Lutes and Marginality in Pre-Modern China Ingrid Maren Furniss, 2024-07-23 Lutes and Marginality in Pre Modern China traces the complex history of lutes as they moved from the far west into China and how these instruments became linked to various forms of social cultural ethnic and religious marginality within and at China's borders The book argues that the lute a musical instrument that likely originated in the Near East or Central Asia became a highly charged object replete with associations of ethnic and political identity social status and gender in China across the third to seventeenth centuries and as such offers a crucial vehicle for understanding interactions between the Chinese center and periphery Using a richly interdisciplinary perspective that brings together music history performance studies archaeology and art history the author draws together the visual evidence for the history of Chinese lutes and analyzes the political and cultural dimensions of their depictions in art In exploring the lute's reception across time and space this book illuminates the shifting relationships between China and cultures along its frontier as well as the dynamics of gender and social status within China's center Comprehensive in scope Lutes and Marginality in Pre Modern China offers new insights for scholars of pre modern China art history archaeology music history ethnomusicology and Silk Road and frontier studies Stars of the Desert Laurence Hope, 1906 Stars of the desert [verse] by Laurence Hope Adela Florence Nicolson, 1903 Handbook of Guitar and Lute Composers Hannu Annala, Heiki Matlik, 2010-10-07 In compiling this landmark sourcebook Finnish guitarists Hannu Annala and Heiki Matlik consulted more than 70 music texts as well as dozens of composer resumes acquired from the musical information centers of several countries During the writing process which lasted for more than three years they received additional information from many modern composers including Leo Brouwer and Reginald Smith Brindle among others In addition several internationally renowned performing guitarists provided valuable information these include Magnus Andersson Sweden Remi Boucher Canada Margarita Escarpa Spain Aleksander Frauchi Russia and David Tanenbaum USA among others The authors aim was to write a well structured book with separate chapters for each instrument such as the Renaissance and Baroque guitar the Renaissance and Baroque lute the vihuela etc This unique structure enables the reader to easily discover which composers wrote for a certain instrument during any given period In addition to the composers one would expect to find in such a comprehensive listing the book documents several historical and modern composers for whom little previous information has been available the book's list of more than 400 guitar and lute concertos dating from the Baroque era to the present day is a totally unprecedented Short introductions regarding guitar and lute like instruments as well as their basic histories are provided at the beginning of the book the authors hope that the Handbook of Guitar and Lute Composers will serve as a practical guide for both amateurs and professionals encouraging further study of the history of these instruments and expanding the repertoire heard on today's concert stage Attending to Early Modern Women Susan Dwyer Amussen, Adele F. Seeff, 1998 This volume continues and amplifies a series of conversations initiated in 1990 at the conference Attending to Women in Early Modern England sponsored by the University of Maryland's Center for Renaissance and Baroque Studies on the College Park campus The volume celebrates the work of the almost 400 scholars who contributed as plenary speakers workshop leaders and participants to Attending to Early Modern Women held in April 1994 once again at the University of Maryland at College
