Trans-Europe Express Owen Hatherley,2018-06-07 A scathing lively and timely look at the European city from one of our most provocative voices on culture and architecture today Owen Jones A searching timely account of the condition of contemporary Europe told through the landscapes of its cities Over the past twenty years European cities have become the envy of the world a Kraftwerk Utopia of historic centres supermodernist concert halls imaginative public spaces and futuristic egalitarian housing estates which interconnected by high speed trains traversing open borders have a combination of order and pleasure which is exceptionally unusual elsewhere In Trans Europe Express Owen Hatherley sets out to explore the European city across the entire continent to see what exactly makes it so different to the Anglo Saxon norm the unplanned car centred developer oriented spaces common to the US Ireland UK and Australia Attempting to define the European city Hatherley finds a continent divided both within the EU and outside it The latest heir to Ruskin Boyd Tonkin Independent Hatherley is the most informed opinionated and acerbic guide you could wish for Hugh Pearman Sunday Times Can one talk yet of vintage Hatherley Yes one can Here are all the properties that have made him one of the most distinctive writers in England not just architectural writers but writers full stop acuity contrariness observational rigour frankness and beautifully wrought prose Jonathan Meades Ukrainian Postcards Owen Hatherley,2022-04-05 An ebook on the threatened built environment of urban Ukraine with all proceeds going to the CWU s Ukraine fund and Artists at Risk This is a short limited edition ebook with all proceeds being divided between the Communication Workers Union s Humanitarian Fund for Ukraine and Artists at Risk s Ukraine appeal Today during Russia s imperialist war on Ukraine everyone is talking about this large beautiful and multicultural country but when doing so they re often repeating some poorly understood cliches and myths Ukrainian Postcards written firmly from the political left draws on the author s writings on the modern architecture of various Ukrainian cities written between 2010 and 2020 to build up a picture of a country that could one day be a model of how to live with a difficult past and a multicultural present but which has been consistently undermined by politicians who use it as a cashbox and above all a neighbour who uses it as punchbag Above all at a time when Ukraine s architectural heritage is literally under threat shelled and bombed by the Russian air force day in day out it outlines just how valuable and special this country s buildings are and how much we stand to lose with their destruction A Piece of Her Heart Carpey Sissy Carpey,Sissy Carpey,2009 My bubbe s house was filled with photos of all the children and grandchildren she would not count The photo gallery was a mirror of the life cycle of the family The lost family the family in Russia was frozen in the moment of the only portrait we had That photo stood by itself on a small window sill at the right corner of the dining room To us they were always a little girl a little boy and two young parents all of them staring somberly at us None of them were included in the count of not one not two of my grandmother s children and grandchildren Why didn t my mother and her siblings talk about their lost sister in all the years of my childhood How could my grandmother have tucked away the memory of the daughter who was her first child How could she see that photo every day and yet never speak of Frayda They especially my grandmother must have buried her deep within their hearts so that they could cope with the sorrow the loss and the guilt of being safe in America Guide-book to the Soviet Union Sándor Radó,1928
