Lyrics From Arabia:

Music in Arabia Issa Boulos, Virginia Danielson, Anne K. Rasmussen, 2021-09-07 Music in Arabia extends and challenges existing narratives of the region's distinctive but understudied music to reveal diverse and dynamic music cultures rooted in centuries-old heritage. Contributors to Music in Arabia bring a critical eye and ear to the contemporary soundscape, musical life, and expressive culture in the Gulf region. Including work by leading scholars and local authorities, this collection presents fresh perspectives and new research addressing why musical expression is fundamental to the area's diverse transnational communities. The volume also examines music circulation as a commodity, such as with the production of early recordings, the transnational music industry, the context of the Arab Spring, and the region's popular music markets. As a bonus, readers can access a linked website containing audiovisual examples of the music, dance, and expressive culture introduced throughout the book. With the work of resident scholars and heritage practitioners in conversation with that of researchers from the United States and Europe, Music in Arabia offers both context and content to clarify how music articulates identity and nation among multiethnic, multiracial, and multinational populations.

Animation Maureen Furniss, 2009-10-05 Animation Art and Industry is an introductory reader covering a broad range of animation studies topics, focusing on both American and international contexts. It provides information about key individuals in the fields of both independent and experimental animation and introduces a variety of topics relevant to the critical study of media censorship, representations of gender and race, and the relationship between popular culture and fine art. Essays span the silent era to the present, include new media such as web animation and gaming, and address animation made using a variety of techniques.

Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia, Volume 1: Poetry of ad-Dindan Marcel Kurpershoek, 2022-06-27 This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry by ad-Dindan, a Bedouin poet of the Duwsi tribe in southern Najd, transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings. The text is representative of a poetic tradition which has remained remarkably close to the desert poetry of the early classical age. An extensive glossary, including detailed cross-references to the classical Arabic vocabulary, completes this edition. The introduction describes Dindan's somewhat anomalous position in local society as a result of his stubborn attachment to nomadism, his fierce artistic temper, and his unreconstructed Bedouin ethos. It also discusses the composition of oral poetry, the dwsi themes, and its place in the Najdi tradition, the impact of literacy on the poet's oral work, and the prosodic and linguistic features of the text.

The Literature of Arabia Various, 2019-12-16 The Literature of Arabia is a comprehensive anthology that traverses the rich and diverse landscape of Arabic literary expression, showcasing works that date from the pre-Islamic era to contemporary times. This collection encompasses poetry, prose, and drama, illuminating the literary styles that have evolved within the socio-political context of Arab societies. The editors employ a critical literary lens, weaving cultural, historical, and linguistic threads to illuminate the nuances of themes such as love, politics, and identity, offering readers a profound understanding of Arabian literary traditions. The compendium brings together various esteemed scholars and writers each contributing insights rooted in their rich cultural heritages and academic backgrounds. These contributors have often specialized in Arabic literature history or cultural studies drawing from personal experiences and extensive research that resonate with the text's broad narratives. Their synthesis not only honors ancient texts but also reveals the continuity and transformation of themes across centuries, emphasizing the enduring relevance of Arabian literature in a modern context. This anthology is highly recommended for scholars, students, and anyone interested in the intricate tapestry of Arabic literature. It serves as an essential reference for understanding the complexities of Arabic literary traditions and their global influences, enticing readers to explore the profound stories and voices that have shaped the Arabian literary landscape.

Oral poetry and narratives from Central Arabia. 1. The poetry of ad-Dindān P. M. Kurpershoek, 1993-12-31. This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry of a bedouin poet in Central Arabia transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings, an extensive glossary, and chapters on the Najdi tradition in poetry, linguistic features, and prosody.

Tinker Belles and Evil Queens Sean Griffin, 2000-02. The Walt Disney company is the brand name of conservative American family values but also has a long and complex history with the gay and lesbian community. This text examines that relationship from the 1930s up to the 1990s.

The Languages of Global Hip Hop Marina Terkourafi, 2010-07-22. In the case of hip hop, the forces of top-down corporatization and bottom-up globalization are inextricably woven. This volume takes the view that hip hop should not be viewed with this dichotomous dynamic in mind and that this dynamic does not arise solely outside of the continental US. Close analysis of the facts reveals a much more complex situation in which market pressures, local musical traditions, linguistic and semiotic intelligibility, as well as each country's particular historico-political past, conspire to yield new hybrid expressive genres. This exciting collection looks at linguistic, cultural, and economic aspects of hip hop in parallel and showcases a global scope. It engages with questions of code-switching, code-mixing, the minority language, regional dialect vs. standard dynamic, the discourse of political resistance, immigrant ideologies, youth, and new language varieties and will be essential reading for graduates and researchers in sociolinguistics and discourse analysis.
