Consciousness J. F. Pagel, Philip Kirshtein, 2017-04-13 Machine Dreaming and Consciousness is the first book to discuss the questions raised by the advent of machine dreaming Artificial intelligence AI systems meeting criteria of primary and self reflexive consciousness are often utilized to extend the human interface creating waking experiences that resemble the human dream Surprisingly AI systems also easily meet all human based operational criteria for dreaming These dreams are far different from anthropomorphic dreaming including such processes as fuzzy logic liquid illogic and integration instability all processes that may be necessary in both biologic and artificial systems to extend creative capacity Today multi linear AI systems are being built to resemble the structural framework of the human central nervous system The creation of the biologic framework of dreaming emotions associative memories and visual imagery is well within our technical capacity AI dreams potentially portend the further development of consciousness in these systems This focus on AI dreaming raises even larger questions In many ways dreaming defines our humanity What is humanly special about the states of dreaming And what are we losing when we limit our focus to its technical and biologic structure and extend the capacity for dreaming into our artificial creations Machine Dreaming and Consciousness provides thorough discussion of these issues for neuroscientists and other researchers investigating consciousness and cognition Addresses the function and role of dream like processing in AI systems Describes the functions of dreaming in the creative process of both humans and machines Presents an alternative approach to the philosophy of machine consciousness Provides thorough discussion of machine dreaming and consciousness for neuroscientists and other researchers investigating consciousness and cognition The Secret Country Sarah

Robertson, 2007 The Secret Country is the first monograph on the work of the contemporary American novelist Jayne Anne Phillips Through detailed and innovative textual analysis this study considers the southern aspects of Phillips writing Robertson demonstrates the importance of Phillips place within the southern literary canon by identifying the echoes of William Faulkner Katherine Anne Porter and Edgar Allan Poe that permeate her work Phillips complex attachments to a regional past are explored through both psychoanalytical and historical materialist approaches revealing not only the writer s distinctly southern preoccupations but also her reflections on contemporary American society Tracing the family dynamics in Phillips work from the turn of the twentieth century to the present this book examines the effects of increased modernization and capitalization on everyday interactions and questions the nature of the author s backward glance to the past This volume is of interest for a wide audience particularly students and scholars of contemporary southern and American literature

Vietnam and the Southern Imagination Owen W. Gilman, 1992 Much recent fiction from the American South has spotlighted the American ordeal in Vietnam and a generation of southern writers has been imaginatively preoccupied with ironic parallels that rise out of the Vietnam experience and their own region's tragic past This stimulating study of American cultural history discovers the powerful and intriguing links It shows how profoundly the Vietnam experience has penetrated the imaginations of some of America's most acclaimed writers and how their compulsive sense of southern history unites their vision with the history of the Vietnam War Set against the backdrop of their homeland Vietnam reveals striking parallels Works by a profusion of southern writers have disclosed this astonishing connection in their heritage James Webb Bobbie Ann Mason Jayne Anne Phillips Clyde Edgerton Madison Smartt Bell Barry Hannah Winston Groom Gustav Hasford Harry Crews Larry Brown Sydney Blair Pat Conroy David Huddle Yusef Komunyakaa and Walter McDonald have found in Vietnam many provocative echoes of fundamental issues that first came to a head in the American Civil War Out of the past the issue of race and the dedication to the land remain distinct themes in contemporary southern fiction about Vietnam This absorbing study of cultural echoes that have charged the creative imaginations of fifteen southern writers unites shades of the southern past with the reality of the American present Both periods have evinced an alarming impulse toward violence In this context James Dickey's Deliverance although not a novel about Vietnam becomes a paradigm of force and southern violence It serves to reveal the modern southern storyteller's imaginative vision of violence both past and present Whether writing of soldiers at war or of the tumult at home whether expressing the persisting anxiety about race relations or sustaining the community through storytelling southern writers have found in Vietnam a weirdly revelatory mirror of their own cultural heritage

Contemporary American Stories of Masculinity, Domesticity and Kinship Helena Wahlström,2010-10-12 What do novels such as Annie Proulx s The Shipping News Michael Cunningham s A Home at the End of the World and Jayne Anne Phillips MotherKind have in common with films such as Smoke and Mrs Doubtfire This study explores the intersection of masculinity and domesticity in contemporary film and literature It argues that these texts produced since the 1990s address with some urgency the notion of new fatherhood in the United States They offer explorations of the idea that American fatherhood around the turn of the twenty first century is changing and they problematize the legitimacy of new fathers and alternative families in a national culture where the old patriarch and the nuclear family still often loom large in the imagination of many Americans The World Is Our Home Jeffrey J. Folks,Nancy Summers Folks,2021-10-21 Since the early 1970s southern fiction has been increasingly attentive to social issues including the continuing struggles for racial justice and gender equality the loss of a sense of social community and the decline of a coherent regional identity The essays in The World Is Our Home focus on writers who have explicitly addressed social and cultural issues in their fiction and drama including Dorothy Allison Horton Foote Ernest J Gaines Jill McCorkle Walker Percy Lee Smith William Styron Alice Walker and many others The contributors provide valuable insights into the transformation of southern culture over the past thirty years and probe the social and cultural divisions that persist The collection makes an important case for the centrality of social critique in contemporary southern fiction Narratives of the Vietnam War by Korean and American Writers Jinim Park,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph
