The ^AFlesh of the Word K.J. Drake, 2021-04-13 The Flesh of the Word explores how disputes between Ulrich

Zwingli and Martin Luther over the nature of Christ's body crystalized into a lasting distinction between the Lutheran and Reformed branches of Protestantism. Reformed theologians articulated a view called the extra Calvinisticum that the eternal Son maintains his existence beyond the flesh during his earthly ministry and perpetually. The book investigates how this doctrine that Christ exist both wholly within and wholly beyond his human flesh developed from its first articulation by Zwingli to the end of the sixteenth century and how this affected the Reformed understanding of Christ. Theological Quarterly, 1906

Luther's Epistle of Straw Jason D. Lane, 2017-11-07 This work challenges the common consensus that Luther with his commitment to St Paul's articulation of justification by faith leaves no room for the Letter of St James. Against this one-sided reading of Luther focused only his criticism of the letter, this book argues that Luther had fruitful interpretations of the epistle that shaped the subsequent exegetical tradition. Scholarship's singular concentration on Luther's criticism of James as an epistle of straw has caused many to overlook Luther's sermons on James, the many places where James comes to full expression in Luther's writings and the influence that Luther's biblical interpretation had on later interpretations of James. Based primarily on neglected Lutheran sermons in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, this work examines the pastoral hermeneutic of Luther and his theological heirs as they heard the voice of James and communicated that voice to and for the sake of the church. Scholars, pastors and educated laity alike are invited to discover how Luther's theology was shaped by the Epistle of James and how Luther's students and theological heirs aimed to preach this disputed letter fruitfully to their hearers. Kierkegaard and Luther David Lawrence Coe, 2020-07-09 Søren Kierkegaard denounced nineteenth-century Danish Lutheranism for exploiting Martin Luther's doctrine of justification without works as justification for an antinomian easy life. Kierkegaard saw his own writing as a corrective. I have wanted to prevent people in Christendom from existentially taking in vain Luther and the significance of Luther's life. In 1847 Kierkegaard began an eight-year reading of Luther's sermons, forking through them for extracts to confirm his theological corrective rather than to comprehend the breadth of Luther's thought. While he found much to laud, Kierkegaard also found much to lance, privately commenting that Luther was partially responsible for what he considered the problematic Lutheranism of his own day. Furthermore, David Coe argues Kierkegaard was unaware that his copy of Luther's church and house postils was a heavily abridged edition of extracts from those postils. Therefore, his appraisal of Luther begs to be investigated. Kierkegaard and Luther examines the Luther sermons Kierkegaard read, what he praised and criticized, missed and misjudged of Luther, and spotlights the concord these two Lutheran giants actually shared, namely the negative yet necessary role that Christian suffering (Anfechtung) plays in Christian faith and life.

Pless, 2025-10-14 James Arne Nestingen 1945-2022 was a beloved pastor seminary professor and most of all a confessor and preacher of the Gospel of Jesus After he retired from teaching church history at Luther Seminary in Saint Paul Nestingen taught at Saint Paul Lutheran Seminary and was a guest lecturer at Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne and at the seminary of the Mekane Yesus Church in Addis Ababa He was a senior scholar in residence for 1517 and was in demand as a conference speaker He was an active participant in the formation of the North American Lutheran Church NALC and served as a representative of that church body on the official dialogue between the NALC the Lutheran Church Canada and The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod He will be remembered for his passion for clear Gospel preaching his incisive theology and his Midwestern Norwegian humor The essays in The Essential Nestingen Essays on Preaching Catechism and the Reformation represent his scholarly but at the same accessible work in these three areas of his research and teaching Spanning over three decades of his ministry as a teacher of the church these essays find a common focus in Christ who is the end of the law for righteousness Romans 10:4 They remain timely and serve not only as a testimony to Nestingen's erudite scholarship but as a resource for the edification for a new generation of both pastors and lay people who share Nestingen's passion for handing over the goods that he found in Luther and the Lutheran Confessions
