcasing the unequivocal voice of Nuala O'Faolain, hailed by Irish Times literary editor Fintan O'Toole as one of the greatest columnists to ever inhabit the English language. O'Faolain writes with such precision and individuality that she could make the copy on the back of a cornflakes packet compelling. The Guardian on Almost There.

Trial by Trail Johnny Molloy, 1996 Nine million visitors come to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park each year, but few unfortunately have time to enjoy fully the challenges and pleasures, the opportunities for reflection and inner growth that the park's wild and beautiful backcountry offers. Trial by Trail chronicles the odyssey of one man who over time discovered the deeper riches to be found within the park's boundaries. In fourteen lively personal essays, Johnny Molloy describes the adventures by which he came of age as a backpacker. Born a flatlander in Memphis, he first visited the Smokies while attending the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, in the 1980s. Initially, he treated the park as a personal playground, a place to cut loose, break rules, and act irresponsibly. After many hiking excursions, however, he gained a more profound appreciation of the mountains, becoming an avid park volunteer intent on the protection and improvement of the area. He grew as he puts it
