My Home Now Migrants And Refugees Tell Their Stories:

The Dispossessed John Washington, 2020-04-28 Arnovis couldn't stay in El Salvador. If he didn't leave, a local gangster promised that his family would dress in mourning that he would wake up with flies in his mouth. It was like a bomb exploded in my life. Arnovis said. The Dispossessed tells the story of a twenty-four-year-old Salvadoran man, Arnovis, whose family's search for safety shows how the United States in concert with other Western nations has gutted asylum protections for the world's most vulnerable. Crisscrossing the border and Central America, John Washington traces one man's quest for asylum. Arnovis is separated from his daughter by US Border Patrol agents and struggles to find security after being repeatedly deported to a gang-ruled community in El Salvador. Traumatic experiences relayed by Washington with vivid intensity. Adding historical, literary, and current political context to the discussion of migration today, Washington tells the history of asylum law and practice through ages to the present day. Packed with information and reflection, The Dispossessed is more than a human portrait of those who cross borders; it is an urgent and persuasive case for sharing the country we call home.

Psychotherapy and Culture Zack Eleftheriadou, 2018-05-08 This book focuses on cross-cultural relationships and examines how culture and racial factors manifest in the clinical setting. It discusses on how to work with both cross-cultural differentiation and integration.

Using Narrative Inquiry for Educational Research in the Asia Pacific Sheila Trahar, Wai Ming Yu, 2015-04-10 Narrative inquiry is being used more widely in the UK, the USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and Northern European countries to conduct research across a range of disciplines. It is gaining popularity in Hong Kong, Macao, and Mainland China, but research in these contexts continues to be dominated by quantitative and more traditional qualitative approaches. Narrative inquirers in these areas can therefore find it problematic to have the value of their work acknowledged. This book demonstrates creatively, accessibly, and rigorously the ways in which narrative inquiry as a methodological approach already more firmly established in Australia and New Zealand is gaining a foothold in other parts of the Asia Pacific region. Contributors to the book write about their use of narrative inquiry in, for example, the Confucian heritage cultures of Hong Kong, Mainland China, Singapore, Macao, and the Anglo-Celtic cultures of Australia and New Zealand. Chapters in the book include Creative Non-Fiction Across Cultures in Asia Pacific Contexts, Riding the Wave of Education Reform Using a Reflecting Team to Explore the Professional Identities of School Counsellors in Hong Kong, Is the Silent Mode On? Researching Teachers' Voices in Macao through Narrative Research, Narrative Inquiry and the Exploration of Culture for Improving Teacher Education. This book will appeal to researchers across all sectors of education, in particular those who are exploring the use of qualitative research methods in their context. Those interested in comparative education and cross-cultural studies will also find this book valuable.

Refugees and the Meaning of Home Helen Taylor, 2015-11-03 This book explores the meaning of home for Cypriot refugees living in London since their island was torn apart by war. Taking an innovative approach, it looks at how spaces, time, social networks, and sensory experiences come together as home is constructed It places refugee narratives at its centre to reveal the agency of those forced to migrate

A Manifesto for the Just City Roberto Rocco, Caroline Newton, 2023-09-24 This is the third volume in the Manifesto for the Just City series published by TU Delft OPEN Publishing This is a project spearheaded by the Centre for the Just City at the Delft University of Technology The Manifestos in this book endeavour to envision alternative positive urban futures as a counterpoint to prevailing cynicism and political disillusionment This exercise is largely based on the ideas of Professor Faranak Miraftab on practices of hope and decoloniality The 81 Manifestos written by 313 students from 63 universities around the world come in the wake of a four part workshop in October 2022 in which TU Delft together with its many partners invites students from all over the world to listen to the accounts of leading academics and practitioners whose knowledge touches aspects of spatial justice and to articulate their own ideas for what makes the just city The scholars invited in 2022 included Professor Faranak Miraftab from the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign US Professor Clarissa Freitas from the Federal University of Ceara in Fortaleza Brazil Dr Gynna Millan Franco from the Universidad del Valle in Cali Colombia Professor Vanesa Castaño Broto from the University of Sheffield in the UK and Professor Hiba Bou Akar from Columbia University in New York US Teachers from around the world who use the Manifesto as a class exercise have also contributed with short essays The Centre for the Just City was set up at the Faculty of Architecture and the Built Environment at the Delft University of Technology in response to the pressing challenges of rampant social inequalities affecting the cohesion and the sustainability of cities and communities Recognising the vital need to address these issues the Centre emerged as a platform for research education and outreach activities for the creation of just cities Since its inception the Centre has been at the forefront of bridging theory and practice fostering collaborations and influencing policies and actions that contribute to making cities equitable sustainable and inclusive For more information please visit <https://justcity.org>

Refugee Lives in the Archives Gillian Whitlock, 2024-07-25 This book introduces the unique archive of letters textiles hand drawn maps emails and photographs from asylum seekers held indefinitely in offshore detention at Topside Camp Nauru 2001-5 These artefacts introduce the distinctive and creative forms of resistance produced by asylum seekers in the remote Pacific camps on Nauru and Manus Island and they expose their experiential histories of radical suffering and trauma Paying due deference to the creative and aesthetic agency of these various documents and artefacts created by the undocumented here Gillian Whitlock generates a cultural biography of the Nauru camp that humanizes those who have remained unseen and unheard and features the activist campaigns and the political resistance that assert the agency of witnessing refugees Structured around the collections of various artefacts exchanged between detainees and humanitarian activists Refugee Lives in the Archives draws on emerging theories from detention centres and the asylum seekers themselves in a distinctive and expansive Pacific imaginary of refugee life narrative Building on Whitlock's substantial body of work in testimonial documentary and archive practices this book focuses on the testimony of things and probes an approach to archival studies that moves life writing in new directions to respond collaboratively to the diverse materiality of story telling and exchanges in the unique and creative forms of asylum seekers voices stories and epistemologies Investigation of Problems Presented by Refugees at Fort Ontario Refugee Shelter United States. Congress. House. Committee on Immigration and Naturalization, 1945 A Country of Refuge Lucy Popescu, 2016-06-02 A Country of Refuge is a poignant thought provoking and timely anthology of writing on asylum seekers from some of Britain and Ireland's most influential voices among them Sebastian Barry William Boyd A L Kennedy and Hanif Kureishi Compiled and edited by human rights activist and writer Lucy Popescu this powerful collection of short fiction memoir poetry and essays explores what it really means to be a refugee to flee from conflict poverty and terror to have to leave your home and family behind and to undertake a perilous journey only to arrive on less than welcoming shores These writings are a testament to the strength of the human spirit The contributors articulate simple truths about migration that will challenge the way we think about and act towards the dispossessed and those forced to seek a safe place to call home Cambodian Refugees in Southeast Asia United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs, 1985 Emotions and Belonging in Forced Migration Basem Mahmud, 2021-09-27 Emotions and Belonging in Forced Migration takes a sociology of emotions approach to gain a better understanding of the present situation of forced migration Furthermore it helps to bring the voices and views of forced migrants to academic and public debates in Western society where they have been generally absent and often investigated with predefined concepts and categories based on theories having little relevance to their cultural and social experiences This work however is based on an inductive methodology that carefully carries the voices of forced migrants throughout the research Therefore it will be of interest for various audiences from different disciplines in social sciences as for any readers seeking to learn more about the refugees in his building neighbourhood city or country Finally it provides an insightful lens for those who want to know more about Syria and the Arab uprisings after 2010 It is the first study of what Syrians feel during the entirety of their difficult ordeal fleeing Syria traversing different countries in the global South and landing in Western ones No other book treats this thematic focus with the same geographic and temporal breadth National School Service, 1918 Reclaiming Radical Ideas in Schools Andrew Moffat, 2017-12-01 Reclaiming Radical Ideas in Schools provides support for every primary school in the provision of Spiritual Moral Social and Cultural Development SMSC the teaching of British values and preparation for life in modern Britain Providing practical and tried and tested strategies this resource will help primary schools work together to create an inclusive environment that focuses on reducing radicalisation and radical ideas It will support schools in creating an ethos for young children where their questions about the world are explored and answered without fear or discrimination Moffat is the author of No Outsiders in Our School Teaching the Equality Act in Primary Schools which provides teachers with a curriculum that promotes equality for all sections of the community Using the No Outsiders model as a foundation this new book complements it by putting emphasis on engaging parent communities in the school ethos The resource includes 13 lesson plans to deliver with children and their parents in school based workshops with homework activities to follow Each lesson is based around a picture book and includes fun activities alongside discussion of issues on individual differences including race gender and sexuality The resource also provides guidance on how to deliver assemblies that support the No Outsiders ethos and how to approach discussing terrorism with children This is an invaluable resource for anyone working in a primary school setting as well as trainee teachers ITT providers and educational advisors The aim is to extend the successful No Outsiders ethos beyond the school gates to the community to ensure that we are working together to develop a safe and cohesive British society

Un-Settling Middle Eastern Refugees Marcia C. Inhorn, Lucia Volk, 2021-06-11 Since the Iraq war the Middle East has been in continuous upheaval resulting in the displacement of millions of people Arriving from Afghanistan Iraq Palestine and Syria in other parts of the world the refugees show remarkable resilience and creativity amidst profound adversity Through careful ethnography this book vividly illustrates how refugees navigate regimes of exclusion including cumbersome bureaucracies financial insecurities medical challenges vilifying stereotypes and threats of violence The collection bears witness to their struggles while also highlighting their aspirations for safety settlement and social inclusion in their host societies and new homes
