state of postethnicity which the book argues has come to characterize the global culture of our times Hwa Yol Jung brings together prominent contemporary thinkers including Thich Nhat Hanh Edward Said and Judith Butler to address this fundamental and important aspect of comparative political theory The book is divided into three parts Part One demythologizes Eurocentrism deconstructing the privilege of modern Europe as the world's cultural scientific religious and moral capital Part Two traces the rise of Asian thought and the process of East West cultural hybridization while Part Three introduces the concept of the global citizen Jung's anthology reveals a postmodern multiculturalism whose new philosophical matrix transgresses the existing cultural and intellectual typology to offer new understanding of today's pluralistic world
