

First-Wave Feminism: The Legacy

- 1950s – With war over and men needing to return to their jobs (and thus their “proper” gender roles), the focus returns to the nuclear family, which requires women back in the home.

These images were advertisements designed to encourage women to buy household items that could then be used to signify what good mothers and wives they were, as evidenced by their clean houses and shiny new appliances. Redirecting women's attention to what they could buy was supposed to make the idea of returning to the domestic sphere a more appealing idea.
