Part 4. Bibliography, Indices, Addenda* Duncan Fishwick, 2005-09-01 This volume concludes the series with an apparatus The list of Abbreviated Titles comprises all Abbreviations used throughout the four Parts while the Bibliography consolidates the books and articles cited in the four sets of References The intention of the various Indices is to let the reader find his way about the text in one way or another whereas the main focus of the Addenda is on publications that were either earlier missed or as in most cases appeared too late to be included at the appropriate stage of the text Lastly the list of errata in the Corrigenda consists mostly of typographical errors that escaped notice in the original manuscript Print Prices Current, 1924 Being a complete alphabetical record of all engravings and etchings sold by auction in London each item annotated with the date of sale and price realised Dictionary Catalog of the Henry W. and Albert A. Berg Collection of English and American Literature Berg Collection, 1969 Hispanojewish Archaeology (2 vols.) Alexander Bar-Magen Numhauser, 2021-05-25 In Hispanojewish Archaeology Alexander Bar Magen Numhauser provides the first book length archaeological exploration of the Jewish presence in late antique and early medieval Hispania Using epigraphic numismatic architectural and other archaeological remains this volume describes the multiple cultural expressions of a vibrant Jewish community that emerged as part of the Mediterranean Diaspora becoming part of the wider Hispanian society Part of this review includes a detailed examination of the Ilici Elche Spain basilical building interpreted by previous scholars as both a church and a synagogue using published and hitherto unpublished material of its decades long excavation From the archaeological remains of this Hispanojewish presence a new picture emerges challenging the traditional premises of the archaeological research on the late antique western Mediterranean Communal Dining in the Roman West Shanshan Wen, 2022-06-27 Communal Dining in in the Roman West explores why the practice of privately sponsored communal dining gained popularity in certain parts of the Western Roman Empire for almost 300 years This book brings together 350 Latin inscriptions to examine the benefactors and beneficiaries the geographical and chronological distributions and the relationship between public and collegial dining practices It argues that food related euergetism was a region specific phenomenon which was rooted in specific social and political cultures in the communities of Italy Baetica and Africa Proconsularis The region specific differences in political cultures and long term changes in these cultures are key to understanding not only the long persistence of this practice but also its ultimate disappearance Encyclopedia of Ancient Natural Scientists Paul T. Keyser,Georgia L.

Irby-Massie,2008-11-19 The Encyclopedia of Ancient Natural Scientists is the first comprehensive English language work to provide a survey of all ancient natural science from its beginnings through the end of Late Antiquity A team of over 100 of the world s experts in the field have compiled this Encyclopedia including entries which are not mentioned in any other reference work resulting in a unique and hugely ambitious resource which will prove indispensable for anyone seeking the details of the history of ancient science Additional features include a Glossary Gazetteer and Time Line The Glossary explains many Greek or Latin terms difficult to translate whilst the Gazetteer describes the many locales from which scientists came The Time Line shows the rapid rise in the practice of science in the 5th century BCE and rapid decline after Hadrian due to the centralization of Roman power with consequent loss of a context within which science could flourish
