B. Campbell,2012 Figuring in myth religion law the military commerce and transportation rivers were at the heart of Rome s increasing exploitation of the environment of the Mediterranean world In Rivers and the Power of Ancient Rome Brian Campbell explores Le Corbusier. Le Couvent Sainte Marie de La Tourette / The Monastery of Sainte Marie de La Tourette Philippe Potié,2015-04-24 in 1952 Le Corbusier was commissioned to dwell in the silence of men of prayer and study and to construct a church for them The result was his impressive Convent of La Tourette marking a significant step in modern religious architecture Beginning with the rectangular form common to the Cistercian monastic tradition he created a building whose stark form contrasts beautifully with the organic elements of the interior court and the grasslands surrounding it The church itself is a model of simplicity the cement has been left rough and the well located sources of light evoke a feeling of silence and reflection The order s precept of prayer study and reflection is aptly mirrored in the architecture Like the other Le Corbusier Guides published by Birkh user this volume provides a wealth of plans details
